Roman Beanfeast:

The Roman Beanfeast Gillian Cross, 2009 Like every other school in the country Davy's class are working on the Romans. Everyone is to do a piece of work based on the visit they made to a Roman fort and the best will get a prize at the Roman Feast planned by the school. Davy's problem is that bossy Molly from next door keeps stealing his ideas. That is until Davey draws inspiration from Julius Sneezer the Roman soldier. A funny and insightful story from the popular prize winning author of The Demon Headmaster. Journal of Horticulture, Cottage Gardener, and Country Gentleman (varies slightly), 1909 Creating Writers James Carter, 2002-02-07 This unique and comprehensive text offers an original approach to teaching creative writing by exploring ideas, giving advice and explaining workshop activities and has many contributors from some of today's most popular children's authors including Jacqueline Wilson, Roger McGough, Philip Pullman, Malorie Blackman and David Almond. Creating Writers is a practical writing manual for teachers to use with upper primary and lower secondary level pupils that covers poetry, fiction and non-fiction. Creative ICT Antony Smith, Simon Willcocks, 2014-03-18 First Published in 2005 Promoting pupils' creativity in using ICT, this book also encourages learning across core and foundation subjects. The text includes flexible activities for pupils to work through on their own in small groups or at home, time-saving screen shots for pupils to refer to as they work through the activities, helpful examples of work so that pupils know what to aim for, additional support sheets that can be used by the pupil or the teacher, departure points for integrated studies and extension activities that will encourage further creativity. For primary and secondary teachers and ICT coordinators. Talking Books James Carter, 2013-01-11 Talking Books sets out to show how some of the leading children's authors of the day respond to these and other similar questions. The authors featured are Neil Ardley, Ian Beck, Helen Cresswell, Gillian Cross, Terry Deary, Berlie Doherty, Alan Durant, Brian Moses, Philip Pullman, Celia Rees, Norman Silver, Jacqueline Wilson and Benjamin Zephaniah. They discuss with great enthusiasm their childhood reading habits, how they came to be published, how they write on a daily basis, how a particular book came together, a type of writing that they are especially known for. Through in-depth interviews, they each reveal their approach to their craft. Much is known and spoken of the product that is the children's book, but it is rare that writers are given the opportunity to talk at length about the process of writing for children. Talking Books redresses the balance by presenting a wide selection of authors of fiction, non-fiction and poetry reflecting upon the joys and challenges of the craft, creativity and process of writing for children. Teaching Thinking Skills Across the Primary Curriculum Belle Wallace, 2012-10-12 This book presents a practical and universal framework for the teaching of thinking skills and problem solving across the primary curriculum using examples of topics from the National Curriculum, classroom techniques and tried and tested activities which systematically develop pupils' thinking and problem solving skills. While accommodating the need of all learners to develop effective thinking skills, the book also caters to the need to differentiate learning activities to extend the more able learners. Written by a team of teachers who recognize the day to day problems that face their colleagues in the classroom this accessible jargon free book will be welcomed by teachers SENCOs and ABCOs alike
