Meyer, 2010-01-15 This book chronicles fifth and sixth grade writers in a poor culturally diverse rural school in the southwest US coming into their voices cultivating those voices and using those voices in a variety of venues beginning with the classroom community and spreading outward The big ideas of official and unofficial portraits are presented followed by data and facets of the theoretical construct of counterportraits in each chapter as a response to official portraits Appalachian lives Shelby Lee Adams, 2003-01-01 A collection of eighty photographs highlights the real Appalachia distinguishing it from the popular mythology surrounding this impoverished region By the author of Appalachian Portraits and Appalachian Legacy Social Science Radical History Review: Volume 69 , 1998-04-02 Radical History Review presents innovative scholarship and commentary that looks critically at the past and its history from a non sectarian left perspective Portrait and Biographical Album of Jackson County, Michigan , 1890 Drawing Us In , 2001-04-13 With Contributions by Dorothy Allison John Berger Mark Doty Mary Gordon bell hooks Alfred Kazin August Wilson and others For the contributors to Drawing Us In visual art makes us see what we haven't seen before it surprises transforms and comforts us Dorothy Allison explains how a painting in a Baptist church taught her as a child that art connects people from disparate backgrounds Alfred Kazin reflects on his wanderings around New York's museums as a teenager Mary Gordon finds that Bonnard's still lifes put in perspective her mother's struggle with illness and aging For anyone who has felt moved by the visual this collection offers a delightful range of views on how and why art matters in our psychic social and political lives Portrait and Biographical Album of Fulton County, Illinois , 1890 Poverty Politics Sarah Robertson, 2019-08-23 Representations of southern poor whites have long shifted between romanticization and demonization At worst poor southern whites are aligned with racism bigotry and right wing extremism and at best regarded as the passive victims of wider socioeconomic policies In Poverty Politics Poor Whites in Contemporary Southern Writing author Sarah Robertson pushes beyond these stereotypes and explores the impact of neoliberalism and welfare reform on depictions of poverty Robertson examines representations of southern poor whites across various types of literature including travel writing photo narratives life writing and eco literature and reveals a common interest in communitarianism that crosses the boundaries of the US South and regionalism moving past ideas about the culture of poverty to examine the economics of poverty Included are critical examinations of the writings of southern writers such as Dorothy Allison Rick Bragg Barbara Kingsolver Tim McLaurin Toni Morrison and Ann Pancake Poverty Politics includes critical engagement with identity politics as well as reflections on issues including Hurricane Katrina the 2008 financial crisis and mountaintop removal Robertson interrogates the presumed opposition between the Global North and the Global South and engages with microregions through case studies on Appalachian photo narratives and eco literature Importantly she focuses not merely on representations of southern poor whites but also on writing that calls for alternative ways of reconceptualizing not just the poor but societal measures of time value and worth
