Rome Time And Eternity:

Rome Anthony Woodward, 1995 Jews and Christians on Time and Eternity Annette Aronowicz, 1998 This book grapples with a wide range of contemporary ethical and religious issues through the lens of the reflections of Charles P. Guy on his friend and mentor Bernard Lazare. Both P. Guy, a leading French Catholic poet and philosopher, and Bernard Lazare, an iconoclastic Jewish intellectual, were passionately involved in the Dreyfus Affair which forms the background of these reflections. The book is in four parts. The first sets P. Guy's portrait of Bernard Lazare in a series of contexts analyzing it against the background of the rampant antisemitism of its time, situating it in relation to present-day discussions about the Other and especially placing it within various twentieth-century attempts to rethink religion. P. Guy's great contribution in this area lies in redirecting our attention to the ways human beings respond to defeat and to the ways the intellect is oriented by something outside itself as keys to the discovery of the transcendent. His work reformulates the meaning of hope and incarnation. The second part of the book presents P. Guy's portrait of Bernard Lazare in a complete English translation. In the third part, the author shows the affinity of P. Guy's thought to that of two Jewish thinkers, Franz Rosenzweig and Emmanuel Levinas. All three, in rethinking the religious dimension, located it amidst the daily interactions between people. The final part explores the implications of this notion of transcendence for the task of interpretation in the social sciences and the humanities.

The Eternal Time of History - Part I Simone Malacrida, 2025-06-04 Servio Italico's choice to break with his family's traditions will give rise to a lineage that for five generations will walk alongside the history of the first century. From the defeat of Teutoburg to the conquest of Britain, from the death of Octavian Augustus to the fire of Rome, from the eruption of Vesuvius to the first campaign of Dacia, men and women will find themselves in the presence of the founding idea of the Roman Empire, shaken by novelties and evolutions in an attempt to defend the values of an ancestral and now past virtue. To complete the vision of the century, two collateral stories intertwine in the plot: trade and cultivation in the Chinese Empire following the rise and fall of the Eastern Han dynasty, and the growing tensions in a family of zealots between Judea and Syria.

Encyclopedia of Time H. James Birx, 2009-01-13 Surveying the major facts, concepts, theories, and speculations that infuse our present comprehension of time, the Encyclopedia of Time: Science, Philosophy, Theology, and Culture explores the contributions of scientists, philosophers, theologians, and creative artists from ancient times to the present. By drawing together into one collection ideas from scholars around the globe and in a wide range of disciplines, this Encyclopedia will provide readers with a greater understanding of and appreciation for the elusive phenomenon experienced as time. Features surveys of historical thought about time, including those that emerged in ancient Greece, early Christianity, the Italian Renaissance, the Age of Enlightenment, and other periods. Covers the original and lasting insights of evolutionary biologist Charles Darwin, physicist Albert Einstein, philosopher Alfred North Whitehead, and theologian Pierre Teilhard de Chardin. Discusses the significance of time in the writings of Isaac Asimov, Samuel Taylor Coleridge, Fyodor M. Dostoevsky, Francesco

Petrarch and numerous other authors Includes the contributions of naturalists philosophers physicists theologians astronomers anthropologists geologists paleontologists and psychologists Includes artists portrayals of the fluidity of time including painter Salvador Dali s The Persistence of Memory and The Discovery of America by Christopher Columbus and writers Gustave Flaubert s The Temptation of Saint Anthony and Henryk Sienkiewicz s Quo Vadis Provides a truly interdisciplinary approach with discussions of Aztec Buddhist Christian Egyptian Ethiopian Islamic Hindu Navajo and many other cultures conceptions of time

