Rooted In Faith Homilies To A Contemporary World:

Rooted in Faith: Homilies to a Contemporary World Saint Bonaventure (Cardinal), 1974      The A to Z of Medieval Philosophy and Theology Stephen F. Brown, Juan Carlos Flores, 2010-03-23

The Middle Ages is often viewed as a period of low intellectual achievement. The name itself refers to the time between the high philosophical and literary accomplishments of the Greco Roman world and the technological advances that were achieved and philosophical and theological alternatives that were formulated in the modern world that followed. However, having produced such great philosophers as Anselm, Peter Abelard, John Duns Scotus, William of Ockham, Peter Lombard, and the towering Thomas Aquinas, it hardly seems fair to label the medieval period as such. Examining the influence of ancient Greek philosophy as well as of the Arabian and Hebrew scholars who transmitted it, The A to Z of Medieval Philosophy and Theology presents the philosophy of the Christian West from the 9th to the early 17th century. This is accomplished through a chronology, an introduction, appendixes, a bibliography, and hundreds of cross-referenced dictionary entries on the philosophers, concepts, issues, institutions, and events, making this an important reference for the study of the progression of human thought.      Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation Robin Healey, 2011-12-15

Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation provides the most complete record possible of texts from the early periods that have been translated into English and published between 1929 and 2008. It lists works from all genres and subjects and includes translations wherever they have appeared across the globe. In this annotated bibliography, Robin Healey covers over 5,200 distinct editions of pre-1900 Italian writings. Most entries are accompanied by useful notes providing information on authors, works, translators, and how the translations were received. Among the works by over 1,500 authors represented in this volume are hundreds of editions by Italy's most translated authors: Dante Alighieri, Machiavelli, and Boccaccio, and other hundreds which represent the author's only English translation. A significant number of entries describe works originally published in Latin. Together with Healey's Twentieth Century Italian Literature in English Translation, this volume makes comprehensive information on translations accessible for schools, libraries, and those interested in comparative literature.      Sacred Rhetoric Michael Pasquarello III, 2012-06-01

Modern approaches to preaching today are largely fixated on how to make preaching more relevant, more interesting, more entertaining. Michael Pasquarello suggests that this fixation may stem from a preaching imagination beholden to technical, scientific reason rather than theological wisdom. Rather than devising new techniques or strategies for effective speaking, Pasquarello offers something more salutary: portraits of ten exemplary preachers from the Christian tradition. Included in Pasquarello's gallery are Augustine of Hippo, Gregory the Great, Benedict, Bernard of Clairvaux, Bonaventure, Thomas Aquinas, Erasmus, Hugh Latimer, Martin Luther, and John Calvin. These excellent preachers conceived of Christian speech as a unique theological practice learned through prayerful attention to the Bible and aimed at communion with God. Sacred Rhetoric invites readers to join an extended conversation with the past in order to become faithful preachers of the gospel in a post-Christian society.

Preachers seminarians and students of Christian history will find much to learn from Pasquarello's fresh perspective and passion for the past

Francis of Assisi William R. Cook, 2008-04-01 My task is to rely as much as possible on both written and visual sources although I obviously must consider the discoveries and insights of modern scholarship in order to present Francis of Assisi as a major figure in the mystical tradition This means I will not be much concerned with Francis as the founder of a religious order I will not present a detailed biography although the first chapter provides a general overview in order to make the more detailed discussions of his spirituality more intelligible Rather than attempt to discuss all texts by and about Francis of a mystical nature I shall instead focus on six elements of his life and spirituality his conversion his relationship to the created world the creation of the Christmas crib at Greccio the role of learning the relationship between the active and contemplative life and his stigmatization at LaVerna in 1224 two years before his death I believe that a detailed discussion and analysis of these aspects of Francis's life will best introduce the reader to Francis of Assisi from the Introduction
