Real City Downtown Los Angeles Insideout:

Land of Smoke and Mirrors Vincent Brook, 2013-01-22 Unlike the more forthrightly mythic origins of other urban centers think Rome via Romulus and Remus or Mexico City via the god Huitzilopochtli Los Angeles emerged from a smoke and mirrors process that is simultaneously literal and figurative real and imagined material and metaphorical physical and textual Through penetrating analysis and personal engagement Vincent Brook uncovers the many portraits of this ever enticing ever ambivalent and increasingly multicultural megalopolis Divided into sections that probe Los Angeles's checkered history and reflect on Hollywood's own self reflections the book shows how the city despite considerable remaining challenges is finally blowing away some of the smoke of its not always proud past and rhetorically adjusting its rear view mirrors Part I is a review of the city's history through the early 1900s focusing on the seminal 1884 novel Ramona and its immediate effect but also exploring its ongoing impact through interviews with present day Tongva Indians attendance at the 88th annual Ramona pageant and analysis of its feature film adaptations Brook deals with Hollywood as geographical site film production center and frame of mind in Part II He charts the events leading up to Hollywood's emergence as the world's movie capital and explores subsequent developments of the film industry from its golden age through the so called New Hollywood citing such self reflexive films as Sunset Blvd Singin in the Rain and The Truman Show Part III considers LA noir a subset of film noir that emerged alongside the classical noir cycle in the 1940s and 1950s and continues today The city's status as a privileged noir site is analyzed in relation to its history and through discussions of such key LA noir novels and films as Double Indemnity Chinatown and Crash In Part IV Brook examines multicultural Los Angeles Using media texts as signposts he maps the history and contemporary situation of the city's major ethno racial and other minority groups looking at such films as Mi Familia Latinos Boyz n the Hood African Americans Charlotte Sometimes Asians Falling Down Whites and The Kids Are All Right LGBT Los Angeles Magazine, 2001-09 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian Tell Me True Patricia Hampl, Elaine Tyler May, 2008-10-14 Fourteen accomplished writers investigate the tantalizing gray area where memory and history intersect Readymades, 2003-02 This volume presents a new way of looking at aspects of American culture that are at once familiar increasingly rare Jeff Brouws has recorded the discarded icons of highway culture from abandoned drive in movie screens to the rusty pickup truck Essays by cultural critics compliment the images Come the Morning Mark Jonathan Harris, 2005 This novel for young readers told by a thirteen year old boy is the story of a working class American family plunged into homelessness Published in 1989 to wide acclaim

Come the Morning was one of the first novels for older children to treat the problem of homelessness realistically Fifteen years later with unemployment and poverty on the rise again and homeless families haunting the streets of all our major cities the book remains as sobering and timely as it was in the late 1980s Come the Morning tells the story of the Gibsons a working class family from El Paso Texas who are struggling to survive the desertion of their father When Constance Gibson receives a money order postmarked Los Angeles from her husband Clyde she and her oldest child thirteen year old Ben interpret it as an invitation to join Clyde in the city of dreams Once in Los Angeles the Gibsons encounter one ordeal after another eventually moving them out of a frightening welfare hotel and onto the menacing streets of skid row Throughout their harrowing struggle Ben clings desperately to the belief that they will find Clyde restore their family and rebuild their lives While Ben searches for his father his mother tries valiantly to find them food and shelter Stark and sparsely written this novel is a moving account of a young man forced to measure memory and love against reason and reality It is at once an illuminating look at the surreal lives of America's homeless and a tribute to the strength of faith and family The new edition of this prize winning novel is enriched with twenty striking photographs by Marissa Roth and a new afterword and commentary by the author

Common Ground Akemi Kikumura-Yano, Lane Ryo Hirabayashi, James A. Hirabayashi, 2005 In this collection of seventeen essays anthropologists art historians museum curators writers designers and historians provide case studies exploring collaboration with community oriented partners in order to document interpret and present their histories and experiences and provide a new understanding of what museums can and should be in the United States
