Romance Of Textiles:

The Romance of Textiles Ethel Lewis, 1953 The Romance of Textiles Paul H. Nystrom, 1916 The Romance of Textiles H. Barlow, 1935 A Romance of East and West Mona Hajj, 2019-04-16 A luxury volume on a luxury designer A Romance of East and West presents the residential work of Baltimore based interior decorator Mona Hajj Characterized by delight and discovery grandeur and rustic charm Hajj s work spans a wide range of historic periods and styles Her interiors combine a far reaching global vision with an American emphasis on elegance comfort and simplicity Born in West Africa and educated in Europe Lebanon and the United States Mona Hajj brings a truly eclectic aesthetic to her interiors Since founding Mona Hajj Interiors in 1990 she has produced a body of work that is grounded in classicism yet influenced by modern day styles and ways of living Her international background inspires the work in myriad ways from the inclusion of a Syrian chest of drawers to a reference to Moroccan ceramic tiles A Romance of East and West features antique European and Middle Eastern textiles from Hajj s personal collection that inspire the use of color and pattern in her work Medieval Clothing and Textiles Robin Netherton, Gale R. Owen-Crocker, 2006 The study of medieval clothing and textiles reveals much about the history of our material culture as well as social economic and cultural history as a whole This book makes use of archaeological finds and text references in order to examine this history providing an overview of historic fashions

Romance of Textiles Gertrude Prokosch Kurath, Rhode Island School of Design, 1933 Reviews history from the neolithic age to the twentieth century A History Of Textiles Kax Wilson, 2021-11-28 Originally published in 1979 this volume acts as a reference for the history textiles It asks questions on the effect of technology on textiles how did particular historical periods and locations expand or limit the possibilities for the manufacture of fabrics and how the textile history related to politics and economics sociology and psychology art and engineering anthropology and archaeology chemistry and physics Addressing these questions the author surveys the development of the technical components of fabrics and discusses the textiles of selected places and times She uses prose drawings and more than 130 photographs to show how each era of textile production reflects its age This book is designed to serve as a college text and as a reference work for museum researchers With sections including illustrations and diagrams key terminology spinning wool spinning and raw materials single ply and cord and fabric construction The Romance of Textiles Julian K. Morrison, 194? Female Devotion and Textile Imagery in Medieval English Literature Anna McKay, 2024 Uncovers the female voices lived experiences and spiritual insights encoded by the imagery of textiles in the Middle Ages For millennia women have spoken and read through cloth The literature and art of the Middle Ages are replete with images of women working cloth wielding spindles distaffs and needles or sitting at their looms Yet they have been little explored Drawing upon the burgeoning field of medieval textile studies as well as contemporary theories of gender materiality and eco criticism this study illustrates how textiles provide a hermeneutical alternative to the patriarchally dominated written word It puts forward the argument that women s devotion during this period was a fabricated phenomenon a mode of spirituality and religious exegesis expressed devised and practised through cloth Centred on four icons of female devotion Eve Mary St Veronica and of course Christ the book explores a broad range of narratives from across the rich tapestry of medieval English literature from the fields of Piers Plowman to the late medieval Morte D arthur the devotions of Margery Kempe to the visionary experiences of Julian of Norwich Gervase of Tilbury s fabulous Otia Imperialia to the anchoritic guidance literature of the Middle Ages and the innumerable and oft forgotten lives of Christ prayers legends and miracle tales in between The Romance of Design Garnet Warren,Horace Bushnell Cheney,1926 Medieval Clothing and Textiles 18 Cordelia Warr,2024-05-14 The best new research on medieval clothing and textiles drawing from a range of disciplines The essays collected here continue the Journal s wide ranging and eclectic tradition Topics include literary evidence for linen armour serial production in late medieval silks the inventory of Isabella Bruce s bridal goods the depiction of women textile workers in the frescoes of the Salone of the Palazzo della Ragione in Padua Italy ideal female beauty in the Middle Ages and the means used to attain and assess it and social status as evidenced by clothing and textiles in the Scottish royal treasurer s accounts of the mid sixteenth century Bulletin of the Rhode Island School of Design Rhode Island School of Design,1925 The Romance of the Violet and Other Wager Tales from Medieval France ,2024-08-14 A high stakes wager placed on a woman s virtue men who spy on bathing women tell tale birthmarks cross dressing dragons tournaments and aristocrats bursting into song these features and more appear in the three stories translated here all versions of the folktale known as the wager tale Such stories were especially popular in thirteenth century France when noblemen fulfilled their feudal duties far from home Did their women remain faithful A pressing question for only female chastity guaranteed the legitimacy of heirs This collection offers the first translations into English of The Romance of the Violet and The Count of Poitiers along with a new version of The Tale of King Flore and the Fair Joan The first paints a vivid portrait of thirteenth century courtly life The second set in the eighth century court of King Pepin includes both a wager tale and a bride quest the latter involving a shocking scene of female group nudity Flore and Joan takes a different tack presenting a clear eyed heroine who overcomes daunting odds by posing as a man These medieval tales portray strong women who gainsay social control of their bodies thereby winning the respect of men a scenario that resonates even today Texts and Territories Hülya Taflı Düzgün,2018-07-27 The writing of a literary text is as a retrospective explanation of what is happening in the present including social cultural religious and political events and is a deliberate re creation in actual practice The impact of immediate contemporary concerns places a literary text at least partly outside the author s control The author responds to a given context of historical and cultural incident that limits his freedom to invent adapt or explain Of these contemporary concerns the literary text is concerned first with how cultural practices and cultural changes helped to create it and second with what happens when specific historical events appear to model themselves on narrative structures and how those events can be given a conscious boost by narrative authors or patrons to make the parallels even closer History turns into literary narrative or literary narrative turns into history therefore literature and history live in each other's pockets The medieval texts that straddle the borderland between literature and history what has been called a medieval fashion for pseudo history have been repeatedly commented on over the years However the broader implications of this phenomenon for the modern understanding of medieval concepts of the past and historiography have been under explored This volume engages with the history and the literary narrative in Medieval England through a variety of approaches to an interdisciplinary array of texts ranging from Latin Old French Anglo Norman to Middle English between the eleventh and fifteenth centuries Adult Catalog: Subjects Los Angeles County Public Library,1970

