Mercy for Today Jonathan Parnell, 2020-01-07 You cannot make it without God's mercy Do we just need God's grace in dark and shameful moments Are prayers for mercy only for those times when we really mess up Jonathan Parnell says we need God's mercy all the time In fact contrary to many church cultures Parnell shows that asking God for mercy should be as regular as asking God for our daily bread There's no doubt that David was in a terrible predicament when he first prayed the words of Psalm 51 It was a dark and shameful moment in the Bible and one so dark and shameful it seldom feels relevant to us today But David's most desperate prayer is really a prayer for all of us and not just for our worst moments but for our every moment In these pages you'll discover how to pray a daily memorable prayer derived from Psalm 51 how to practice daily repentance and soul care how to pursue God and experience his joy in the Christian life This is God's mercy and it's Mercy for Today

Ryan Whitaker Smith and Dan Wilt have seen heard and felt while sojourning in the Psalms While each prayer corresponds to a particular psalm and touches on its themes and ideas it is not a new translation of the Psalms or an attempt to modernize or contextualize their content or language Rather the prayers are responses to the Psalms written in harmony with Scripture These prayers help us quiet our hearts before God and welcome us into a safe place amid the storms of life This artful poetic and classic devotional book features compelling custom illustrations and beautiful hardcover binding offering a fresh way to reflect on and pray the Psalms
