Romanian Studies At The Turn Of The Century:

Romanian Studies at the Turn of the Century Kurt W. Treptow, 2022-06      Romanian Studies at the Turn of the Century Kurt W. Treptow, 2000 As the twentieth century has come to a close it is an important moment to reflect on the current status of Romanian studies and future directions that research in the various fields of Romanian studies should take at the beginning of the new millennium This volume is a collection of studies presented by Romanian British and American scholars at the Fifth International Conference of the Center for Romanian Studies held in Iasi Romania from 28 June to 1 July 1999 Articles included Alan Ogden English Travellers to Romania in the Early Twentieth Century Alice Forbess Tradition versus Transformation Theoretical Understandings of Post Socialist Change in Romania and Eastern Europe Liviu Groza Continuitate in cultura romaneasca postbelica Diana Fotescu Evolutia conceptelor si principiilor constitutionale in centrul si sud estul Europei 1919 1938 Cornelia Bodea Memoriei profesorului George G Ursul Marin Marian Balasa Romanian Folkloristics Abroad Sorina Bolovan Ioan Bolovan Cercetarile romanesti de demografie istorica la sfarsit de mileniu Ileana Orlich The Role of Romanian and Central East European Studies in American Universities at the Dawn of the New Millenium Paul Quinlan Moldova under Lucinschi The First Two Years Dumitru Sandru Istoriografia problemei agrare n Rom nia perioada comunista Sabina Crisen National Identity and Cultural Self Definition Modern and Post Modern Romanian Artistic Expression and many others      Modernism in Settings Ramona Simuț, 2024-11-26 This book is analytical and often critical about the subject it investigates including literary and cultural aesthetics social and political literatures national identity speeches and the psychoanalytic theory of language Modernism in Settings attempts to reevaluate some important debates in those fields either from the 19th 20th centuries or otherwise Debates at that at the time often failed to take into consideration their full philosophical social theological or political implications The book is primarily aimed at teachers and researchers interested in issues related to modernism within humanities and cultural studies It discusses works by writers including James Joyce and Edgar Allan Poe and philosophers and critics including Julia Kristeva and Wolf Lepenies and covers issues including feminism technology and psychoanalysis      Handbook of Research on Translating Myth and Reality in Women Imagery Across Disciplines Ciolăneanu, Roxana, Marinescu, Roxana-Elisabeta, 2020-11-13 Women have been represented in art literature music and more for decades with the image of the woman changing through time and across cultures However rarely has a multidisciplinary approach been taken to examine this imagery and challenge and possibly reinterpret old women related myths and other taken for granted aspects e g grammatically inclusive gender Moreover this approach can better place the ideologies as myth creators and propagators identify and deconstruct stereotypes and prejudices and compare them across cultures with the view to spot universal vs culturally specific approaches as far as women s studies and interpretations are concerned It is important to gather these perspectives to translate and unveil new interpretations to old ideas about women and the feminine that are universally accepted as absolute impossible to challenge and invalidated truths The Handbook of Research on Translating Myth and Reality in Women Imagery Across Disciplines is a comprehensive reference book that provides an interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary perspective on the perception and reception of women across time and space It tackles various perspectives gender studies linguistic studies literature and cultural studies discourse analysis philosophy anthropology sociology etc Its main objective is to present new approaches and propose new answers to old questions related to gender inequalities stereotypes and prejudices about women and their place in the world Covering significant themes that include the ethics of embodiment myth of motherhood at the crossroad of ideologies translation of women s experiences and ideas across cultures and discourses on women s rehabilitation and dignification across centuries this book is critical for linguists professionals researchers academicians and students working in the fields of women s studies gender studies cultural studies and literature as well as other related categories such as political studies education studies philosophy and the social sciences Romania ,1973 Hidden Multilingualism in 19th-Century European Literature Jana-Katharina Mende,2023-08-21 The disparagement of multilingualism is a European development of the 18th and 19th centuries in which one national language and national literature were advocated established and institutionalised Multilingual writers made use of the creative potential of several languages even then However they often adapted to an increasingly monolingual book market which made their individual multilingualism invisible This is evident in literary historiography which established a monolingual national canon Researching hidden multilingualism is often difficult since multilingual texts by multilingual writers were often not published or were published in a monolingual version sources are scarce Literary histories of the time often do not mention multilingualism Furthermore many multilingual writers were members of minority groups women Jewish Non European and thus often neglected The volume offers methods and theories to systematically approach this hidden material as well as case studies on authors and national