Romanian Agriculture And Transition Toward The Eu:

Romanian Agriculture and Transition Toward the EU Kenneth J. Thomson, 2003-01-01 Of the ten Central and Eastern European countries that have applied for membership in the European Union Romania ranks among the largest and most impoverished Romania represents the final challenge in the European Union's enlargement to the east largely due to its major but underdeveloped agriculture and food sectors The agriculture industry which is a major component of the national economy extends its pervasive influence to both Romanian social life and environment Consequently the transition towards a market oriented economic system will pose new obstacles for the country's farmers processors traders and policymakers While identifying the impediments that surround Romanian agriculture and its inevitable progression towards transition is a simple task the challenges lie in recommending solutions Through careful analysis of numerous recent studies on reform policies in the Romanian agri food sector during its economic transition this comprehensive examination offers perspicacious suggestions and insights on the following topics in particular international trade credit for agricultural development price policies and rural development The conclusions reached are not only of domestic importance and application they are also of immediate relevance for many post socialist countries for which the agri food sector is a principal vehicle for rural development

OECD Review of Agricultural Policies: Romania 2000 OECD, 2000-09-29 This study of Romania's agricultural policies analyses developments from the dramatic events of December 1989 to the present day preparations for accession to the European Union

The Common Agricultural Policy and Romanian Agriculture Jean Vasile Andrei, Mihaela Cristina Dragoi, 2019-08-27 The current evolution of the European economy suggests that in the near future research in agri food economy and agri food production and agricultural production systems and structures must be redesigned adapted and developed to respond to the lack of sustainability of agri food production systems and the current global food crisis This book analyses the agricultural paradigm transformations that occur as countries converge on the European agricultural model and what their impact is for sectoral development while emphasizing their contribution to the redefinition of rural agricultural communities and economy This book helps develop a theoretical framework by analysing the specialized empirical literature and techniques used in the field of agricultural economy research with a focus on the transformation of Romanian agriculture in order to become integrated and respond to the globalization of markets

The Common Agricultural Policy after the Fischler Reform Alessandro Sorrentino, Roberto Henke, 2016-03-23 Providing an updated state of the art report on the effects of the 2003 Common Agricultural Policy CAP reform this volume has a particular emphasis on the governance of institutional changes and national regional implementation Written from an agricultural economist's point of view and enriched by the contribution of political scientists and policy makers this book offers an updated report of the European debate on agricultural and rural policies an in depth analysis of the decoupling process of the agricultural financial support in Europe an analysis of the CAP implementation in the old and new Europe

O'Brien, V. V. Pat[s]iorkovskii, 2006-01-01

Measuring Social and Economic Change in Rural Russia is based upon nine household surveys in seven rural regions of Russia from 1991 to 2003 including a four wave panel study over an eight year period The findings that O'Brien and Patsiorkovsky share in this important work are the only long term indicators of how ordinary people have learned to adapt to an economic system that was thrust upon them when the Soviet Union collapsed Three main themes are explored the relationship between formal and informal institutional change regional responses to reforms and the impact of household labor social networks and community involvement and physical capital on inequality in material social and psychological conditions This comprehensive study's conceptual and interdisciplinary approach will appeal to anyone interested in the transition of countries from socialist to market economies      Rural Transition in Azerbaijan Zvi

Lerman, David Sedik, 2010-02-15 In 1995-96 the President of Azerbaijan Heydar Aliyev launched a program of agrarian reforms that caused a sweeping and irreversible shift from Soviet style collective agriculture to individual farming in his country These reforms led to an impressive recovery and substantial productivity improvements in agriculture The agrarian transition in Azerbaijan contrasts with that in Russia Ukraine and Kazakhstan where land privatization has been accompanied by policies encouraging the persistence of large corporate farms and where agricultural recovery has been much less impressive For this reason Azerbaijan is today viewed as one of the few examples of successful land reform in the former Soviet Union The impact of the Aliyev agrarian reforms went far beyond the recovery of agricultural production The new policies had a significant impact on rural poverty and they were instrumental in increasing the incomes of Azerbaijan's large rural population which relies on agriculture for a substantial part of the family budget To understand the successes and limitations of land reform Rural Transition in Azerbaijan evaluates the record of rural reforms focusing on policy change farm level performance and the impact of reforms on rural incomes and rural family well being issues that today are at the core of the agenda in many international organizations      Russia's Food Policies and Globalization Stephen K. The Role of Agriculture in Central and Eastern European Rural Development Martin Petrick,Peter Weingarten,2004