The Eternal Time of History - Part II Simone Malacrida,2025-06-27 Following the family saga originated by Servius Italicus his descendants will find themselves facing new challenges and new problems unfolding throughout the second century The conquest of Dacia the endless wars against the Parthians the barbarian incursions will mark the territorial and cultural expansion of the adoptive principality one of the most glorious pages of the Empire until the definitive caesura given by the Antonine plague and the civil war In the background remain the personal passions the intrepid exploratory journeys the magisterial and senatorial careers the loves and doubts of entire generations The complementary vision of the century will be given by the same enemies of Rome that Parthian kingdom and those barbarian tribes always divided between coexistence or conflict

The Eternal Time of History - Part III Simone Malacrida,2025-07-25 The travails of the third century characterized by a profound social crisis in the Roman Empire shaken by civil wars and constant invasions inevitably affected the Italian family beginning with the descendants of Numa the imperial legate who won countless battles and would be the last witness of the Severan dynasty In the darkest period of Rome s thousand year history amid usurpers and the end of patrician rule there were key figures capable of averting collapse and restoring new hope to a system that with appropriate modifications would achieve the incredible feat of integrating new peoples and emerging religions without losing its own identity The landscape of looming enemies is characterized by the example of two peoples the Alemanni and the Goths who more than any other threatened Rome throughout the century

The Eternal Time of History - Part IV Simone Malacrida,2025-09-07 With the rise of Constantine to the helm of the Roman Empire religion became a crucial element along with civil wars and barbarian invasions shaping the entire history of the fourth century This was characterized by a continuous transformation of society much more concerned with cultural philosophical and theological aspects than with military tradition The Italics were no exception and generations adapted to these new customs a clear sign of a decline that was both inevitable and almost indefinitely postponed The foundations for the collapse lay in the emergence of new peoples represented by eternal past enemies such as the Sassanids and by adversaries who mistakenly would even be considered allies such as the Visigoths

Time in Ancient Stories of Origin
Anke Walter,2020-06-30 Greek and Roman stories of origin or aetia provide a fascinating window onto ancient conceptions of time Aetia pervade ancient literature at all its stages and connect the past with the present by telling us which aspects of the past survive even now or ever since then Yet while the standard aetiological formulae remain surprisingly stable over time the understanding of time that lies behind stories of origin undergoes profound changes By studying a broad range of texts and by closely examining select stories of origin from archaic Greece Hellenistic Greece Augustan Rome and early Christian literature Time in Ancient Stories of Origin traces the changing forms of stories of origin and the underlying changing attitudes to time to the interaction of the time of gods and men to historical time to change and continuity as well as to a time beyond the present one Walter provides a model of how to analyse the temporal construction of aetia by combining close attention to detail with a view towards the larger temporal agenda of each work In the process new insights are provided both into some of the best known aetiological works of antiquity e g by Hesiod Callimachus Vergil Ovid and lesser known works e g Ephorus Prudentius Orosius This volume shows that aetia do not merely convey factual information about the continuity of the past but implicate the present in ever new complex messages about time The Atlantic Monthly ,1912

Atlantic Monthly ,1912 God's Time For Us James J. Cassidy,2016-09-28 The relationship between eternity and time is a common subject for theologians and philosophers What difference does it make for this discussion that God became man and inhabited time in Jesus Christ In God's Time for Us James J Cassidy examines the theology of Karl Barth to show that God is our Father who does not neglect us for lack of time he is the God who has time to be with us God also quite literally has time in his own being by virtue of the incarnation Cassidy shows that Barth seeks a rapprochement between eternity and time which is overcome by Jesus Christ There is today a resurgence in interest in the theology of Barth especially among evangelicals Yet Barth is often read without discernment and discussed in churches without full understanding Cassidy illuminates his thought so evangelicals can make a better more well informed appraisal of the man and his theology