literatures in a multilingual context It thus contributes to the restructuring of a multilingual transnational literary history that is applicable to different philologies Habsburg Galicia and the Romanian Kingdom Raluca Goleşteanu-Jacobs,2023-12-01 This comparative attempt intended for postgraduates and scholars of Eastern Central Europe investigates the political economic and cultural landscape of Habsburg Galicia and the Romanian Kingdom in the second half of the 19th century Often in historiography and in the public sphere alike the two cases under study have been separately regarded as contexts that provided atypical answers to modernity and parts of a region that has been regarded as atypical in itself Recently efforts have been made to integrate each of the cases in a post imperial paradigm identifying the complex interactions between their socio political modernisation and historical memory This book continues this trend by investigating for the first time the two cases together as parts of a space of alterity as labs of shifting ideologies and labels The public figures and the institutions depicted in the book are physically located in Central and in Eastern Europe but by sometimes competing experiences they are illustrative for several identities and historical realms local regional and continental Secondly the current work addresses dilemmas related to Nationalism and nation building for the sake of separating those discourses which reflected on civic nationalism from those which directed the public mind to the values of ethnic nationalism      Structural Studies, Repairs and Maintenance of Heritage Architecture XVI P. De Wilde,2019-12-10 Originating from the 16th edition of the Conference on Studies Repairs and Maintenance of Heritage Architecture this volume brings together latest contributions from scientists architects engineers and restoration experts dealing with different aspects of heritage buildings including the preservation of architectural heritage      Directory of Published Proceedings ,2002      Boyash Studies: Researching “Our People” Annemarie Sorescu-Marinković,Thede Kahl,Biljana Sikimić,2021-01-22 The Boyash also known as Rudari Lingurari or inclusively as oamenii no tri our people are an ethnic group living today in scattered communities in the Balkans Central and Eastern Europe but also in the Americas What brings the disperse communities of Boyash together is their Romanian mother tongue memory of traditional occupation common historical origin and the fact that the majority population considers them Gypsies Roma A marginal topic until now at the crossroads between Romani and Romanian studies the Boyash studies are today an interdisciplinary field dealing with the experiences of the Boyash over time in Romania and all the places where they have settled The editors of this volume intend to mark two centuries of scholarly interest in the Boyash by bringing together researchers from different fields summing up existing literature and bringing new research to the forefront      World War I and the Birth of a New World Order Ioan Bolovan,Oana Mihaela Tămaş,2020-02-26 This volume will serve to enrich the reader s understanding of the impact of World War I on Eastern Europe by bringing together authors from all over Europe specialising in the history of this area It presents a retrospective approach and a re evaluation of this event the lasting effects of which still make themselves felt in some regions today Case studies memoirs journals and the printed press of the time are all examined in order to paint a vivid picture of the Great War in Eastern Europe and particularly in Romania The chapters offer fresh perspectives on topics connected to the war including the contribution of women and the emancipation opportunities for them the social changes that occurred and the propaganda in Romanian territory They also review the League of Nations and the protection of international minorities particularly in those regions where new boundaries were created and where the application of national self determination still left substantial communities outside the frontiers of the respective states      Romanian Cultural Identity and Education for Civil Society Magdalena Dumitrana,2004      Leisure and Elite Formation Peter Heyrman,Jan de Maeyer,Martin Kohlrausch,2020-05-05 This volume investigates places where old and new elites came together where these groups met and interacted but also where the rules and conventions for new elites were forged The book focusses arenas of encounter and self representation belonging to the world of leisure and embraces also the organizations and associations which established and ran these spaces and events      Studies on the Romanian Political Elite from Transylvania and Hungary (1861-1918) Popovici Vlad,2012-01-01 The present work contains a number of prosopographic and statistical studies regarding the elite of the Romanian national movement in Transylvania between 1861 and 1918 chronologically ordered in the form of chapters and accompanied by a high number of tables and graphs The interested reader should find the entire composition of the Romanian national movement's leadership minimal biographical data about the members of the elite year of birth denomination place of residence profession and so on as well as the analysis of some statistical indicators meant to illustrate its evolution This book was not intended to be a history of the Romanian political elite in Transylvania and Hungary nor a substitute for the lack of such a history Its content is rather technical being conceived firstly for historians mainly for those outside Romania whose access to the multitude of local biographical sources is limited It can be viewed as a commented catalogue of part of the elite

