General Secretariat,1980 Inter-American Yearbook on Human Rights / Anuario Interamericano de Derechos Humanos, Volume 4 (1988) Inter-American Commission on Human Rights,Inter-American Court of Human Rights,2022-08-08 This edition of the Inter American Yearbook on Human Rights like the volumes that precede it includes information concerning the activities of the Organization of American States in the promotion and protection of human rights It begins with the composition of the Commission and Court including the biographies of the members 1988 activities of each body reproductions of resolutions and reports by the Commission and historic correspondences and decisions by the Court Also included is an update on the status of the American Convention on Human Rights which reports the relation of each country to that instrument followed by resolutions adopted in 1988 by the OAS General Assembly The year 1988 distinguished itself particularly because the Inter American Court of Human Rights made its first decision on a contentious case the Vel squez Rodr guez case Honduras This historic decision is reproduced in Part Three of this volume Another important 1988 development in the Inter American system was the Protocol of San Salvador or Additional Protocol to the American Convention on Human Rights for Economic Social and Cultural Rights reproduced in Part Four Also included in its entirety is a report on the human rights situation in Haiti a report requested by the Organization of American States Permanent Council in Resolution 502 The Inter American Yearbook on Human Rights is completely bilingual English and Spanish National Treaty Law and Practice Duncan Hollis,Merritt Blakeslee,Benjamin Ederington,2005-05-01 This book which is dedicated to the memory of the distinguished international lawyer Monroe Leigh presents a consolidated treatise on how different states organize their treaty making through national law and practice Traditionally scholars have studied treaties from either an international or national perspective examining treaties in terms of the international law rules embodied in the Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties or focusing on the treaty law of a single state This compendium culminates a nearly thirty year effort to derive a third comparative perspective on the law of treaties It analyzes the law and practice of nineteen states Austria Canada Chile China Colombia Egypt France Germany India Israel Japan Mexico the Netherlands Russia South Africa Switzerland Thailand the United Kingdom and the United States Each chapter follows a common outline and contains an essay written by national expert s on a state s treaty law and practice along with excerpts of relevant treaty related legislation and documentation The states surveyed represent a cross section of the international community and as such provide evidence of state practice generally The first chapter illustrates how this evidence can inform international law examining what criteria the surveyed states use to define treaties whom they authorize to negotiate and conclude treaties the legislative role in treaty making and the effect of treaties within national legal systems Taken together these materials will serve as a lasting reference work on treaty law and practice for scholars practitioners and government officials

Hacia el Libre Comercio en las Americas Jose Manuel Salazar-Xirinachs, Maryse Robert, 2010-12-01 A Brookings Institution Press and the Organization of American States publication This is the Spanish language version of Toward Free Trade in America In the past 15 years the nations of the Western Hemisphere have staged a remarkable revolution in the way they trade with their neighbors First after decades of restrictive import policies several countries began to liberalize their trade and investment regimes Then beginning a decade ago numerous bilateral and sub regional trade agreements were achieved to serve as vital complements to domestic reforms and to foster trade flows among member countries At the Second Summit of the Americas in 1998 negotiations among 34 democracies were launched to establish the Free Trade Area of the Americas FTAA This report takes stock of the remarkable progress to date in the development of free trade in the Western Hemisphere It examines trade flows between countries in the same regional groupings and between members of different sub regional arrangements The report describes the main characteristics of the trade arrangements signed between countries of the Hemisphere and explores the development of trade rules in these arrangements Finally the report details recent advances in the construction of the FTAA
