Books in All Fields Dover Publications, Inc, 1997 Connecting Mary Chayko, 2012-02-01 How do we become connected to people we have never met in person From celebrities to faraway relatives from favorite writers to thinkers to people we meet on line we form a host of subtle invisible but very real social connections with distant others In Connecting Mary Chayko investigates how physically separated people manage to create a sense of connectedness a meeting of the minds and feel undeniably if unexpectedly bonded Through dozens of personal accounts the book considers the social fallout of connecting with absent others the benefits and hazards on our societies communities relationships and individual selves The result is a comprehensive yet intimate look at social bonding as it is rarely recorded an examination of the bonds and communities we form across great distances and even across time in the age of the Internet The Comics Journal Library Gary

Groth, Michael Dean, 2015-01-15 The definitive Comics Journal interviews with the cartoonists behind Zap Comix featuring Supreme 1960s counterculture underground artist Robert Crumb on how acid unleashed a flood of Zap characters from his unconscious Marxist brawler Spain Rodriguez on how he made the transition from the Road Vultures biker gang to the exclusive Zap cartoonists club Yale alumnus Victor Moscoso and Christian surfer Rick Griffin on how their poster art psychedelia formed the backdrop of the 1960s San Francisco music scene Savage Id choreographer S Clay Wilson on how his dreams insist on being drawn Painter and Juxtapoz founder Robert Williams on how Zap 4 led to 150 news dealer arrests Fabulous Furry Freaky Gilbert Shelton on the importance of research Church of the Subgenius founder Paul Mavrides on getting a contact high during the notorious Zap jam sessions and much more In these career spanning interviews the Zap contributors open up about how they came to create a seminal living work of art Research Methods in Health Humanities Craig M. Klugman, Erin Gentry Lamb, 2019-09-02 This field defining volume surveys the diverse and unique research methods used by scholars in the growing transdisciplinary field of health humanities Appropriate for advanced undergraduates but nuanced enough to engage more seasoned students and scholars this volume is an essential teaching and reference tool for health humanities teachers and scholars Researching Society and Culture Clive Seale, Carol Rivas, 2025-02-07 Just starting out with social research With contributions from experts across the social sciences this book equips you with the tools for successfully investigating society and culture It shows you how to prepare for research generate and analyse data and present your findings Balancing theory with practice it covers foundational concepts in methods and methodology alongside contemporary developments This radically updated new edition Sees all chapters fully rewritten in a friendly accessible style Offers additional chapters on participatory research and online big data Includes multiple case studies of real world research from across the globe in every chapter Celebrates the dynamic reflexive nature of research as engagement with the world Communication Disorders in Educational and Medical Settings William Haynes, Michael Moran, Rebekah Pindzola, 2012 Health Sciences Professions Art or Scribbles? In the Eye of the Beholder: The Evolutionary Emergence of Visual Communication Iain Davidson, 2025-08-07 The book is about how art arose and how it became what we call art today How did art emerge from the relationships between people and the things they produce and the ideas of producers How do people manipulate those relationships in their own society How do outsiders work out the ways in which those relationships were used to make art What is art and why are all people engaged with it in one way or another From its very beginning and everywhere art has always been embedded in its cultural context the contexts of the people who made and see it and that context has often been ritual The history of art confused social and institutional changes of view because western critics or artists sought to define the boundaries of art so tightly that ritual purposeful or utilitarian works were excluded from it In their definition art only existed if the rituals of the original producers were stripped from the works or if the objects were appropriated away from the situation in which they were produced The objects stripped from their context could then only be valued for their aesthetics Art consists of relationships between people things and ideas in quite specific ways Those relationships are discussed at length in this book The book is aimed at artists art historians and archaeologists but also at the general public interested in art It is intended both for people whose interest in art comes from knowledge of the art of all continents and for those who have no knowledge The Palgrave Handbook of Mass Dictatorship Paul Corner, Jie-Hyun Lim, 2016-09-22 This book offers a fresh and original approach to the study of one of the dominant features of the twentieth century Adopting a truly global approach to the realities of modern dictatorship this handbook examines the multiple ways in which dictatorship functions both for the rulers and for the ruled and draws on the expertise of more than twenty five distinguished contributors coming from European American and Asian universities While confronting the immense complexities of repression and popular response under dictatorship the volume also poses a series of wide ranging questions about the political organization of present day mass society
