Romans Michael F. Bird, 2016-02-09 A new commentary for today's world The Story of God Bible Commentary explains and illuminates each passage of Scripture in light of the Bible's grand story The first commentary series to do so SGBC offers a clear and compelling exposition of biblical texts guiding everyday readers in how to creatively and faithfully live out the Bible in their own contexts Its story centric approach is ideal for pastors students Sunday school teachers and laypeople alike Each volume employs three main easy to use sections designed to help readers live out God's story LISTEN to the Story Includes complete NIV text with references to other texts at work in each passage encouraging the reader to hear it within the Bible's grand story EXPLAIN the Story Explores and illuminates each text as embedded in its canonical and historical setting LIVE the Story Reflects on how each text can be lived today and includes contemporary stories and illustrations to aid preachers teachers and students Romans Romans is a letter that has had monumental impact in the history of Christian thought Delving into Romans helps us see more clearly the biblical story of how God reveals his salvation to both Israel and the nations and compels us to read the Old Testament with a hermeneutical lens which identifies Jesus as the centerpiece of Israel's redemptive history Edited by Scot McKnight and Tremper Longman III and written by a number of top notch theologians The Story of God Bible Commentary series will bring relevant balanced and clear minded theological insight to any biblical education or ministry The Origin and Early History of Insurance Charles Farley Trenerry, 1926 The Warning-Assurance Relationship in 1 Corinthians Andrew J. Wilson, 2017-10-27 Paul's first letter to the Corinthians contains both emphatic warnings and strong statements of assurance and the relationship between them has often puzzled interpreters At times it sounds as if Paul is warning the Corinthians lest they forfeit their eschatological salvation at others it sounds like he is assuring them that they will not Attempts to harmonise the two stances have often ended up nullifying the warnings or the assurances or both In this fresh analysis of all the relevant texts Andrew J Wilson demonstrates that Paul's warnings and assurances stand in tension with each other and suggests that this tension is both coherent and in actual fact deliberate on Paul's part Discussions of perseverance and apostasy in Paul grace and works and the relationship between divine and human agency will all now need to reckon with this important contribution Biblical Counsel, 1993 A Foundation for Life And the Next Timothy Santos, 2018-02-08 The book is a topical commentary and Bible reference based on the Scriptures from the Old and New Testaments After the introduction the first section explains the Messiah's purpose and focuses on the foundations for salvation through the Messiah The second section focuses on emotional topics and how they affect your relationship with the Messiah The root of many emotional issues is caused by bitterness so the causes of bitterness and forgiveness are explained in simple terms easily understood by the reader and how they affect salvation Next the reader explores love compassion mercy pride and humility and how they affect their relationship with God Digging deeper into the emotional issues the reader learns God's definition for lust and purity of heart The next section deals with the intangible issues in the reader's life. This includes faith, sanctification, repentance, and the importance of total surrender to God. The Holy Spirit is explained in detail with an emphasis on His purpose for you. Section four covers some of the symbolism in the Bible and tries to help the reader see things from the cultural view of Jesus' time. The desire is to help the reader understand how symbolism points to salvation and the importance of events symbolically. Section five covers almost all the parables of Jesus found in the Gospels. The parables are grouped into broad categories including The Kingdom of God, Service and Obedience, Prayer, Humility, God's Love, Jesus' Return, and God's Values. The parables are explained in detail using the cultural setting of Jesus' time. Section six is a brief overview of biblical history and Israel's history. The next section begins with a discussion about the rapture at Christ's second coming. The various points of view are discussed. Then the anti-Christ and False Prophet are explained. Revelation is covered extensively but not by analyzing the symbolism. The first article is "Don't fear the book of Revelation" followed by "Revelation: The real message." These articles explain the purpose and message for Revelation and try to remove the fear factor that most people feel. The final section is designed to challenge your thinking and bring you closer to God.

