Readings In Mass Communication 1995:

Mass Media James B. Martin, 2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes

Readings in Mass Communication Kimberly K. Massey, 2002 This reader is designed to supplement any core textbook in Introduction to Mass Communication The goal of the reader is to help students think more critically about the media By drawing from a wide variety of sources and political and cultural viewpoints this collection is predicated on the fact that students learn about the media mainly through the media by reading or hearing about media in media publications or broadcasts These articles are drawn mostly from popular and alternative media and take a hard and critical look at the political and social forces that drive media decision making Media/Society David Croteau, William Hoynes, 2003 The Third Edition of this popular text provides students with an overview of the entire media process with an emphasis on how social forces influence the media and how media potentially affect society Media, Culture and Society Paul Hodkinson, 2010-10-15 In his beautifully balanced clear and broad ranging account of a fast changing field Paul Hodkinson has successfully brought together myriad perspectives with which to critically analyse today's media culture and media society Sonia Livingstone Professor of Media Media Power and Control which addresses questions of the media and manipulation the construction of news public service broadcasting censorship commercialization and Media Identity and Culture which covers issues of the media and ethnicity gender subcultures audiences and fans The book is notable for Logical and coherent organization Clarity of expression Use of relevant examples Fair minded criticism Zestful powers of analysis It has all of the qualities to be adopted as core introductory text in the large and buoyant field of media and communication studies Mediapolitik Lee Edwards, 2001 Drawing upon his lifelong study of politics and journalism political historian Lee Edwards offers the first scholarly examination of a powerful new phenomenon in world politics the mass media Edwards argues in his far ranging and innovative work that the media have become as important a factor in determining the course of international affairs and the future of nations as economic prosperity military strength natural resources and national will The author calls this vital new component of world politics mediapolitik He uses case studies from around the world to show how the mass media have influenced and even determined the outcome of major political acts such as the collapse of communism in Eastern and Central Europe the Tiananmen Square massacre in China the ousting of Chilean dictator Augusto Pinochet and the political resurrection of South Africa's Nelson Mandela The author argues that these case studies show that the mass media can either enrich or enslave the human spirit depending upon their moral foundation If the media follow a liberal democratic model as in the United States and Western Europe they contribute to a free and just society If they follow an authoritarian model as in South Africa before Mandela or a totalitarian model as in Saddam Hussein s Iraq or Fidel Castro s Cuba they perpetuate the regime in power and deny the fruits of freedom and democracy to the people Edwards addresses the question of how responsibly the American media the most influential media in the world handle their enormous power Using the results obtained from his survey of 100 leading journalists as well as close analysis of major news stories of the last decade the author confirms the rampant cynicism of the American media and its deleterious effect on American politics and government The solution he suggests is that American journalists must practice moral responsibility and strengthen the liberal democratic model of mediapolitik around the world

ABOUT THE AUTHOR Lee Edwards is senior fellow at the Heritage Foundation and adjunct associate professor of politics at The Catholic University of America He is senior editor of The World I magazine and author or editor of numerous books including The Collapse of Communism The Conservative Revolution The Power of Ideas The Heritage Foundation at 25 Years and Goldwater The Man Who Made a Revolution
