Roots Of Evil A History Of Crime And Punishment:

The Roots of Evil Christopher Hibbert, 1963 The Roots of Evil, 1966 Routledge Library Editions: The History of Crime and Punishment Various Authors, 2022-07-30 This set reissues ten books that explore the history of crime and punishment The titles which were originally published between 1970 and 1988 examine many different aspects of historical criminology over a span of over 400 years with particular focus on the nineteenth century This set will be of particular interest to students of both history and criminology Crime and the Justice System in America Gordon M. Armstrong, Frank Schmalleger, 1997-11-25 An inter disciplinary survey of crime and violence in America with historical perspective but primary entry emphasis focused on the 20th century Addressing specifically the period from 1960 to the present this reference also projects into the 21st century with contemporary terminology covering aspects of violent crime DNA evidence terrorism riots gangs guns and gun control AIDS drug and drug related crime and corporate and political crime A Bibliographic Essay Table of Cases and Index enrich this work designed for students scholars and professionals in criminal justice and related fields The Politics of the Rope Neville Twitchell, 2012 The campaign to abolish capital punishment 1955 1969 Britain's Most Notorious Hangmen Stephen Wade, 2009-07-16 A breathtaking history of Britain's executioners from the seventeenth court of King Charles II to the UK's last official hangman of the twentieth century In 1663 Jack Ketch delighted in his profession and gained notoriety not only because of those he executed dukes and lords but for how often he botched the job Centuries later in 1965 after nearly six hundred trips to the gallows Albert Pierrepoint retired as Britain's longest running executioner Between them are three hundred years in a fascinating history of crime and the turn of men who handled the penalties many of them criminals themselves doing the grim work to save their own necks Britain's Most Notorious Hangmen tells the stories of the men who plied their deadly trade at Tyburn tree or at the scaffolds in the prison yards across the country including such notable neck stretchers as Throttlor Smith and the celebrated James Billington But true crime historian Stephen Wade explores the lives and crimes of many of the infamous killers that were hanged as well He also sheds light on the changing social norms of the country and the moral dilemmas that arose for hangmen tasked with performing what was once considered the most crowd pleasing free entertainment ever offered to the public Library Book Catalog United States. Department of Justice, 1972 Punishment And Culture María José Falcón y Tella, Fernando Falcón y Tella, 2006 This volume critically explores the basis and the goal of punishment from the standpoint of the right to punish The work reviews the main doctrines that have dealt with the theme of punishment from Antiquity to the present not limiting itself to the legal philosophical sphere but also analyzing the contributions from other social sciences It then explores how these are reflected in the sphere of Positive Law The Big Book of Pain Mark P Donnelly, Daniel Diehl, 2012-01-31 For millennia mankind has devised ingenious and diabolical means of inflicting pain on fellow human beings This deplorable but seemingly universal trait has eaten away at mankind's very claim to civilisation Despite how repugnant the practice of torture appears to us today for at least 3 000 years it formed part of most legal codes throughout Europe and the Far East The Big Book of Pain is an exploration of the systematic use throughout the ages of various means of punishment torture coercion and torment It takes the reader into the Ancient Roman Coliseum the medieval dungeon the Inquisitional interrogation the auto da fe the witch trial and the worst of prisons It is a shocking and compelling study of the shameful methods and motives of the torturer and the executioner and of the heinous duty they have performed through the ages

Landscapes of Fear Yi-Fu Tuan, 2013-01-02 To be human is to experience fear but what is it exactly that makes us fearful Here is one geographer's striking exploration of our landscapes of fear as they change throughout our lives and have changed throughout history Yi fu Tuan investigates landscapes of the natural environment which are threatening and landscapes filled with the dark imageries of the mind fears of drought flood famine and disease shared by all members of a community and fears of the particular ghosts which haunt the individual imagination In this lucidly written ground breaking survey Professor Tuan delves into many cultures and reaches back into our prehistory to discover what is universal and what is particular in our inheritance of fear Starting with fear in animals he raises and explores a variety of questions What is specifically human about fear Is there or has there ever been a fearless society Professor Tuan examines the most specific forms fear takes in the mind of the child among hunters and agriculturists inside the walls of a medieval Chinese city among Navaho Indians and American immigrants He explores the ways in which authorities create landscapes of terror to instill fear in their own populations and he probes that most basic of all contradictions between the need for human security and the fear of human nature Professor Tuan particularly emphasizes how in coping with fears of enemies strangers the insane wolves wind witches mountains dragons rain or the terror that the universe itself might crumble humans respond adventurously by creating shelters ranging from fairy tales to cosmological myths We watch as human beings continually draw and redraw their circles of safety never feeling entirely at peace within them

Newgate Narratives Vol 1 Gary Kelly, 2017-09-29 Presents a representative body of Romantic and early Victorian crime literature This work contains ephemeral material ranging from gallows broadsides to reports into prison conditions It is suitable for those studying Literature Romantic and Victorian popular culture Dickens Studies and the History of Criminology

