Includes 3 maps and 7 illustrations The command of military forces in combat is unlike any other field of human endeavor If war is the ultimate form of human competition then the commander is the ultimate competitor The commander operates in an environment of chance uncertainty and chaos in which the stakes are quite literally life and death He or she contends against an adversary who is using every means fair or foul to foil his plans and bring about his defeat The commander is ultimately responsible for every variable that factors into military success or failure training logistics morale equipment planning and execution The commander reaps the lion s share of plaudits in victory but also must accept the blame in defeat warranted or not Very often the line that separates fame and ignominy is slender indeed It is not difficult to identify great commanders though the overwhelming majority of generals who win battles are never considered great Something more than a favorable ratio of wins to losses is needed to establish greatness The truly great commander is generally considered to be one who attains the unexpected or the unprecedented one who stands above his contemporaries through his skill on the battlefield or through the sheer magnitude of his accomplishments The commanders selected were masters of warfare in their particular time and environment Each capitalized upon the social political economic and technological conditions of his day to forge successful military forces and win significant and noteworthy victories that profoundly altered the world in which he lived Dr Christopher R Gabel The Great Commanders covered by this volume are Alexander the Great Genghis Khan Napoleon John J Pershing Erwin Rommel and Curtis E LeMay      Worldwide Government Directory with Intergovernmental Organizations 2013 CQ Press,2013-05-10 Published for more than 24 years there is no substitute for the Worldwide Government Directory which allows users to identify and reach 32 000 elected and appointed officials in 201 countries plus the European Union Extensive coverage that includes over 1 800 pages of executive legislative and political branches heads of state ministers deputies secretaries and spokespersons as well as state agencies diplomats and senior level defense officials It also covers the leadership of more than 100 international organizations World Government contact information that includes phone numbers and email Listings include Name addresses telephone and fax numbers email and web addresses Titles Hierarchical arrangements defining state structures      Battalion Commanders at War Steven Thomas Barry,2013-05-23 Most histories of the U S Army in World War II view the Mediterranean Theater of Operations primarily as a deadly training ground for very green forces where lessons learned on the beaches of Oran in the hills of the Kasserine Pass area and at the collapse of the Tunis bridgehead all contributed to later success in Western Europe Steven Barry however contends that victory in the MTO would not have materialized without the leadership of battalion level commanders They operated at a high level despite the lack of combat experience for themselves and their troops ineffective leadership at higher levels and deficiencies in equipment organization and mobilization Barry portrays these officers as highly trained adaptable and courageous in their first combat experiences in North Africa and Sicily Their leadership he argues brought discipline maturity experience and the ability to translate common operational guidance into tactical reality and thus contributed significantly to battlefield success in North Africa and Sicily in 1942 1943 To explain how this happened he examines their prewar experiences including professional military education and unit training exercises personal factors such as calmness and physical resilience under fire and the ability to draw upon doctrine creatively apply the resources at their disposal and clearly define and communicate mission goals and means He also reveals how battalion leaders incorporated technological innovations into combined arms maneuvers by employing tank capabilities and close air support doctrine As Barry s assessment shows these battalion commanders were not the sole reason for the Allied triumph in North Africa and Sicily but victory would not have been possible without the special brand of military leadership they exhibited throughout those campaigns Under their leadership even inexperienced units were able to deliver credible combat performance and without the regular army battalion leaders U S units could not have functioned tactically early in the war One of the few studies to focus on tactical adaptation at the battalion level in conventional warfare Barry s book attests to the pivotal value of professional military education and makes an important contribution to today s organizational learning debate while providing an in depth view of adaptation of U S infantry and armored forces in 1942 1943 Book Bulletin Chicago Public Library,1969 Armada Steven Wilson,2010-04-19 SPRING 1944 THE ALLIES STAND POISED TO LAUNCH THE GREATEST SEABORNE INVASION THE WORLD HAS EVER KNOWN BUT HITLER S NAVY IS ABOUT TO UNLEASH A DEVASTATING NEW WEAPON THAT COULD SEND THE ALLIED FLEET TO THE BOTTOM OF THE ENGLISH CHANNEL Battle worn and battle tested Lt Jordan Cole seethes with anger toward Lt Commander Michael Edland the man he holds responsible for the deaths of many of his men Now thousands of more lives are at stake as the German navy has unleashed a new menace on the high seas Blazing across waves at unmatched speeds the Sea Eagles carry the firepower of far larger warships Commanded by Richard Reubold a former flyer and fearsome leader who struggles with demons all his own the shadowy S boats imperil the crucial Allied assault As the clock ticks inexorably toward D Day Cole and Edland must put aside their rancor and carry out a daring strategy before the Allied invasion force is smashed and Europe is crushed beneath the heels of the Nazi jackboot Chilling and compelling will keep you up all night John J Gobbell author of A Call to Colors Army ,1960 Germany at War David T. Congress,1964 Air University Periodical Index , D-Day General Noel F. Mehlo,2021-05-15 Omaha was the make or break Allied beach on D Day in perhaps the make or break campaign of World War II If American soldiers couldn t gain a foothold there then D Day was unlikely to succeed On June 6 1944 U S troops on Omaha suffered the worst casualties of any of the five Allied invasion beaches so many casualties and so much tactical difficulty that Omaha almost didn t succeed One big reason why Americans gained a foothold on Omaha was Gen Norman Dutch Cota A graduate of the West Point class of 1917 alongside famous classmates Matthew Ridgway Mark Clark and Lightning Joe Collins Norm Cota played football with

Dwight Eisenhower who graduated two years earlier From March 1941 to February 1943 Cota served with the famous 1st Infantry Division the Big Red One as division intelligence officer plans training officer and finally chief of staff He performed so well in the North Africa campaign that he was sent to England to help plan D Day After laying the tactical groundwork for the amphibious landings Cota was made assistant division commander of the 29th Infantry Division On the eve of D Day he told his men You re going to find confusion The landing craft aren t going in on schedule and people are going to be landed in the wrong place Some won t be landed at all We must improvise carry on not lose our heads On June 6 1944 under heavy fire Cota landed with the second wave of the 29th Infantry Division on Omaha Beach about an hour after the start of the invasion He personally rallied the survivors of the landings and led the opening of one of the first exits off Omaha Cota seemed to be everywhere that day Coming upon a group of Rangers the general told them Rangers lead the way hence the Rangers motto He is also known for saying Gentlemen we are being killed on the beaches Let us go inland and be killed And to a captain uncertain how to proceed I ll tell you what captain You and your men start shooting at them I ll take a squad of men and you and your men watch carefully I ll show you how to take a house with Germans in it Having demonstrated the task Cota asked the officer Do you understand Do you know how to do it now I won t be around to do it for you again I can t do it for everybody Great quips which American military history will always remember and which show the character in every sense of Dutch Cota Cota was a fighter a fighting general a D Day general and his contribution to D Day will remain his rallying of demoralized troops and his blazing the trail toward the breakout and victory on Omaha Ted Roosevelt Jr who landed at Utah Beach has always received credit as the D Day general like Cota Roosevelt also demanded that he land on D Day and then died of a heart attack a month later but Cota is the hero general of the day having landed early on D Day on bloody Omaha Portrayed by Robert Mitchum in the grand D Day film The Longest Day Cota has not yet received his due and there s a campaign now afoot to award him a belated Medal of Honor His story cries out to be told Now with the cooperation of the Cota family Noel F Mehlo Jr tells the compelling story Dutch Cota on Omaha Beach revealing new information and never before seen photos
