Category Mistakes Ofra Magidor, 2013-07-25. Category mistakes are sentences such as "Green ideas sleep furiously", "Saturday is in bed", and "The theory of relativity is eating breakfast". Such sentences strike most speakers as highly infelicitous, but it is a challenge to explain precisely why they are so. Ofra Magidor addresses this challenge while providing a comprehensive discussion of the various treatments of category mistakes in both philosophy of language and linguistics. The phenomenon of category mistakes is particularly interesting to both these fields because a plausible case can be and has been made for explaining it in terms of syntax, semantics, and pragmatics, making it a fruitful case for exploring the relations between and nature of these three fundamental realms of language. Category Mistakes follows this division. After an introduction which explains the aims and motivations for the project and provides a brief historical survey of the modern treatment of category mistakes in each of philosophy, linguistics, and computer science, Magidor discusses four approaches in turn: first, the syntactic approach which maintains that category mistakes are syntactically ill-formed; then, two semantic approaches, though one that appeals to different semantic facets, the meaninglessness view which maintains that category mistakes are meaningless, and the MBT view according to which category mistakes are meaningful but truth-valueless; and finally, the pragmatic approach according to which category mistakes are syntactically well-formed, meaningful, truth-valued, but nevertheless pragmatically inappropriate. Magidor argues that the first three approaches ought to be rejected, and in the final chapter addresses the main challenge by developing and defending a particular version of the pragmatic approach: a presuppositional account of category mistakes. Metal

Broken Mirrors and Burning Bushes Jeremy Rubinstein,2019-08-28 Just call it the memoir love story of a drug addict white rapper with unresolved mommy and daddy issues Ha Yeah that s a laugher The love story part of course being my wife Alice Except she forgets that my rap career in Southern California essentially ended with the shootout in the parking lot of Barnes and Noble sending us pinballing across the country like a couple of wanna be Bonnie and Clydes Only Bonnie and Clyde weren t high on drugs and they stuck to banks Alice was a waitress when we met so restaurants just made sense

And I m pretty sure Bonnie and Clyde never had children Our son Caleb was born in a crack motel while the cops were out in full force looking for us But all that comes later like way later after Alice first goes into labor with our daughter Hannah on Halloween night the night Corey and I got robbed at gunpoint by the Three Stooges Of course that wouldn t have happened had I not let Alice convince me that selling crystal meth would make me more money than just pot and ecstasy But then Corey always said events like that tend to serve a higher purpose What can I say Halloween has always had a weird significance to me There s something symbolic about running around at night with a mask on trying to be Master of your own Universe surrounded by ghosts and ghouls and goblins with your toy weapon in one hand and your goodie bag in the other trying to score as much candy as you can before the real darkness takes over Where did that child go That kid with the He Man mask Sometimes our biggest fears are the answers to questions we ask Any other questions Just read the damn book
