from the cultures they are writing about Sustaining Persons, Grieving Losses Dianne Crowther, 2017-01-19 Dementia presents a significant social issue in a hyper cognitive culture where stigma relational neglect and isolation still accompany forgetfulness This raises serious theological ecclesiological and pastoral questions calling for a Christian response To fight against a malignant social positioning of anyone as an empty shell is crucial nonetheless there is another pressing reality the reality of ongoing loss Often the focus is on one or the other side affirming personhood or acknowledging loss and grief Spiritual caregiving and Christian pastoral caregiving are uniquely placed to offer both sustaining relationship and grief support to both caregivers and persons with dementia This pastoral approach emerges from cultural scholarship rigorous on the ground research and theological reflection on God's purposes in responding to persons in and beyond the Christian community Christian communities are called to be places of agape love compassion and hospitality We individually and corporately are called to care to love honor value comfort and sustain one another and one another includes those who travel the road of forgetting and those who travel with them This fresh pastoral approach offers theologically and culturally informed practical ways of sustaining persons in the midst of their losses throughout the dementia journey Young People'S Experiences Of Loss And Bereavement: Towards An Interdisciplinary Approach Ribbens McCarthy, Jane, 2006-11-01 Everyone from health care workers to family therapists will find a treasure trove of insight into how young people deal with the deaths of loved ones This book draws together a range of research and includes narrative based case studies to compose a comprehensive overview of various theories and research Learning Disabilities Helen Atherton, Debbie Crickmore, 2011-05-19 Learning Disabilities Toward Inclusion formerly edited by Bob Gates is one of the leading textbooks in this field It offers real ways to improve quality of experience for people with learning disabilities in all areas of life This new edition brings together a comprehensive and coherent collection of material from eminent authors with a wealth of professional backgrounds and roles Its contemporary focus reflects practice developments including the impact of changing policy and legislation on the nature and configuration of services The leading textbook for carers of people with learning disabilities A comprehensive overview of the field of learning disabilities care Well written accessible content Activities case studies diagrams and further resources including useful web links the embedding of key themes across chapters to draw diverse material into an integrated whole These are person centredness values the reality of practice the range of ability the range of services and national and international perspectives chapters on advocacy personal narratives and life story inclusive research risk safeguarding sensory awareness epilepsy and end of life care online case studies and activities with critical thinking questions and hot links to web resources to extend knowledge and understanding thereby facilitating learning a fully searchable customisable electronic version of the text to enable easy access and quick reference Helping Grieving People - When Tears Are Not Enough J. Shep Jeffreys, 2011-05-09 Helping Grieving People When Tears Are Not Enough is a handbook for care providers who provide service support and counseling to those grieving death illness and other losses This book is also an excellent text for academic courses as well as for staff development training The author addresses grief as it affects a variety of relationships and discusses different intervention and support strategies always cognizant of individual and cultural differences in the expression and treatment of grief Jeffreys has established a practical approach to preparing grief care providers through three basic tracks The first track Heart calls for self discovery freeing oneself of accumulated loss in order to focus all attention on the griever Second track Head emphasizes understanding the complex and dynamic phenomena of human grief Third track Hands stresses the caregiver's actual intervention and speaks to lay and professional levels of skill as well as the various approaches for healing available Accompanying these three motifs the Handbook discusses the social and cultural contexts of grief as applied to various populations of grievers as well as the underlying psychological basis of human grief Throughout the book Jeffreys presents the role of the caregiver as an Exquisite Witness to the journey of grief and pain of bereaved family and friends and also to the path taken by dying persons and their families The second edition of Helping Grieving People remains true to the approach that has been so well received in the original volume It includes updated research findings and addresses new information and developments in the field of loss grief and bereavement

Dying, Assisted Death and Mourning Asa Kasher, 2009 Dying and death are topics of deep humane concern for many people in a variety of circumstances and contexts However they are not discussed to any great extent or with sufficient focus in order to gain knowledge and understanding of their major features and aspects The present volume is an attempt to bridge the undesirable gap between what should be known and understood about dying and death and what is easily accessible Included in the present volume are chapters arranged in three sections First there are chapters on aspects of dying written by people who have professional experience and personal insights into the nature of the processes at work and the ways it should be treated Secondly there are chapters on assisted death Euthanasia that illuminate the practices involved in the professional assistance given to persons who suffer from an incurable illness and who do not want their painful life to be medically extended Thirdly there are chapters on mourning examined in a variety of cultural contexts These provide insights for different ways of maintaining the presence of the dead in the life of the living life in the hearts
