Roots Of Heaven:

The Roots of Heaven Romain Gary, 1964 A man who spent two years in German concentration camps goes to French Equatorial Africa to try to ban the hunting of elephants The Roots of Heaven Romanin Gary, 1964 Against Value in the Arts and Education Sam Ladkin, Robert McKay, Emile Bojesen, 2016-05-18 Against Value in the Arts and Education proposes that it is often the staunchest defenders of art who do it the most harm by suppressing or mollifying its dissenting voice by neutralizing its painful truths and by instrumentalizing its ambivalence The result is that rather than expanding the autonomy of thought and feeling of the artist and the audience art s defenders make art self satisfied or otherwise an echo chamber for the limited and limiting self description of people s lives lived in an audit culture a culture pervaded by the direct and indirect excrecence of practices of accountability This book diagnoses the counter intuitive effects of the rhetoric of value It posits that the auditing of values pervades the fabric of people s work lives their education and increasingly their everyday experience The book uncovers figures of resentment disenchantment and alienation fostered by the dogma of value It argues instead that value judgments can behave insidiously and incorporate aesthetic ethical or ideological values fundamentally opposed to the value they purportedly name and describe The collection contains contributions from leading scholars in the UK and US with contributions from anthropology the history of art literature education musicology political science and philosophy Romain Gary Ralph Schoolcraft, 2012-05-26 In this book Ralph Schoolcraft explores the extraordinary career of the modern French author film director and diplomat a romantic and tragic figure whose fictions extended well beyond his books Born Roman Kacew he overcame an impoverished boyhood to become a French Resistance hero and win the coveted Goncourt Prize under the pseudonym and largely invented persona Romain Gary Although he published such acclaimed works as The Roots of Heaven and Promise at Dawn the Gaullist traditions that he defended in the world of French letters fell from favor and his critical fortunes suffered at the hands of a hostile press Schoolcraft details Gary s frustrated struggle to evolve as a writer in the eye of a public that now considered him a known quantity Identifying the daring strategies used by this mysterious character as he undertook an elaborate scheme to reach a new readership Schoolcraft offers new insight into the dynamics of authorship and fame within the French literary institutions In the early 1970s Gary made his departure from the conservative literary establishment publishing works that boasted a quirky elliptical style under a variety of pseudonymous personae the most successful of which was that of an Algerian immigrant by the name of Emile Ajar Moving behind the mask of his new creation Gary was able to win critical and popular acclaim and a second Goncourt in 1975 But as Schoolcraft suggests Gary may have sold his shadow that is lost his authorial persona by marketing himself too effectively Going so far as to recruit a cousin to stand in as the public face of this phantom author Gary kept the secret of his true authorship until his violent death in 1980 from a self inflicted gunshot wound The press reacted with resentment over the scheme and he was shunned into the ranks of literary oddities Schoolcraft draws from archives of the several thousand documents related to Gary housed at the French publishing firms of Gallimard and Mercure de France as well as the Butler Library at Columbia University Exploring the depths of a story that has long remained shrouded in mystery Romain Gary The Man Who Sold His Shadow is as much a fascinating biographical sketch as it is a thought provoking reflection on the assumptions made about identities in the public sphere Long Live Magic Xun HuanJiaoZhu,2020-06-12 What was the martial arts world Sword lights sword shadows grudges and enmity the love between a child and a girl this was the martial arts world People of the martial arts world were always involved in matters of the martial arts world and wherever there were people there would be people of the martial arts world Humans were the martial arts world Hollywood and the Movies of the Fifties Foster Hirsch,2023-10-10 A fascinating look at Hollywood s most turbulent decade and the demise of the studio system set against the boom of the post World War II years the Cold War and the atomic age and the movies that reflected the seismic shifts The definitive book on 1950s Hollywood Booklist Lavish insightful rich expansive penetrating Kirkus Hollywood in the 1950s was a period when the film industry both set conventions and broke norms and traditions from Cinerama CinemaScope and VistaVision to the epic film and lavish musical It was a decade that saw the rise of the anti hero the smoldering the hidden and the unspoken teenagers gone wild in the streets the sacred and the profane the revolution of the Method the socially conscious the implosion of the studios the end of the production code and the invasion of the ultimate body snatcher the small screen television Here is Eisenhower s America seemingly complacent conformity ridden revealed in Vincente Minnelli s Father of the Bride Walt Disney s Cinderella and Brigadoon among others And here is its darkening resonant landscape beset by conflict discontent and anxiety The Man Who Knew Too Much The Asphalt Jungle A Place in the Sun Touch of Evil It Came From Outer Space an America on the verge of cultural political and sexual revolt busting up and breaking out East of Eden From Here to Eternity On the Waterfront Sweet Smell of Success The Wild One A Streetcar Named Desire and Jailhouse Rock An important riveting look at our nation at its peak as a world power and at the political cultural sexual upheavals it endured reflected and explored in the quintessential American art form Lesley Blanch Anne Boston,2014-08-28 Blanch writer artist and adventuress followed her own compass in everything she did She called herself a romantic traveller her appetite for the exotic colours all her books The first The Wilder Shores of Love became a worldwide bestseller and is still in print Emotions she insisted can be transposed to places or countries and in this she was her own best example Her guiding passion for Russia began in childhood later she found the eternal Slav in Romain Gary Franco Slav diplomat and writer and with him embarked on a series of postings from Bulgaria to Los Angeles After their divorce she transferred her obsession to Turkey Persia and the Islamic East where she travelled widely with tremendous baggage She eventually settled on the Cote d Azur in a small pink villa dressed as exotically as herself Lesley Blanch loved mystery vivid yet elusive she hid as much as she revealed and created a legend about her early past In this first biography Anne Boston draws on publishers archives unpublished journals and conversations with those who knew her to piece together the portrait