Madams Fergus Linnane, 2011-10-24 At a time when there were almost no career openings for women a group of intrepid and gifted females scaled the heights of what was literally a man's world they became bawds Mother Clap women bawds were often known as Mother ran male brothels or Molly Houses Elizabeth Holland had an immense moated mansion built on Bankside and for thirty years entertained the aristocracy including royalty When troops attempted to stop her trade and eject her from the house she and her girls drove them off The Georgian bawd Charlotte Hayes held a Cyprian Fete at which gentlemen of the highest breeding first watched athletic young men copulating with nubile whores and then joined in themselves Fergus Linnane reveals the other side of London's years of pomp and splendour painting a vivid picture of the bawds their girls and their clients Madams is fresh and original offering humour insight and a very candid view of the sexual behaviour of Londoners through the ages John L. Sullivan and His America Michael T. Isenberg,1994-01-15 A knockout biography of John L Sullivan that puts the fabled boxing champ squarely in the context of his rough and tumble times Drawing on a wealth of contemporary sources including the scandalous National Police Gazette Isenberg History Annapolis recounts how Sullivan brawled his way from a working class background in Boston s Irish ghetto to the top of the prizefighting world Policing in America Leonard A. Steverson,2007-08-28 This book maps the development of modern policing both theory and practice from humans first efforts at social control through the British roots of modern policing to the unique institution of American policing today How Americans view police has varied dramatically through history In 1856 New York police opposed wearing uniforms because they felt it represented a militaristic and nondemocratic type of organization Today our police model themselves on the military and use military tactics in the war on drugs Policing in America A Reference Handbook chronicles our changing ideas and methods of social control beginning with the first recorded instances It traces the trends that have shaped America s unique policing system and our fascination with police It also examines the hot button issues that concern police scholars today such as the nature of the police subculture and police corruption and details the trends and issues that will shape the future of policing An essential reference for those interested in and affected by the American system of policing which impacts us all Daughters of the State Barbara M. Brenzel,1985-09 A rich and fascinating study of education social reform and women s history Daughters of the State explores the lives of young girls who came to the State Industrial School for Girls in Lancaster Massachusetts during its first fifty years Brenzel skillfully integrates the complex lines of nineteenth century social thought and policies formed around issues of work sex roles schooling and sexuality that have carried through to this century In the school shandwritten case histories and legislative reports she uncovers institutional mores and biases toward the young and the poor and especially toward women Brenzel also reveals the plight of the parents who were forced by their circumstances to condemn their children to such institutions in the hope of improving their futures Barbara Brenzel is Assistant Professor of Education and Department Chair at Wellesley College Daughters of the State is an MIT Harvard joint Center for Urban Studies Book Their Sisters' Keepers Estelle B. Freedman,1981 This study of prison reform adds a new chapter to the history of women s struggle for justice in America Justice and Law María José Falcón y Tella,2014-05-08 Apart from considering classical theories of justice from Aristotle Plato Saint Thomas Aquinas the Bible and the Quran the aim of Justice and Law is to focus on the contemporary vista reviewing some of the modern ideas of justice advanced by legal philosophers of our time such as John Rawls Jürgen Habermas Ronald Dworkin Robert Nozick Richard A Posner Wojciech Sadurski Marxism or Feminist Theories In the second part of the work María José Falcón y Tella deals with some of the principal themes relating to justice such as punishment civil disobedience conscientious objection just war conflict of duties and tolerance Yorkshire Hangmen Stephen Wade,2020-01-31 The history and mythology of hangmen in Yorkshire an account of crime and punishment in England from the eighteenth century to the twentieth century From the eighteenth century York was one of the places employing its own hangmen copying London and Newgate even to the use of the word Tyburn to define it s Knavesmire gallows also known as the three legged mare That was where highwayman Dick Turpin met his fate Later in the Victorian period Armley Gaol in Leeds also became a hanging prison the site of the death of the notorious killer Charlie Peace The tales of the villains and the victims are well documented but author Stephen Wade also provides us with the stories of both Yorkshire born hangmen and others who worked in Leeds Hull or Wakefield For the first time Yorkshire s Hangmen brings together the tales of the lives and professional careers of these men some famous others long forgotten who held a morbid fascination for the public Their trade was mysterious revolting and yet justified by many famous criminals in English history The book includes accounts of killers spies and traitors meeting their doom but also tells something of the personalities of the hangmen and of their moral dilemmas as they had to hang women and young people as well as hardened villains Many of the executioners suffered terrible depression some took their own lives and others such as the famous Albert Pierrepoint even questioned their work in later life A must read for lovers of historical non fiction and true crime

A Bibliography of British History, 1914-1989 Keith Robbins,American Historical Association,Royal Historical Society (Great Britain),1996 Containing over 25 000 entries this unique volume will be absolutely indispensable for all those with an interest in Britain in the twentieth century Accessibly arranged by theme with helpful introductions to each chapter a huge range of topics is covered There is a comprehensive index

Criminal Justice in England and the United States David Hirschel,William Wakefield,1995-07-30 Hirschel and Wakefield provide their readers with an informed and interesting view of two criminal justice systems The discussion revolves around the history and development of the criminal justice systems of England and the United States The authors draw comparisons between the two with a view toward policy implications for the administration of criminal justice The discussion includes areas of law enforcement judicial systems correctional systems and ends with an evaluation of the English criminal justice system and lessons for both the United States and England