Corporate Social in Emerging Economies Cosmina Lelia Voinea,Cosmin Fratostiteanu,2018-07-11 Over the last few decades emerging markets have increased their share in world GDP and have come to play a prominent and growing role in global business Their period of impressive growth was triggered by major global advances such as economic liberalization and governance reforms and deregulation As governments and policy makers have permitted global competition from the more advanced developed world the prospect of millions of consumers in developing countries not only encourages locals to start businesses but also appeals to multinational enterprises overseas The growing presence of emerging markets on the world stage has not been left unnoticed and many investors have contributed significant amounts of capital with the hope of receiving major financial gains In this context emerging markets are particularly facing sustainability challenges due to their fast growing pace and fuzzy or inexistent sustainability regulations Corporate Social Responsibility in Emerging Economies represents a realistic critical overview of the state of affairs of CSR in the context of an emerging economy It is an accessible and comprehensive diagnostic point of reference for the academic world as well as for policy makers The topic of CSR is highly relevant for the business world and a challenging subject for the theory and literature This is a unique book that offers new empirical insights for policy makers and scholars of the fields of CSR Business Ethics Organizational Studies and related disciplines The Statesman's Yearbook 2012 B. Turner, 2017-01-12 Now in its 148th edition The Statesman's Yearbook continues to be the reference work of choice for accurate and reliable information on every country in the world Covering political economic social and cultural aspects the Yearbook is also available online for subscribing institutions www.statesmansyearbook.com Agrarian Policies in Communist Europe K.-E. Wädekin, 2024-09-02 Agricultural Markets in a Transitioning Economy Catherine Chan-Halbrendt, Jean Fantle-Lepczyk, 2013 This book presents major challenges and opportunities facing agriculture sectors in the wake of the transition from a planned to market economy Using Albania as a case study it examines the shift from communism to free markets and the lasting effects of such change on agricultural production and education Using primary research sources to give readers an accurate portrayal of the path that lies ahead for many developing countries the book also looks at the future of agriculture in transitioning economies Global Villages Ger Duijzings, 2014-12-01 This book explores the multiple effects of globalization on urban and rural communities providing anthropological case studies from postsocialist Bulgaria As globalization has been studied largely in urban contexts the aim of this volume is to shift attention to the under examined countryside and analyse how transnational links are transforming relations between cities towns and villages The volume also challenges undifferentiated notions of the countryside calling for an awareness of rural economic and social disparities which are often only associated with urban environments The work focuses on how the urban and rural have been reconfigured following the end of socialism and the advent of globalization in socioeconomic as well as political ideological and cultural terms Inside the Mechanisms of Romanian Modernization Florin Grancea, 2006-09-05 This book analyzes in the relation with the Romanian modernity the transformations of the Romanian public sphere political system and journalism from the beginning of the 19th Century up to 2005 The argumentation starts from the idea that the Romanian Enlightenment never had the chance to reach its purpose the creation of the individual as a human category As a consequence of this historical fact the Romanian modernity was not explored in all its dimensions and was not congruent with its western model of development Only after late 90 s signs for a surpassing historical backwardness were seen in Romania and only after the integration into EU become sure From this perspective this book looks onto the change in the modernization engine of Romania in late 90 s This change is happening as a transgression from a three steps modernization model in which the role of the elite is central to a two steps modernization model in which the role of the elite is minimal Because the three steps modernization model fits the idea of an acclamatory public sphere while the two steps modernization engine fits the concept of civil public sphere this book proves that the Romanian democracy is evolving from its totalitarian background to become a participative democracy The only question unanswered yet is if the elite and the mass media are willing to let Romania and its citizens to breakup the ties with the totalitarian past
