The Movieland Directory ,2015-07-11 The Los Angeles area feels almost alive with movie history It is impossible to walk down any neighborhood block that didn't play host to movie history on some level From Chaplin walking Hollywood sidewalks in 1915 to the Three Stooges running down Culver City streets in 1930 to westerns filmed in the Valley in the 1950's the area has been the background for thousands of films and home to millions of movie people Historical documents census records movie studio and institutional archives and personal writings have all been scoured in order to compile the most exhaustive and complete Hollywood address listing ever compiled The Arts and the American Home, 1890-1930 Jessica H. Foy,Karal Ann Marling,1995-07 Between 1890 and 1930 the domestic arts as well as the daily life of the American family began to reflect rapid advances in technology aesthetics and attitudes about American culture Pictorial literary musical and decorative arts from this era all reveal a shift from clutter to clarity and from profusion to restraint as modern conveniences ranging from pre-stamped needlework patterns to central heat were introduced into the domestic environment However the household arts were also affected by an enduring strain of conservatism reflected in the popularity of historically inspired furnishing styles In this collection of essays ten experts in turn of the century popular and material culture examine how the struggle between modernity and tradition was reflected in various facets of the household aesthetic Their findings touch on sub themes of gender generation and class to provide a fascinating commentary on what middle class Americans were prepared to discard in the name of modernity and what they stubbornly retained for the sake of ideology Through an examination of material culture and prescriptive literature from this period the essayists also demonstrate how changes in artistic expression affected the psychological social and cultural lives of everyday Americans This book joins a growing list of titles dedicated to analyzing and interpreting the cultural dimensions of past domestic life Its essays shed new light on house history by tracking the transformation of a significant element of home life its expressions of art
