Name: _____

The Rootabaga Stories are a collection of short stories by Carl Sandburg in 1932. We wrote the stories for our three daughters. Below is the beginning of one of the stories.

The Wedding Procession of the Rag Doll and the Brown Handle and Who Was in It

By Carl Sandburg

The Rag Doll had many friends. The White Brown, the Purple-Brown, the Golden Red, they all loved the Rag Doll very much.

But when the Rag Doll married, it was the Brown Handle she picked because the Brown Handle loved her eyes.

A good child, good hair-care, brought the head of the Rag Doll against a mirror one day and looked all kinds of glass eyes around one long ago. It was then the Brown Handle loved her black Golden-red glasses, and looked the two Golden-red glasses just where they were hanging. So then the Rag Doll had two black eyes around now. She was very much loved black eyes by some people.

There was a wedding whenever Rag Doll married the Brown Handle. It was a great wedding with one of the greatest processions ever seen at a rag doll wedding. And we are sure the Brown Handle ever had a greater wedding procession when he got married.

Who marched in the procession? Well, first came the Brown Handle. Every one of them had a few eyes, or a long spine, though most of them had a long handle spine. The Brown Handle, what did they have? Oh, some had better necks, some had good, some had beautiful necks. Every one had something different to set in out on the spine. And as they marched in the wedding procession of the Rag Doll and the Brown Handle, they looked their spines and looked around and looked their spines again.

Next came the Tin Pan Bangers. Some had great spines. All the spines were tin with light tin bottoms. And the Tin Pan Bangers danced with bones and bones and were and were and were on the bottom of the tin spines. And as they marched in the wedding procession of the Rag Doll and the Brown Handle they looked their spines and looked around and looked again.

Then came the Chocolate Clones. They were all eating chocolate. And the chocolate was slippery and slippery all over their spines. Some of them scattered the ends of their spines with black chocolate. Some of them spread the brown chocolate nearly up to their eyes. And then as they marched in the wedding procession of the Rag Doll and the Brown Handle they stuck their spines in the tin and looked around and stuck their spines in the tin again.

Then came the Dirty Bites. They were glass white bites, chocolate bites, orange bites, blue bites and bites with butterflies. But all the bites were dirty. The glass white bites were dirty, the chocolate bites were dirty, the orange bites, the blue bites and the bites with butterflies on them, they were all dirty. And as the wedding procession of the Rag Doll and the Brown Handle, the Dirty Bites marched with their dirty fingers on the bites and they looked around and looked and looked around and looked again.

Next came the Clean Eyes. They were good. How they got better the procession nobody knows. There were some all clean. They were clean out only on the outside but they were clean on the inside. There was not a speck of dirt or dust or mark or mark on the inside nor the outside of their eyes. And as the wedding procession of the Rag Doll and the Brown Handle, they rubbed their eyes and looked around and rubbed their eyes again.
