Dunn, 2009-03-16 Beginning from Jerusalem covers the early formation of the Christian faith from 30 to 70 C.E. After outlining the quest for the historical church parallel to the quest for the historical Jesus and reviewing the sources, James Dunn follows the course of the movement stemming from Jesus beginning from Jerusalem. He opens with a close analysis of what can be said of the earliest Jerusalem community: the Hellenists, the mission of Peter, and the emergence of Paul. Then Dunn focuses solely on Paul: the chronology of his life and mission, his understanding of his call as apostle, and the character of the churches that he founded. The third part traces the final days and literary legacies of the three principal figures of first-generation Christianity: Paul, Peter, and James, the brother of Jesus. Each section includes detailed interaction with the vast wealth of secondary literature on the many subjects covered.

Among Our Books Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, 1906 Daily Life of Women Colleen Boyett, H. Micheal Tarver, Mildred Diane Gleason, 2020-12-07 Indispensable for the student or researcher studying women's history, this book draws upon a wide array of cultural settings and time periods in which women displayed agency by carrying out their daily economic, familial, artistic, and religious obligations. Since record-keeping began, history has been written by a relatively few elite men. Insights into women's history are left to be gleaned by scholars who undertake careful readings of ancient literature, examine archaeological artifacts, and study popular culture such as folktales, musical traditions, and art. For some historical periods and geographic regions, this is the only way to develop some sense of what daily life might have been like for women in a particular time and place. This reference explores the daily life of women across civilizations. The work is organized in sections on different civilizations from around the world, arranged chronologically. Within each society, the encyclopedia highlights the roles of women within five broad thematic categories the arts economics and work family and community life recreation and social customs and religious life Included are numerous sidebars containing additional information document excerpts images and suggestions for further reading Catholic World ,1906 Hibbert Journal ,1905 Multisensory Living in Ancient Rome Hannah Platts,2019-11-28 Classicists have long wondered what everyday life was like in ancient Greece and Rome How for example did the slaves visitors inhabitants or owners experience the same home differently And how did owners manipulate the spaces of their homes to demonstrate control or social hierarchy To answer these questions Hannah Platts draws on a diverse range of evidence and an innovative amalgamation of methodological approaches to explore multisensory experience auditory olfactory tactile gustatory and visual in domestic environments in Rome Pompeii and Herculaneum for the first time from the first century BCE to the second century CE Moving between social registers and locations from non elite urban dwellings to lavish country villas each chapter takes the reader through a different type of room and offers insights into the reasons emotions and cultural factors behind perception recording and control of bodily senses in the home as well as their sociological implications Multisensory Living in Ancient Rome will appeal to all students and researchers interested in Roman daily life and domestic architecture Classified Catalogue of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh Pittsburgh, Pa.