Making Christianity Work: Letters and Lessons on Leadership, Theology and the Church

Carl Shank, 2012-08-06. Insights shared by an author and church leadership consultant from letters, emails, and various mentoring situations involving many lay and professional ministry leaders over an almost forty-year ministry span. A Biblical-Theological Introduction to the New Testament

Michael J. Kruger, 2016-05-31. Introductions to the New Testament often take a defensive stance focusing on historical critical issues but failing to address the interests and needs of pastors and Bible teachers. However, with an emphasis on the theology, key themes, and overall message of each book in the New Testament, this collaborative effort of nine biblical scholars takes a more positive and pastorally relevant approach. Written from a distinctly Reformed, covenantal, and redemptive historical perspective, this theologically rich expositional resource will equip readers to study and teach each book in the New Testament with clarity and insight.

A Theology of Paul and His Letters

Douglas J. Moo, 2021-10-26. A landmark study of the apostle's writings by one of the world's leading Pauline scholars. Winner of the 2022 ECPA Christian Book Award for Bible Reference Works. This highly anticipated volume gives pastors, scholars, and all serious students of the New Testament exactly what they need for in-depth study and engagement with one of Christian history's most formative thinkers and writers. A Theology of Paul and His Letters is a landmark study of the apostle's writings by one of the world's leading Pauline scholars. Douglas J. Moo. Fifteen years in the making, this groundbreaking work is organized into three major sections. Part 1 provides an overview of the issues involved in doing biblical theology in general and a Pauline theology in particular. Here, Moo also sets out the methodological issues, formative influences, and conceptual categories of Paul's thought. Part 2 moves on to Paul's New Testament writings where Moo describes each Pauline letter with particular relevance to its theology. Part 3 offers a masterful synthesis of Paul's theology under the overarching theme of the gift of the new realm in Christ. Engaging, insightful and wise, this substantive evangelical treatment of Paul's theology offers extensive engagement with the latest Pauline scholarship without sacrificing its readability. This volume brings insights from over thirty years of experience studying teaching and writing about Paul into one comprehensive guide that will serve readers as a go-to resource for decades to come.

ABOUT THE SERIES The Biblical Theology of the New Testament (BTNT) series provides upper college and seminary level textbooks for students of New Testament theology interpretation and exegesis. Pastors and discerning theology readers alike will also benefit from this series. Written at the highest level of academic excellence by recognized experts in the field, the BTNT series not only offers a comprehensive exploration of the theology of every book of the New Testament including introductory issues and major themes but also shows how each book relates to the broad picture of New Testament Theology.

A Lutheran's Case for Roman Catholicism Robert C. Koons, 2020-09-23 After thirty years of study and reflection, Lutheran philosopher Robert Koons joined the Catholic Church in 2007. This book articulates his reasons for abandoning the church of his ancestors for the Roman communion, reasons that centered on a deep and systematic rethinking of the central issue of the Reformation: the Lutheran doctrine of justification by faith alone. Koons draws on a broad knowledge of the Scriptures, the Church Fathers, and the most prominent theologians of the Lutheran movement from the time of the Reformation until the present, including Luther, Melancthon, Chemnitz, and Robert Preus. Since Jesus clearly intended for the church to remain visibly united, the burden of proof on any theological innovation is heavy, and Koons demonstrates that the Lutheran doctrine was innovative and he argues, relying on the best New Testament scholarship, that the Bible passages cited by the Reformers do not support the innovative features of the Lutheran doctrine. Koons seeks to eliminate widespread misunderstandings of the Catholic doctrine of justification on the part of many Protestants, emphasizing the Christocentric character of that teaching. Koons argues that in contrast, the Lutheran doctrine is inconsistent. He also points out serious logical problems with the principle of sola scriptura.

Covenant Theology Phillip D. R. Griffiths, 2016-06-10 God has always dealt with his people through the covenant, yet covenant theology from a Baptist perspective is a teaching that is all too often neglected. Many Baptists don't know why they are Baptist. If questioned, they are most likely to respond by alluding to the mode of baptism rather than its underlying theology. This book is easily accessible, providing the reader with a clear understanding of the historical Baptist position. The work points out the errors inherent in the Reformed paedobaptist paradigm and seeks to show that the only covenant of grace is the new covenant in Christ.
