1970s reflects on that unique community's birth and life with 13 photographs and illustrations. The book also bears witness to a life-changing encounter and dialogue between second-wave feminists from the woman's land collective of Arcadia and third-wave feminists. You'll also learn about the birth joys and tribulations of an online community that becomes physical each year at the Michigan Womyn's Music Festival: the accidental birth of a lesbian community in isolated and fundamentalist-dominated West Texas; the international online lesbian parenting community called MOMS affectionately known as Dykes and Tykes; how it began; what belonging to this community provides for its members; and a look toward the future: the debate on inclusiveness versus exclusiveness of bisexual women, transgender people, and the male children of lesbians in lesbian communities; the current decline of availability and dilution of the purity of lesbian-only space; and the rise of segregation by social class and financial status and oppression within the lesbian community; the current plight of lesbian bookstores, which since the 1970s have served not only as gateways to a multitude of lesbian communities but as the centers of lesbian communities themselves; the online experience of lesbians searching for community in Japan; the issues facing Jewish lesbians; and the formation of Nice Jewish Girls, a Montreal group for anyone who identifies as a lesbian, bisexual, or queer woman and their non-Jewish partners and friends; the power of myth and mythmaking to help women regain lost strength and reclaim lost history. From the efforts of back-to-the-land groups creating wimmin's space to life in modern residential retirement settings, this book explores the places created by and for lesbians. Photos and illustrations bring these women and their communities to life. Lesbian Communities, Festivals, RVs, and the Internet w

Lesbians in East Asia Diana Khor, Saori

Kamano, 2013-01-11 Discover the courageous, vibrant similarities and differences of lesbians in East Asia. How are same-sex relationships similar or different in the cultures of East Asia? Lesbians in East Asia: Diversity, Identities, and Resistance is a unique examination of research and vital issues involving lesbians and lesbianism in East Asia using perspectives by academics and activists who typically are rarely published in English. Contributing experts from Hong Kong, mainland China, Japan, and Korea discuss a variety of topics including solidarity and conflicts between lesbians and feminists; identities and identity politics; lesbian lives and families; and representation in mainstream culture. Asia, because of its inherent language and cultural differences from Western society, is a location of a vast, unrealized fount of knowledge about same-sex relationships and the societies in which they interact. Lesbians in East Asia: Diversity, Identities, and Resistance begins to fill this gap in knowledge, going beyond East-West divisions by gathering in one volume studies in Asian lesbian/queer studies of both the West and Asia. The text's emphasis is on points of connection and cooperation across the cultures within Asia and between this region and other areas of the world. Diverse viewpoints and research on lesbians in China, Hong Kong, South Korea, and Japan are presented, showing issues and concerns that may be different and often are very similar to regions beyond those borders. Topics in Lesbians in East Asia: Diversity, Identities, and Resistance include lesbian rights and feminism in Korea; emotional damage suffered in family work and school contexts; including self-denial; analysis of Internet exchanges in China; highlighting those feeling that they should maintain a low profile and others showing disdain toward the lesbian lifestyle gender inequality and discrimination and their effects on self sufficiency the effects of expectations of marriage or remaining single on economics legal standpoints and in school ignorance and intolerance in Korean and Japanese societies identity politics conflicts of ideas between lesbians and feminists and much more Lesbians in East Asia Diversity Identities and Resistance is important illuminating reading for academics and students in women s studies gender studies queer sexuality studies East Asian studies and activists in feminist movements
