Rosa Bonheur:

Rosa Bonheur Rosa Bonheur, Anne Henderson, 1989 Rosa Bonheur François Crastre, 2022-06-02 In Rosa Bonheur François Crastre delves into the life and intricacies of one of the 19th century's most celebrated female artists. This meticulously researched biography presents a narrative that intertwines Bonheur's artistic journey with the socio-political context of her time, particularly focusing on the complexities faced by women in the arts during the male-dominated era of realism. Crastre employs a rich descriptive literary style that not only examines Bonheur's profound connection with the natural world and animal subjects but also critiques the societal constraints placed upon her, ultimately celebrating her groundbreaking achievements and influence in the art world. François Crastre, a noted art historian and biographer, draws from his extensive knowledge of 19th-century art movements and feminist theory to bring Rosa Bonheur's story to life. With a keen understanding of the cultural and artistic landscapes, Crastre masterfully illuminates the challenges and triumphs Bonheur experienced, including her role as a pioneer for women in a field often reserved for men. His own appreciation for artistic innovation and advocacy for female artists fuel this enlightening exploration. This book is highly recommended for anyone interested in art history, feminism, and the transformative power of creativity. Crastre's engaging narrative not only informs but inspires, providing readers with a profound appreciation for Rosa Bonheur's contributions to art and society. Whether you are a student of art, a feminist scholar, or a casual reader, this biography offers a compelling exploration of a remarkable woman's life and legacy. The five contributions look at Bonheur's reception in England and America, the dissemination of her work by the House of Goupil, Bonheur and her female life companion Anna Klumpke, and the Bonheur family. Includes 26 color Rosa's Animals Maryann Macdonald, 2018-06-05 Painter and sculptor Rosa Bonheur 1822-1899 led a highly nontraditional life, especially for a woman in the nineteenth century. She kept lions as pets, was awarded the Legion of Honor by Empress Eugénie, and befriended Buffalo Bill Cody. She became a painter at a time when women were often only reluctantly educated as artists. Her unconventional artistic work habits, including visiting slaughterhouses to sketch an animal's anatomy and wearing men's clothing to gain access to places like a horse fair where women were not allowed, helped her become one of the most beloved female painters of her time. Among the artworks discussed are The Horse Fair and Ploughing in the Nivernais. Along with her life story are a list of museums that house her work, a bibliography, and an index.