 Regrets on an African River and Other Adventures Jeff Scoggins,2020-01-01 Prepare for geographical whiplash as you travel around the world with author Jeff Scoggins through his adventures as a military brat then missionary kid turned missionary family Hold your breath as little Jeff saws into a live bullet with a hacksaw runs from his schoolroom to a nearby bomb shelter takes a punch from the class bully buys a three hundred dollar bunch of bananas rows furiously down an African river to escape its crocs and hippos and much more Then experience the goodness of an angel in a red Dodge pickup listen in as Jeff s dad asks how he plans to dispose of the dead body in his trunk and watch as he scrambles to pull up tent stakes ahead of a storm full of tornadoes Ultimately through the power of these short but exciting stories you ll discover that no earthly adventure beats the one that is living life with Jesus The Film Weekly ,1958 John Huston Jeffrey Meyers,2011 Recounts the life of the influential director writer and actor and offers insight into his professional achievements as well as his extensive hobbies five marriages and homes in Mexico and Ireland The Mythic Past:

Copyright Office,1959 Romain Gary David Bellos,2010-11-30 Airman war hero immigrant law student diplomat novelist and celebrity spouse Romain Gary had several lives thrust upon him by the history of the twentieth century but he also aspired to lead many more He wrote more than two dozen books and a score of short stories under several different names in two languages English and French neither of which was his mother tongue Gary had a gift for narrative that endeared him to ordinary readers but won him little respect among critics far more intellectual than he could ever be His varied and entertaining writing career tells a different story about the making of modern literary culture from the one we are accustomed to hearing Born Roman Kacew in Vilna now Lithuania in 1914 and raised by only his mother after his father left them Gary rose to become French Consul General in Los Angeles and the only man ever to win the Goncourt Prize twice

This biography follows the many threads that lead from Gary's wartime adventures and early literary career to his years in Hollywood and his marriage to the actress Jean Seberg. It illuminates his works in all their incarnations and culminates in the tale of his most brilliant deception: the fabrication of a complex identity for his most successful nom de plume, J. Edgar. In his new portrait of Gary, David Bellos brings biographical research together with literary and cultural analysis to make sense of the many lives of Romain Gary, a hero fit for our times as well as his own. Transforming the Screen, 1950-1959 Peter Lev, 2003. Covering a tumultuous period of the 1950s, this work explores the divorce of movie studios from their theater chains, the panic of the blacklist era, the explosive emergence of science fiction as the dominant genre, and the rise of television and Hollywood's response with widescreen spectacles. Box Office, 1958. The Atlantic, 1958. The hermetic and alchemical writings of Aureolus Philippus Theophrastus Bombastus von Hohenheim, called Paracelsus the great, 1894. The Roots of Heaven Romain Gary, 1958.
