The Palgrave Handbook of Critical Music Industry Studies

David Ardit, Ryan Nolan, 2024-09-28 The Handbook of Critical Music Industry Studies provides students and researchers with the means to think about how the performance recording and publishing of music could be if we do things differently. People are hungry for a more equitable music performance and recording system. The industry exudes patriarchy, white supremacy, cultural imperialism, ableism, and worker exploitation. In the context of gendered e.g. MeToo and TimesUp and racialized e.g. Black Lives Matter, inequity, rampant precarity, and casualization, and modes of musical dissemination that are changing faster than policymakers and regulatory bodies can keep up with the timing for assembling such an interdisciplinary collection could not be more appropriate. Essays in this handbook will tackle power structures at root in the music industry and the academic study of the field. Topics covered include the politics of representation and power in the global music industries, the labor of music, music as media, including data and algorithmic culture, and copyright, intellectual property, among others. Chapter 35 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com

Latina/o Discourse in Vernacular Spaces

Michelle A. Holling, Bernadette M. Calafell, 2011-02-22 Taking up the charge to study discourses of marginalized groups while simultaneously extending scholarship about Latinas in the field of Communication, Latina/o Discourse in Vernacular Spaces: Somos de Una Voz provides the most current work examining the vernacular voices of Latinas. The editors of this diverse collection structure the book along four topics: Locating Foundations, Citizenship and Belonging, The Politics of Self Representation, and Trans National Voices, that are guided by the organizing principle of voz voces. Voz voces resonates not only in intellectual endeavors but also in public arenas in which perceptions of Latinas as being of one voice circulate. The study of voz voces proceeds from a variety of sites including cultural myth, social movement, music, testimonios, a website, and autoethnographic performance. By questioning and addressing the politics of voz voces, the essays collectively underscore the complexity that shapes Latina/o multivocality. Ultimately, the contours of Latina/o vernacular expressions call attention to the ways that these unique communities continue to craft identities that transform social understandings of who Latinas are to engage in forms of resistance that alter relations of power and to challenge self and dominant representations.

Corporate Life in the Digital Music Industry Toby

Bennett, 2024-08-22 Drawing on a deep and long term first hand engagement with major labels in the early years of the 21st century, this book sheds new light behind the scenes at a time of drastic and far reaching transformation. Refreshingly, it centres not on artists and the most powerful decision makers but on everyday experiences of work and back office corporate employees. Doing so reveals the internal activities and conflicts that while hidden from public view enable processes of change from paperwork, data systems, managerial pressures and redundancies to graduate training schemes, departmental politics, and shared playlists, providing a new route into understanding the broader cultures and infrastructures of the global

Between Marx and Coca-Cola Axel Schildt, Detlef Siegfried, 2006-12-01 In the 1960s and 1970s Western Europe's Golden Age Eric Hobsbawm a new youth consciousness emerged which gave this period its distinctive character Offering rich and new material this volume moves beyond the easy conflation of youth culture and Americanization and instead sets out to show for the first time how international developments fused with national traditions to produce specific youth cultures that became the leading trendsetters of emergent post industrial Western societies It presents a multi faceted portrait of European youth cultures colored by differences in gender class and education and points out the tension between emerging consumerism and growing politicisation succinctly expressed by Jean Luc Godard in his 1967 pairing of Marx and Coca Cola
