Romantic Relationships in Islam Muhammed Amin Ibrahim, 2004-11 Romantic Relationships in Islam is an invaluable resource for any one planning to fall in love already involved in a relationship or married and trying to spice up their romantic lives Author Muhammed Amin Ibrahim discusses a variety of relationships as we know them today from different cultural backgrounds bringing over his experiences in his travels across Africa The Middle East and The Far East In clear and compelling language Amin explains some verses in the Qur'an and sayings of the Prophet of Islam dealing with romantic affairs The book is suitable for teens and adults and is particularly an eye opener for youngsters who do not know where to draw the line between love and sex fake and true love Romantic Relationships in Islam is a handbook for all lovers and discusses topics such as Love and Sex Conjoined Twins The Meaning of Love The Diplomacy of Love Love in a Corrupt Patriarchal World Romantic Relationships in Islam is unique in that it is not intended as a homily religious viewpoints are interspersed with anecdotal memoirs of an African trying to make a sense out of the meaning of love in his travels across Africa The Middle East and The Far East Common Words in Muslim-Christian Dialogue Vebjørn

Horsfjord, 2017-10-23 In Common Words in Muslim Christian Dialogue Vebjørn L Horsfjord offers an analysis of texts from an international dialogue process between Christian and Muslim leaders Through detailed engagement with the Muslim dialogue letter A Common Word between Us and You 2007 and a large number of Christian responses to it the study analyses the dialogue process in the wake of the Muslim initiative and shows how the various texts gain meaning through their interaction The author uses tools from critical discourse analysis and speech act analysis and claims that the Islamic dialogue initiative became more important as an invitation to Muslim Christian dialogue than as theological reflection He shows how Christian leaders systematically chose to steer the dialogue process towards practical questions about peaceful coexistence and away from theological issues Jinnealogy Anand Vivek Taneja, 2017-11-21 In the ruins of a medieval palace in Delhi a unique phenomenon occurs Indians of all castes and creeds meet to socialize and ask the spirits for help The spirits they entreat are Islamic jinns and they write out requests as if petitioning the state At a time when a Hindu right wing government in India is committed to normalizing a view of the past that paints Muslims as oppressors Anand Vivek Taneja's Jinnealogy provides a fresh vision of religion identity and sacrality that runs counter to state sanctioned history The ruin Firoz Shah Kotla is an unusually democratic religious space characterized by freewheeling theological conversations DIY rituals and the sanctification of animals Taneja observes the visitors who come mainly from the Muslim and Dalit neighborhoods of Delhi and uses their conversations and letters to the jinns as an archive of voices so often silenced He finds that their veneration of the jinns recalls pre modern religious traditions in which spiritual experience was inextricably tied to ecological surroundings In this enchanted space Taneja encounters a form of popular Islam that is not a relic of bygone days but a vibrant form of resistance to state repression and post colonial visions of India International Handbook of Love Claude-Hélène

Mayer, Elisabeth Vanderheiden, 2021-05-04 This handbook is the winner of the William B Gudykunst Award for Outstanding Book in 2023 given by the International Academy of Intercultural Research This handbook includes state of the art research on love in classical modern and postmodern perspectives It expands on previous literature and explores topics around love from new cultural intercultural and transcultural approaches and across disciplines It provides insights into various love concepts like romantic love agape and eros in their cultural embeddedness and their changes and developments in specific cultural contexts It also includes discussions on postmodern aspects with regard to love and love relationships such as digitalisation globalisation and the fourth industrial revolution The handbook covers a vast range of topics in relation to love aging health special needs sexual preferences spiritual practice subcultures family and other relationships and so on The chapters look at love not only in terms of the universal concept and in private intimate relationships but apply a broad concept of love which can also for example be referred to in postmodern workplaces This volume is of interest to a wide readership including researchers practitioners and students of the social sciences humanities and behavioural sciences In the 1970s through the 90s I was told that globalization was homogenizing cultures into a worldwide monoculture This volume as risky and profound as the many adventures of love across our multiplying cultures proves otherwise The authors revolutionary and courageous work will challenge our sensibilities and expand the boundaries of what we understand what love is But that's what love does It communicates what it