American Antebellum Fiddling Chris Goertzen, 2020-02-28 This unique volume is the only book solely about antebellum American fiddling It includes more than 250 easy to read and clearly notated fiddle tunes alongside biographies of fiddlers and careful analysis of their personal tune collections The reader learns what the tunes of the day were what the fiddlers' lives were like and as much as can be discovered about how fiddling sounded then Personal histories and tunes biographies offer an accessible window on a fascinating period on decades of growth and change and on rich cultural history made audible In the decades before the Civil War American fiddling thrived mostly in oral tradition but some fiddlers also wrote down versions of their tunes This overlap between oral and written traditions reveals much about the sounds and social contexts of fiddling at that time In the early 1800s aspiring young violinists maintained manuscript collections of tunes they intended to learn These books contained notations of oral tradition dance tunes many of them melodies that predated and would survive this era plus plenty of song melodies and marches Chris Goertzen takes us into the lives and repertoires of two such young men Arthur McArthur and Philander Seward Later in the 1830s to 1850s music publications grew in size and shrunk in cost so fewer musicians kept personal manuscript collections But a pair of energetic musicians did Goertzen tells the stories of two remarkable violinist fiddlers who wrote down many hundreds of tunes and whose notations of those tunes are wonderfully detailed Charles M Cobb and William Sidney Mount Goertzen closes by examining particularly problematic collections He takes a fresh look at George Knauff's Virginia Reels and presents and analyzes an amateur musician's own questionable but valuable transcriptions of his grandfather's fiddling which reaches back to antebellum western Virginia
