nation state did not respond with new material evidence. Instead they turned to the literary structures that through a range of what the author calls mnemonic effects could generate the experience of a collective past. As Sir Philip Sidney recognized verse depends upon the repetitions of rhyme and meter consequently poetry far exceedeth prose in the knitting up of memory. These poetic and linguistic forms expose national memory as a construction at potential odds with history for memory operates like language through a series of signifiers that acquire new meaning as one rearranges and rereads them. Moving from the tragedy Gorboduc 1561 to Dryden's Absalom and Achitophel 1681 Pivetti shows how such knitting up of memory created the shared pasts that generate nationhood. His work implies that memory emerges not from what actually occurred but from the forms that compose it. Or to adapt the words of Paul Ricoeur we have nothing better than memory to signify that something has taken place. The same is true even when that something is nationhood. Report Wellcome

Personal Identity between Philosophy and Psychology Vinicio Busacchi, Giuseppe Martini, 2020-12-24 What is personal identity? What forms its nature? Is there a difference between identity and personality? What makes a person an individual and what exactly is the person? What role is played by character, nature, environment, society, values and destiny in defining and substantiating a personal identity? The dialectics of different disciplinary approaches and knowledges as well as different theoretical speculative perspectives and traditions can be more productive in deepening and readdressing problems concerning human identity. It is by following this line of reasoning that this book analyses and discusses the above questions from the dialectical perspective of psychoanalysis, psychiatry and philosophy. It offers a new point of departure for theoretical scientific and speculative advancement. The book also reconsiders the fundamental characteristics of a dynamic and hermeneutic vision of identity tracing a middle way perspective and at the same time absorbing Wilfred Bion's idea of transformation and Paul Ricoeur's philosophy of translation.
