Sales Book and in the Purchase Book Controlling Accounts The addition of special columns in books of original entry makes have come down to us from antiquity in much smaller number than the silver and bronze medal lions Nevertheless it is quite probable that a considerable number were coined but on account Of the intrinsic value Of the metal relatively few are now extant It may be taken as a general principle that all Roman medallions are rare and as Gnechi says they form the most lite and aristocratic portion Of a collector s cabinet The following five pieces which are here presented are no exception to the rule above stated The first four belong to the period Of Constantine the Great About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