An interdisciplinary exploration of the influence of physical space in the study of religion While the concept of an Atlantic world has been central to the work of historians for decades the full implications of that spatial setting for the lives of religious people have received far less attention In Religion Space and the Atlantic World John Corrigan brings together research from geographers anthropologists literature scholars historians and religious studies specialists to explore some of the possibilities for and benefits of taking physical space more seriously in the study of religion Focusing on four domains that most readily reflect the importance of Atlantic world spaces for the shape and practice of religion texts design distance and civics these essays explore subjects as varied as the siting of churches on the Peruvian Camino Real the evolution of Hispanic cathedrals Methodist identity in nineteenth century Canada and Lutherans in early eighteenth century America Such essays illustrate both how the organization of space was driven by religious interests and how religion adapted to spatial ordering and reordering initiated by other cultural authorities The case studies include the erasure of Native American sacred spaces by missionaries serving as cartographers which contributed to a view of North America as a vast expanse of unmarked territory ripe for settlement Spanish explorers and missionaries reorganized indigenous built space to impress materially on people the surveillance power of Crown and Church The new environment and culture often transformed old institutions as in the reconception of the European cloister into a distinctly American space that offered autonomy and solidarity for religious women and served as a point of reference for social stability as convents assumed larger public roles in the outside community Ultimately even the ocean was reconceptualized as space itself rather than as a connector defined by the land masses that it touched requiring certain kinds of religious orientations to both space and time that differed markedly from those on land Collectively the contributors examine the locations and movement of people ideas texts institutions rituals power and status in and through space They argue that just as the mental organization of our activity in the world and our recall of events have much to do with our experience of space we should take seriously the degree to which that experience more broadly influences how we make sense of our lives Eternity Today, Vol. 1 Martin Connell, 2006-11-01 Eternity Today is a vade mecum for anyone who wishes to observe the liturgical year with intelligent devotion Seginus: The Eternal Time Traveller Ganesh K Shenoy, A young man wearing nothing but a linen garment was following Jesus When they seized him he fled naked leaving his garment behind Mark 14 51 52 Follow Seginus a time traveller and ranger in the Search Rescue department of the United Human Settlements UHS the Solar System's human habitat with man made planets space stations and other habitable planets in his journey through space and time who travelled from the year 31021 to the time of Jesus to find and rescue three lost time travellers Diantha Aleksy and Leandros What happens when Jesus not only assists him in his journey but also in reuniting him with his long lost lover and finally revealing the true mission for Seginus The book will certainly invoke and raise the fantasies of readers The author has attempted to blend science with spirituality without lessening the level of readers' imaginations This is an exhilarating work of fiction encompassing methodical and mystical knowledge The novel establishes that the past present and future are aspects of one existence About the Author Ganesh Kelagina Beedu Shenoy is a known artist who is an Indian national residing in Qatar In the year 2020 he set a world record for his artwork Most miniature paintings on a small paper card He painted 1156 miniature paintings on a small paper card measuring 17 cm X 17 cm Each miniature painting measures 0.5 cm X 0.5 cm setting the world record for the most miniature paintings ever painted on a small paper card The same artwork was approved by the Golden Book of World Records as a world record in 2021 In the year 2019 he broke both India and Asia records in the field of fine art by creating 1029 miniature paintings with 775 miniature paintings sized 1cm X 0.5cm and the remaining 254 paintings sized 1cm X 1cm drawn on a single A4 paper card using colour pencils and acrylic colours Ganesh Shenoy is the son of two famous artists from South India the late K Pundalik Shenoy and the late Padmini Shenoy Ganesh Shenoy was born in 1967 in Mangalore India and educated in Kerala and Karnataka Ganesh has a PhD in Human Resources Management and also has two postgraduate degrees one in Social Work and the other in Human Resources Management He is working as the Head of Human Resources at Sodexo in Qatar From childhood he was interested in painting and has secured many prizes and awards from his school days He is deeply interested in religion philosophy occultism mysticism etc He is a Freemason and also an active worker in the Theosophical Society Ganesh always donates his paintings to philanthropic organizations so that they can sell them and utilize the proceeds for charity work This book is his debut novel and the profit from its sale will also be used exclusively for charity The Commonwealth Reader Edward S.