offers what can be and pleads for what must be I know you'll enjoy this wonderful book as much as I do Jeffrey Ady Associate Professor retired Public Administration Program University of Hawaii at Manoa Founding Fellow International Academy for Intercultural Research The International Handbook of Love is far more than a traditional compendium It is a breath taking attempt to synthesize our anthropological and sociological knowledge on love It illuminates topics as diverse as Chinese love one night stands teen romance or love of leaders and many more This is a definitive reference in the field of love studies Eva Illouz author of The End of Love A sociology of Negative relationships Oxford University Press This is not a volume to be read in a single sitting though I almost did due to a protracted hospital stay nor is it romantic or inspirational reading though in some cases I had hoped for more narrative examples and case studies Rather it is a highly diverse scholarly effort a massive resource collection of research papers on love in a variety of contexts personal and professional settings and cultures The work is well referenced providing a large number of resources for deeper exploration We owe our thanks to the authors and editors of this handbook for work well done though that word in the title should not lead readers to suspect that enlightening as it is this book is a vade mecum or practical tour guide that provides ready solutions to the vicissitudes and challenges of our love lives Reviewed by Dr George F Simons on amazon.com Please see Claude H l ne Mayer's interview related to the handbook in LeanHealth Talks published by Bernadette Bruckner <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VNXA9sWuWo> Please see Claude H l ne Mayer's interview related to the handbook published In Iran News Daily <https://newspaper.irandaily.ir/nid/6941/pid/6/type/0> the hajj the journey of love Islam Kotob, 1980-01-01 Iqbal and Faqr Sultan-ul-Ashiqeen Sultan Mohammad Najib-ur-Rehman, 2023-03-21 If you are interested in a book consisting of Iqbal's poetry about Sufism then this is the perfect book for you. It has been designed for everyone who wants to cherish the poetry of Iqbal but is not acquainted with Urdu or Persian. In the realm of Faqr, one has to die before death, i.e. the death of self-nafs is eternal life for the soul. It is where the fire of Divine love circles one's inward such that the passion takes the person to behold the Reality. The litany that does it all is in reality the greatest name of Allah, Ism al Azam or Ism e Allah Zaat, but it works when the blessed hands of the perfect spiritual guide grant it, who is the Universal Divine Man, Mard e Mumin or al Insan al Kamil. He is hidden in the maze of this world where one has to tear the veils of loving anyone other than Allah. To reach the Divine, first one has to reach his spiritual court. Iqbal, the sagacious philosopher's poetry is brimming with all of it. The book in hand not only has the original poetry in Urdu and Persian but for ease of readers, its transliteration is also written along with a detailed explanation in English. Iqbal's point of view is parallel to many other Sufis who are also quoted. Islam and China's Hong Kong Wai-Yip Ho, 2013-06-07 Hong Kong is a global city state under the sovereignty of the People's Republic of China and is home to around 250,000 Muslims practicing Islam. However, existing studies of the Muslim majority communities in Asia and the Northwest China largely ignore the Muslim community in Hong Kong. Islam and China's Hong Kong skillfully fills this gap and investigates how ethnic and Chinese speaking Muslims negotiate their identities and the increasing public attention to Islam in Hong Kong. Examining a range of issues and challenges facing Muslims in Hong Kong, this book focuses on the three different diasporic Muslim communities and reveals the city state's triple Islamic heritage and distinctive Islamic culture. It begins with the transition from the colonial to the post-colonial era and explores how this has impacted on the experiences of the Muslim diaspora and the ways this shift has compelled the community to adapt to Chinese nationalism whilst forging greater links with the Gulf. Then, with reference to the rise of new media and technology, the book examines the heightened presence of Islam in the Chinese public sphere alongside the emergence of Chinese Islamic websites which have sought to balance transnational Muslim solidarity and sensitivity towards Chinese government's concern of external extremism. Finally, it concludes by investigating Hong Kong's growing awareness of the Muslim minorities' demands for Islamic religious education and how this links with the city state's aspiration to become the new gateway for Islamic finance. Indeed, Wai Yip Ho posits that Hong Kong is now shifting from its role as the broker that bridged East and West during the Cold War to that of a new mediator between China and the Middle East. Drawing on extensive ethnographic research, this book thoughtfully charts a new area of inquiry and as such will be welcomed by students and scholars of Chinese studies, Islamic studies, Asian studies and ethnicity studies.

