Independence, Colonial Relics, and Monuments in the Caribbean Allison O. Ramsay, Jerome Teelucksingh, 2024-04-17. Independence, Colonial Relics, and Monuments in the Caribbean is a collection of critical perspectives on independence and the legacies of colonialism in the post colonial Caribbean. The contributors examine themes relating to culture, identity, gender, nationhood, heritage and historic preservation in the post independent Caribbean. In a twenty first century context where calls for reparatory justice for the people of the Caribbean who have been disadvantaged by the effects of colonialism have intensified, this book is quite relevant as some chapters examine colonialism through relics, laws, statues and monuments while other chapters explore the implications of African enslavement, the role of Indian indentureship, the Federation of the West Indies and the effect of the American based Black Lives Movement on the Caribbean.

Rasta, Race and Revolution Katrin Hansing, 2006. Decades after its birth and subsequent tour du monde, Rastafari has more recently also appeared in revolutionary Cuba. How the movement has been globalized and subsequently localized in a socialist and Spanish speaking context are the main foci of this book. In particular it examines how Cubans have adopted and adapted the movement to their own socio political and cultural context. Particular attention is paid to Rastafari's development in the context of Cuba's current economic crisis and re appearance of more overt racism. Based on extensive ethnographic fieldwork in Cuba, the study shows how Rastafari's growth and presence on the island have influenced and contributed to the formation and expression of new cultural identities and discourses with regard to what it means to be young black and Cuban. Katrin Hansing is a social anthropologist who has worked on numerous Cuba related issues. Her main areas of interests and expertise include migration, race, ethnicity and identity. She is currently the director of a German Research Council funded research project on Cuba's social collaboration ties in Africa.
