War of Titans Jackie DiSalvo,2010-11-23 In a dramatically original analysis Jackie DiSalvo explores Blake s reworking of Genesis and Paradise Lost in his prophetic poem The Four Zoas creating a compelling new reading of both Milton and Blake With informed argument and provocative insights DiSalvo shows how Blake s view of history prefigures the revaluation of our own myths of origin prompted by new political psychological and feminist perspectives A Guided Tour of the Collected Works of C. G. Jung Robert H. Hopcke,2013-02-05 The writings of C G Jung himself are the best place to read about all his main ideas but where to start when Jung s Collected Works run to more than eighteen volumes Robert H Hopcke s guide to Jung s voluminous writings shows exactly the best place to begin for getting a handle on each of Jung s key concepts and ideas from archetypal symbols to analytical psychology to UFOs Each chapter explains one of Jung s principal concerns then directs the reader where to read about it in depth in the Collected Works Each chapter includes a list of secondary sources to approach for further study which the author has updated for this edition to include books published in the ten years since the Guided Tour s first appearance

The Mythic Imagination Stephen Larsen,1996-03-01 Mythology is the universal tongue of human imagination As a tool for self discovery mythology is also a way of gaining access to the secrets of the psyche The Mythic Imagination is a quest for the ancient source of vision and meaning in the world of dream myth and archetype In the footsteps of Joseph Campbell Stephen Larsen guides the reader on a journey through the mythic landscape of the psyche His insight is that all of us at one time or another are engaged in creating personal mythologies that reflect the larger myths of the culture and our own deepest desires and aspirations This book is a guide for bringing the deeper mythic structures of experience into awareness for learning to recognize the archetypal content embedded in our dreams and daydreams feelings beliefs relationships conscious creations and behavior Student and authorized biographer of Joseph Campbell Larsen teaches us how to bring myth into our lives Reissue of the Bantam bestseller An International Psychology of Men Chris Blazina,David S. Shen-Miller,2011-01-19 This text is the first to provide a contextual understanding of the clinical issues that affect men and masculinity across a wide range of cultural and national settings It demonstrates that gender can no longer be viewed as an isolated characteristic in an era of increased globalization mental health professionals need to take ethnic and cultural issues into account to provide adequate care for male patients Numerous international perspectives are offered by the contributing authors authorities from countries such as Australia Argentina Denmark Canada India Ireland and South Africa on theoretical and clinical innovations for working with men Their chapters also offer insight into the socio cultural contexts for counseling men in and from their respective countries by exploring the ways in which being a man is socially defined what unique challenges men face and how these challenges can be negotiated within their specific cultural settings Topics addressed will include boyhood notions of manhood relationship concerns and power fatherhood and men s body image across the life span This text will ultimately enable mental health practitioners to have a better understanding of how to work more effectively with male clients

Tales for the Dying E. H. Rick Jarow, 2012-02-01 Tales for the Dying explores the centrality of death and dying in the narrative of the Bh gavata Pur na India s great text of devotional theism canonized as an integral part of the Vaisnava bhakti tradition The text grapples with death through an imaginative meditation one that works through the presence and power of narrative The story of the Bh gavata Pur na is spoken to a king who is about to die and it enables him to come to terms with his own passing The work does not isolate dying as an issue it treats it on many levels This book discusses how images of dying in the Bh gavata Pur na relate to issues of language and love in the religious imagination of India Drawing on insights from studies in myth literary semiotics and depth psychology as well as from Indian commentarial and aesthetic traditions the author examines the power of myth and narrative storytelling or hari katha and shows how a detailed awareness of the Puranic imagination may lead to a revisioning of some long held presuppositions around Indian religious attitudes toward dying By casting Vaisnava bhakti traditions and Puranic narrative in a fresh light the mythic imagination of the Pur nas takes its place on the stage of contemporary discourse on comparative mythology and literature

The Horned God (RLE Feminist Theory) John Rowan, 2012-11-27 This original and pioneering study of how men relate to feminism will appeal to all men who are concerned about their response to the women s movement and to the women in their lives It will also be helpful for women seeking a constructive response from men John Rowan drawing on his personal journey through feminism and on his considerable experience as a therapist tackles the issues in a much deeper way than has been attempted before For men to discover feminism is wounding for them It can even make them despair about being men at all But unless they accept that wound nothing much will change John Rowan shows that men have to heal that wound at a conscious social political level changing laws practice and daily behaviour They have to heal it at an unconscious level through therapy exploring their profound feelings about their mothers their fathers and their own internal female nature They also have to heal the wound at a spiritual transpersonal level exploring the world of the Goddess and the Horned God Only then says John Rowan can they start to have any real dialogue with women and only then can the world begin to change for both men and women The Wing of Madness Daniel Burston,1996 In The Wing of Madness Daniel Burston chronicles R D Laing s meteoric rise to fame as one of the first media psycho gurus of the 20th century and his spiralling decline in the late 70s and 80s The Vṛtra-myth in the Ṛg Veda Lucianne Cherry Bulliet,1986 Harima Fudoki Edwina Palmer,2015-11-09 Harima Fudoki dated to 714CE is one of Japan s earliest extant written records It is a rich account of the people places natural resources and stories in the Harima region of western Japan Produced by the government as a tool for Japan s early state formation Harima Fudoki includes important myths of places and gods from a different perspective to the contemporaneous national chronicles This document is an essential primary source for all who are interested in ancient Japan In this new critical edition Palmer draws upon recent research into the archaeology history orality and literature of ancient Japan to reinterpret this hitherto little known document Palmer s insightful commentary contextualizes the Harima tales for the first time in English Psychoanalytic Perspectives on the Shadow of the Parent Jonathan Burke,2018-11-07 Psychoanalytic Perspectives on the Shadow of the Parent explores the psychological challenges faced by the offspring of either famous or notorious parents Beginning with parental legacies found in mythology and the Bible the book presents a series of case studies drawn from a range of narrative contexts selecting personalities drawn from history politics psychoanalysis and literature all viewed from an analytic perspective The concluding section focuses on the manifestation of this parental shadow within the field of fine art as written by artists themselves This is a lively and varied collection from a fascinating range of contributors It provides readers with a new understanding of family history trauma and reckoning screened through a psychoanalytic perspective and will appeal to psychoanalysts psychotherapists counsellors and anyone interested in the dynamics of the family Dark Light Ronald Schenk,2001-01-01 Reveals the effects of the cultural unconscious or world soul in human experience On Life's Journey Daniel A. Lindley,2006 C G Jung wrote in The Development of Personality In every adult there lurks a child an eternal child something that is always becoming is never completed and calls for unceasing care attention and education That is the part of the human personality that wants to develop and become whole In this reflection on life s journey Daniel A Lindley applies the insights gleaned from many years of study of literature and psychoanalysis to show how we are always becoming and always obligated to care for that archetypal child Drawing upon psychological truths expressed by Shakespeare Wordsworth Eliot and others Lindley illuminates the process of individuation through personal experience art and archetype From birth to old age he demonstrates even in our separateness we share an archetypal ground Thus at any point in our lives the path we walk is not unknown it has purpose and direction We are living out stories that existed long before we did and will be there long after we are gone This deeply personal memoir folds time and space poignantly bridging one man s life and humanity s distant past with grace wit and quiet perception W Raymond Johnson PhD Director Epigraphic Survey Oriental Institute University of Chicago DANIEL LINDLEY PhD LCSW has degrees from Yale Harvard Florida State and Loyola University of Chicago
