Readings In Sociology 4th Edpb2003:

Black and Catholic Tia Noelle Pratt, 2025-09-01 Black and Catholic documents the exclusion erasure and systematic racism faced by Black Catholics filling an essential gap in both Catholic and Black history In the storied history of the U S Catholic community there is a long standing myth held by Catholics and non Catholics alike that there are no Black Catholics In this deeply researched and compelling book Tia Noelle Pratt debunks this myth and brings forward the religious experiences and culture of Black Catholics filling a void in the literature of both U S Catholicism and African American religion She identifies the nature and ramifications of systemic racism on American Catholicism and how that marginalization impacts Black Catholic identity Building on her extensive research Pratt amplifies the voices and experiences of Black Catholics through original interviews and by sharing the story of St Peter Claver Philadelphia s first Black Catholic church Black and Catholic also explores the ways that liturgy and music can build community celebrate individuality and resist racism Black and Catholic is an essential book that centralizes the Black Catholic community revealing the heartache of racism and discrimination the comfort drawn from the strength of generations of believers and the celebration from combining the music and traditions of African American religious experiences with the belief and rituals of Roman Catholicism Sociology of Self-Knowledge: Course Topic as well as Pedagogical Strategy Mohammad H.

Tamdgidi, Khaldoun Samman, 2005-09-01 This Fall 2004 Spring 2005 III 1 2 double issue of Human Architecture Journal of the Sociology of Self Knowledge demonstrates the extent to which the sociology of self knowledge as advanced by this journal from its inception can serve as both a course topic as well as a pedagogical strategy in teaching sociology and related subjects The issue includes student papers of various faculty at UMass Boston and a symposium of student and faculty papers organized by Khaldoun Samman from Macalester College Samman had earlier taken the step of turning his senior seminar into a course on the sociology of self knowledge and encouraging his students all graduating seniors at Macalester to subject their own lives and troubles to their sociological imaginations The student papers included in the issue as a whole are highly demonstrative of how self and socially critical and liberating the sociology of self knowledge can be Authors use a variety of class and outside readings as well as films and documentaries to explore in depth currently unresolved issues in their lives while making every effort to move in depth to relate their personal troubles to broader public issues Contributors include Deborah D Isabel Claudia Contreras Katherine Heller Rebecca Tink Caitlin Farren Haing Kao Harold Muriaty Rachel A DeFilippis Lee Kang Woon N I B Sharon Brown Jennifer Lambert Anonymous Jorge Capetillo Ponce Khaldoun Samman also as journal issue guest editor Ellen Corrigan Jeremy Cover Jesse Mortenson Jessica Sawyer and Mohammad Tamdgidi also as journal editor in chief Human Architecture Journal of the Sociology of Self Knowledge is a publication of OKCIR The Omar Khayyam Center for Integrative Research in Utopia Mysticism and Science Utopistics For more information about OKCIR and other issues in its journal s Edited Collection as well as Monograph and Translation series visit OKCIR s homepage

Black Wealth / White Wealth Melvin Oliver, Thomas Shapiro, 2013-04-15 The award winning Black Wealth White Wealth offers a powerful portrait of racial inequality based on an analysis of private wealth Melvin Oliver and Thomas Shapiro's groundbreaking research analyzes wealth total assets and debts rather than income alone to uncover deep and persistent racial inequality in America and they show how public policies have failed to redress the problem First published in 1995 Black Wealth White Wealth is considered a classic exploration of race and inequality It provided for the first time systematic empirical evidence that explained the racial inequality gap between blacks and whites The Tenth Anniversary edition contains two entirely new and substantive chapters These chapters look at the continuing issues of wealth and inequality in America and the new policies that have been launched in the past ten years Some have been progressive while others only recreate inequality for example the proposal to eliminate the estate tax Compelling and also informative Black Wealth White Wealth is not just pioneering research It is also a powerful counterpoint to arguments against affirmative action and a direct challenge to current social welfare policies that are tilted towards the wealthy Black Wealth, White Wealth Melvin L. Oliver, Thomas M. Shapiro, 2006 The authors analyse wealth total assets and debts rather than income alone to uncover deep and persistent racial inequality in America and show how public policies fail to redress this problem Sociology: A Down to Earth Approach James M Henslin, Adam M Possamai, Alphia L Possamai-Inesedy, Tim Marjoribanks, Katriona Elder, 2015-05-20 James Henslin has always been able to share the excitement of sociology with his acclaimed down to earth approach and personal writing style that highlight the sociology of everyday life and its relevance to students lives Adapted for students studying within Australia this text now in a second edition has been made even more relevant and engaging to students With wit personal reflection and illuminating examples the local author team share their passion for sociology promote sociology to students and entice them to delve deeper into this exciting science Six central themes run throughout this text down to earth sociology globalisation cultural diversity critical thinking the new technology and the growing influence of the mass media on our lives These themes are especially useful for introducing the controversial topics that make studying sociology such a lively exciting activity Introduction to Collective Behavior and Collective Action David L. Miller, 2013-08-06 David Millers expanded third edition makes it the definitive source on collective behavior and collective action Up to date and meticulously researched this popular volume continues to provide a systematic overview of theory and research Each topic is meaningfully linked to the appropriate theories of collective behavior mass hysteria emergent norm and value added perspectives and collective action social behavioral interactionist resource mobilization and value added perspectives Rumor mass hysteria fads and fashion UFOs sports migrations disasters riots protest and social movements are among the topics presented in a unique side by side presentation of the two disciplines In an engaging accessible style Miller offers detailed discussion of classic sociological studies interspersed with intriguing modern day examples that students will enjoy reading His thorough topical treatment effectively reduces the need for outside readings Anger-Related Disorders