Pens and Needles Susan Frye,2011-11-29 The Renaissance woman whether privileged or of the artisan or the middle class was trained in the expressive arts of needlework and painting which were often given precedence over writing Pens and Needles is the first book to examine all these forms as interrelated products of self fashioning and communication Because early modern people saw verbal and visual texts as closely related Susan Frye discusses the connections between the many forms of women's textualities including notes in samplers alphabets both stitched and penned initials ciphers and extensive texts like needlework pictures self portraits poetry and pamphlets as well as commissioned artwork architecture and interior design She examines works on paper and cloth by such famous figures as Elizabeth I Mary Queen of Scots and Bess of Hardwick as well as the output of journeywomen needleworkers and miniaturists Levina Teerlinc and Esther Inglis and their lesser known sisters in the English colonies of the New World Frye shows how traditional women's work was a way for women to communicate with one another and to shape their own identities within familial intellectual religious and historical traditions Pens and Needles offers insights into women's lives and into such literary texts as Shakespeare's Othello and Cymbeline and Mary Sidney Wroth's Urania Medieval Clothing and Textiles 19 Melanie Schuessler Bond,Cordelia Warr,2025-06-03

Sheffer,2013-01-02 In the United States miscegenation is not merely a subject of literature and popular culture It is in many ways the foundation of contemporary imaginary community The Romance of Race examines the role of minority women writers and reformers in the creation of our modern American multiculturalism

The national identity of the United States was transformed between 1880 and 1930 due to mass immigration imperial expansion the rise of Jim Crow and the beginning of the suffrage movement A generation of women writers and reformers particularly women of color contributed to these debates by imagining new national narratives that put minorities at the center of American identity Jane Addams Pauline Hopkins Onoto Watanna Winnifred Eaton Mar a Cristina Mena and Mourning Dove Christine Quintasket embraced the images of the United States and increasingly the world as an interracial nuclear family They also reframed public debates through narratives depicting interracial encounters as longstanding unacknowledged liaisons between white men and racialized women that produced an incestuous mixed race nation By mobilizing the sexual taboos of incest and miscegenation these women writers created political allegories of kinship and community Through their criticisms of the nation s history of exploitation and colonization they also imagined a more inclusive future As Jolie A Sheffer identifies the contemporary template for American multiculturalism in the works of turn of the century minority writers she uncovers a much more radical history than has previously been considered