decrease in creative thinking scores among children in kindergarten through third grade Rather than focus on what's wrong with the education system that has produced these outcomes Armstrong lays out what creative thinkers know about how children should be educated In an extended thought experiment he asks what would happen if we turned the reins of educational policy over not to the politicians and educational bureaucrats but to eminent thinkers and creators like Albert Einstein Pablo Picasso Martin Luther King Jr Rachel Carson Doris Lessing Jane Goodall and other seminal culture builders What might they say about the best way to educate a child If Einstein Ran the Schools suggests that the answers to this intriguing question should guide future efforts to reform our nation's schools Country Reports on Human Rights Practices, 2008 Internet in the Post-Soviet Area Sergey Davydov, 2023-07-10 This book offers a comparative perspective on the technological economic and political aspects of Internet development in the post Soviet countries In doing so international experts analyze similarities and differences in various countries throughout the chapters The volume consists of two parts The chapters of the first part examine the post Soviet area as a whole The second part includes specific case studies on the development of the Internet either in individual countries or in groups of countries Countries analyzed are Estonia Ukraine Russia as well as three Central Asian countries Kazakhstan Uzbekistan and Tajikistan Topics covered in the volume include but are not limited to measurement dynamics and structure of each national Internet audience the history of the Internet in the post Soviet countries development of infrastructure Internet regulation and institutional aspects online markets such as telecommunications online advertising e commerce and digital content social and cultural aspects as well as the transformation of the national media systems This book is a must read for students researchers and scholars of political science and economics as well as policymakers and practitioners interested in a better understanding of Internet development in the post Soviet area The SAGE Handbook of Film Studies James Donald, Michael Renov, 2008-04-16 Written by a team of veteran scholars and exciting emerging talents The SAGE Handbook of Film Studies maps the field internationally drawing out regional differences in the way that systematic intellectual reflection on cinema and film has been translated into an academic discipline It examines the conversations between Film Studies and its contributory disciplines that not only defined a new field of discourse but also modified existing scholarly traditions It reflects on the field's dominant paradigms and debates and evaluates their continuing salience Finally it looks forward optimistically to the future of the medium of film the institution of cinema and the discipline of Film Studies at a time when the very existence of film and cinema are being called into question by new technological industrial and aesthetic developments Negotiating Transcultural Relations in the Early Modern Mediterranean Stephen Ortega, 2016-04-22 Negotiating Transcultural Relations in the Early Modern Mediterranean is a study of transcultural relations between Ottoman Muslims Christian subjects of the Venetian Republic and other social groups in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Focusing principally on Ottoman Muslims who came to Venice and its outlying territories and using sources in Italian Turkish and Spanish this study examines the different types of power relations and the social geographies that framed the encounters of Muslim travelers While Stephen Ortega does not dismiss the idea that Venetians and Ottoman Muslims represented two distinct communities he does argue that Christian and Muslim exchange in the pre modern period involved integrated cultural economic political and social practices Ortega s investigation brings to light how merchants trade brokers diplomats informants converts wayward souls and government officials from different communities engaged in similar practices and used comparable negotiation tactics in matters ranging from trade disputes to the rights of male family members to guarantees of protection In relying on sources from archives in Venice Istanbul and Simancas the book demonstrates the importance of viewing Mediterranean history from a variety of perspectives and it emphasizes the importance of understanding cross cultural history as a negotiation between different social cultural and institutional actors