Eva L. Feindler, 2006-04-11 In this ground breaking exploration a glittering array of specialists investigate how and why anger is viewed as a secondary emotion by most clinical theories and practitioners and seeks to answer the following questions What are anger related disorders What do they have in common and how are they different How do we treat the various anger related disorders Drawing on one case study the top notch contributors each present a different method of treatment for anger related disorders By taking into consideration the variety of perspectives and treatments available for anger related disorders this book provides an overview of how clinicians can implement each of these treatments as well as combine treatments to provide a tailored therapy for each individual client Pedagogies for Children's Perspectives

Catherine Patterson, Laurie Kocher, 2018-11-09 Laurie Kocher is a Faculty member in the Department of Early Childhood Care and Education Capilano University Canada Catherine Patterson is Senior Lecturer at the Institute of Early Childhood Department of Educational Studies Macquarie University Australia Gender and Women's Leadership Karen

O'Connor, 2010-08-18 This work within The SAGE Reference Series on Leadership provides undergraduate students with an authoritative reference resource on leadership issues specific to women and gender Although covering historical and contemporary barriers to women's leadership and issues of gender bias and discrimination this two volume set focuses as well on positive aspects and opportunities for leadership in various domains and is centered on the 101 most important topics issues questions and debates specific to women and gender Entries provide students with more detailed information and depth of discussion than typically found in an encyclopedia entry but lack the jargon detail and density of a journal article Key Features Includes contributions from a variety of renowned experts Focuses on women and public leadership in the American context women's global leadership women as leaders in the business sector the nonprofit and social service sector religion academia public policy advocacy the media sports and the arts Addresses both the history of leadership within the realm of women and gender with examples from the lives of pivotal figures and the institutional settings and processes that lead to both opportunities and constraints unique to that realm Offers an approachable clear writing style directed at student researchers Features more depth than encyclopedia entries with most chapters ranging between 6 000 and 8 000 words while avoiding the jargon and density often found in journal articles or research handbooks Provides a list of further readings and references after each entry as well as a detailed index and an online version of the work to maximize accessibility for today's student audience Recognizing Race and Ethnicity Kathleen J. Fitzgerald, 2014-02-18 Despite radical changes over the last century race remains a central organizing principle in U S society a key arena of inequality and the subject of ongoing conflict and debate In a refreshing new introduction to the sociology of race Recognizing Race and Ethnicity encourages students to think differently by challenging the notion that we are or should even aspire to be color blind In this text Kathleen Fitzgerald considers how the continuing significance of race manifests in both significant and obscure ways by looking across all racial ethnic groups within the socio historical context of institutions and arenas rather than discussing each group by group Incorporating recent research and contemporary theoretical perspectives she guides students to examine racial ideologies and identities as well as structural racism at the same time she covers topics like popular culture sports and interracial relationships that will keep students engaged Recognizing Race and Ethnicity provides unparalleled coverage of white privilege while remaining careful to not treat white as the norm against which all other groups are defined Recognizing Race and Ethnicity makes it clear that in a time when race and racism are constantly evolving in response to varied social contexts societal demands and political climates we all must learn to recognize race if we are to get beyond it
