Reading In Detail Aesthetics And The Feminine:

Reading in Detail Naomi Schor, 2013-10-18 Who cares about details As Naomi Schor explains in her highly influential book we do but it has not always been so The interest in detail in art in literature and as an aesthetic category is the product of the decline of classicism and the rise of realism But the story of the detail is as political as it is aesthetic Secularization the disciplining of society the rise of consumerism the invention of the quotidian have all brought detail to the fore In this classic work of aesthetic and feminist theory now available in a new paperback edition Schor provides ways of thinking about details and ornament in literature art and architecture and uncovering the unspoken but powerful ideologies that attached gender to details Wide ranging and richly argued Reading in Detail presents ideas about reading and viewing that will enhance the study of literature and the arts

Epistolary Entanglements in Film, Media and the Visual Arts Teri Higgins, Catherine Fowler, 2025-10-01 This collection departs from the observation that online forms of communication the email blog text message tweet are actually haunted by old epistolary forms the letter and the diary By examining the omnipresence of writing across a variety of media the collection adds the category of Epistolary Screens to genres of self expression both literary letters diaries auto biographies and screenic romance dramas intercultural cinema essay films artists videos and online media The category Epistolary encapsulates an increasingly paradoxical relation between writing and the self first it describes selves that are written in graphic detail via letters diaries blogs texts emails and tweets second it acknowledges that absence complicates communication bringing people together in an entangled rather than ordered way The collection concerns itself with the changing visual textual texture of screen media and examines what is at stake for our understanding of self expression when it takes Epistolary forms The collection Auto graphic Screens Epistolary Entanglements in Film Media and Visual Culture Is the first to interrogate the presence of epistolary forms of writing on screen It adds the new category of Auto graphic screens to genres of self expression and provides a broad perspective upon epistolary forms of writing on screen by studying romance dramas and intercultural cinema essay films artist s filmmaking and online media

Encyclopedia of Feminist Literary Theory Elizabeth Kowaleski-Wallace, 2009-03-23 From the cutting edge to the basics The latest advances as well as the essentials of feminist literary theory are at your fingertips as soon as you open this brand new reference work It features in quick and convenient form precise definitions of important terms and concise summaries of the salient ideas of critics working in the field who have made significant contributions to feminist literary studies and points out how a feminist perspective has affected the development of emerging ideas and intellectual practices Every effort has been made to include as many feminist thinkers as possible Expanded coverage of key subjects Overview entries cover topics ranging from creativity beauty and eroticism topornography violence and war with a thorough exploration of the major theoretical points of feminist literary approaches and concerns In addition entries organized around literary periods and fields such as medieval studies Shakespeare and Romanticism survey subjects in the framework of feminist literary theory and feminist concerns Shows how feminist ideas have shaped literary theory The Encyclopedia gathers in one place all the key words topics proper names and critical terminology of feminist literary theory Emphasis throughout is on usage in the United States and Great Britain since the 1970s Each entry is accompanied by a bibliography that is a point of departure for further research A key advantage of this Encyclopedia is that it amasses bibliographic references for so many important and often cited works within a single volume Instructors especially will find this information invaluable in the preparation of course material Special Features Offers precise contemporary definitions of all important critical terms Summarizes the salient ideas of key literary critics Overviews cover major theoretical issues Entries on periods and fields survey feminist contributions Emphasizes terminology that has evolved since the 1970s Indexes proper names subjects key words and related topics Embodying Beauty Malin Pereira, 2021-12-12 First Published in 2000 This study stands alone in pairing black and white American women writers across the twentieth century on the intertwined issues of female beauty and literary aesthetics Other studies published during the late 1980s and early 1990s such as Aldon Lynn Nielsen's Reading Race White American Poets and the Racial Discourse in the Twentieth Century 1988 Dana B Nelson's The Word in Black and White Reading Race in American Literature 1992 and Eric J Sundquist's To Wake the Nations Race in the Making of American Literature 1993 have also engaged in the process of reading racist discourse in white texts or in attempting to construct a dialogue between black and white texts None however has been concerned with female beauty and literary aesthetics in relation to twentieth century American women writers and race

British Television Drama J. Bignell, S. Lacey, 2014-05-12 Featuring leading scholars of British television drama and noted writers and producers from the television industry this new edition of British Television Drama evaluates past and present TV fiction since the 1960s and considers its likely future Deciphering Culture Jane Crisp, Kay Ferres, Gillian Swanson, 2000 This key title explores the issues of representation subjectivity and sexuality focusing in particular on the ways that representations are used to form identities in different spheres of life Constance Fenimore Woolson's Nineteenth Century Victoria Brehm, 2001 These essays explore topics crucial to understanding the period's literature and suggest new directions for scholarship Together they constitute a collection that expands the available body of criticism about Woolson and her contemporaries This book is indispensable reading for anyone interested in nineteenth century women's fiction and travel writing Jacket The Forms of the Affects Eugenie Brinkema, 2014-05-12 What is the relationship between a cinematic grid of color and that most visceral of negative affects disgust How might anxiety be a matter of an interrupted horizontal line or grief a figure of blazing light Offering a bold corrective to the emphasis on embodiment and experience in recent affect theory Eugenie Brinkema develops a novel mode of criticism that locates the forms of particular affects within the specific details of cinematic and textual construction Through close readings of works by Roland Barthes Hollis Frampton Sigmund Freud Peter Greenaway Michael Haneke Alfred Hitchcock S ren Kierkegaard and David Lynch Brinkema shows that deep attention to form structure and aesthetics enables a fundamental rethinking of the study of sensation In the process she delves into concepts as diverse as putrescence in French gastronomy the role of the tear in philosophies of emotion Nietzschean joy as a wild aesthetic of repetition and the psychoanalytic theory of embarrassment Above all this provocative work is a call to harness the vitality of the affective turn for a renewed exploration of the possibilities of cinematic form

Body Work Peter Brooks, 1993 The desire to know the body is a powerful dynamic of storytelling in all its forms Peter Brooks argues that modern narrative is intent on uncovering the body in order to expose a truth that must be written in the flesh In a book that ranges widely through literature and painting Brooks shows how the imagination strives to bring the body into language and to write stories on the body From Rousseau Balzac Mary Shelley and Flaubert to George Eliot Zola Henry James and Marguerite Duras from Manet and Gauguin to Mapplethorpe writers and artists have returned in fascination to the body the inescapable other of the spirit Brooks s deep understanding of psychoanalysis informs his demonstration of how the epistemophilic urge the desire to know guides fictional plots and our reading of them It is the sexual body that furnishes the building blocks of symbolization eventually of language itself which then takes us away from the body Yet mind and language need to recover the body as an other realm that is primary to their very definition Brooks shows how and why the female body has become the field upon which the aspirations anxieties and contradictions of a whole society are played out And he suggests how writers and artists have found in the woman s body the dynamic principle of their storytelling its motor force This major book entertains and teaches Brooks presumes no special knowledge on the part of his readers His account proceeds chronologically from Rousseau in the eighteenth century forward to contemporary artists and writers Body Work gives us a set of analytical tools and ideas primarily from psychoanalysis narrative and film studies and feminist theory that enable us to read modern narrative afresh