Women Telling Nations Amelia

Sanz, Francesca Scott, Suzan van Dijk, 2014-08-15 Women Telling Nations highlights how from the 16th to the 19th centuries European women as readers and writers contributed to the construction of national identities The book which presents twenty countries is divided into four parts First we examine how women belonged to nations they represented territories and political or religious communities in their own style Second we deal with the ways in which women wrote the nation the network of relationships in which they were involved that were not necessarily national or territorial The legitimation that women writers succeeded in finding is emphasised in the third section while in the fourth we analyse how and why women were open to the outside world beyond the country's borders Women Telling Nations underlines the quantitative importance of the circulation of these women's writings and demonstrates the extent as well as the impact of the international cross fertilisation of nations especially by and for women focusing on routes rather than roots

Inside the Mechanisms of Romanian Modernization Florin Grancea, 2006-09-05 This book analyzes in the relation with the Romanian modernity the transformations of the Romanian public sphere political system and journalism from the beginning of the 19th Century up to 2005 The argumentation starts from the idea that the Romanian Enlightenment never had the chance to reach its purpose the creation of the individual as a human category As a consequence of this historical fact the Romanian modernity was not explored in all its dimensions and was not congruent with its western model of development Only after late 90's signs for a surpassing historical backwardness were seen in Romania and only after the integration into EU become sure From this perspective this book looks onto the change in the modernization engine of Romania in late 90's This change is happening as a transgression from a three steps modernization model in which the role of the elite is central to a two steps modernization model in which the role of the elite is minimal Because the three steps modernization model fits the idea of an acclamatory public sphere while the two steps modernization engine fits the concept of civil public sphere this book proves that the Romanian democracy is evolving from its totalitarian background to become a participative democracy The only question unanswered yet is if the elite and the mass media are willing to let Romania and its citizens to breakup the ties with the totalitarian past

in the multi ethnic Kingdom of Hungary new language based national identities came to dominate over those that had previously been constructed on legal territorial or historical basis While the Hungarian language struggled to emancipate itself the roles and functions of Latin the official language until 1844 were changing dramatically Latin held a different significance for varying segments of society from being the essential part of an individual identity to representing an obstacle to national survival from guaranteeing harmony between the different linguistic communities to hindering change social and political justice This pioneering volume aims to highlight the ways language debates about Latin and Hungarian contributed to the creation of new identities and ideologies in Central Europe Contributors include G bor Alm si Per Pippin Aspaas Piroska Balogh Henrik H nich L szl Kontler Istv n Marg csy Alexander Maxwell Ambrus Miskolczy Levente Nagy Nenad Ristovi Andrea Seidler Teodora Shek Brnardi Zvezdana Sikiri Assouline and Lav ubari Across the Danube: Southeastern Europeans and Their Travelling Identities (17th-19th C.), 2016-11-21 The Danube has been a border and a bridge for migrants and goods since antiquity Between the 17th and the 19th centuries commercial networks were formed between the Ottoman Empire and Central and Eastern Europe creating diaspora communities This gradually led to economic and cultural transfers connecting the Mediterranean the Black Sea and the Continental world of commerce The contributors to the present volume offer different perspectives on commerce and entrepreneurship based on the interregional treaties of global significance on cultural and ecclesiastical relations population policy and demographical aspects Questions of identity family and memory are in the centre of several chapters as they interact with the topographic and socio anthropological territoriality of all the regions involved Contributors are Constantin Ardeleanu Iannis Carras Lidia Cotovanu Lyubomir Georgiev Olga Katsiardi Hering Dimitrios Kontogeorgis Nenad Makuljevi Ikaros Mantouvalos Anna Ransmayr Vaso Seirinidou Maria A Stassinopoulou Europe as Viewed from the Margins Ion Stanciu, Silviu Miloiu, Iulian Oncescu, 2007 Attitude and Stance in Discourse Liliana Ionescu-Ruxăndoiu, Mihaela-Viorica Constantinescu, Gabriela Stoica, Șerban Hartular, 2022-01-27 Stancetaking is inherent in verbal communication as it is connected with the expression of subjectivity and the construction of intersubjectivity in discourse This book presents theoretical findings in this field and their practical implications exploring the variations in time and space of meaning negotiation processes in a large variety of communicative forms including political and judicial discourse journalism fiction private letters informal conversations and school debates Some articles refer to events with a strong impact on social and political life such as the COVID 19 pandemic or Ceau escu s trial The volume s approach is mainly pragma rhetoric and interactional but also interdisciplinary promoting dialogue between stance researchers in different fields There is a specific focus on possible applications of some key findings of stance research in improving inter ethnic communication and the teaching of foreign languages as well as students communicative abilities
