Reorientations / Arabic and

Persian Poetry Suzanne Pinckney Stetkevych, 1994-03-22 Employing contemporary literary theory eight members of the Chicago school of Arabic and Persian literature reorient the critical approach to classical Middle Eastern literature The authors analyze a broad spectrum of poetry ranging from the pre Islamic ode of the sixth century to seventeenth century Persian Safavid Moghul verse Among issues considered are the ritual and sacrificial aspects of literature the transition from orality to literacy the iconographical and mythic dimensions of philology and imitation as a form of creation The inclusion of contemporary translations of all the poems discussed is an important feature for students of Middle Eastern literature and comparative poetics

Georg Trakl's Poetry Richard Detsch, 1991-01-18 The chaotic mixture of elements in Trakl's poems is more apparent than real this book argues thus challenging the Orphic view of Walther Killy and his followers A dream of unity one of the most ancient dreams in human history is in fact reflected in all of Trakl's work The recurring themes in Trakl's poetry are brought into focus through Dr Detsch's literary psychological and philosophical analysis the union of male and female in incest from the Jungian standpoint the union of life and death from the Heideggerian standpoint and that of German Romanticism as represented by Novalis the union of good and evil from the Dostoyevskian or Nietzschean standpoint the mixture of images from the Goethean definition of symbolism Trakl 1887-1914 is presented as a poet whose lyric voice sounded a cry of hope in its deepest despair As Dr Detsch's generous quotations from the poet's work in the original German make clear Georg Trakl sought poetic expression for a union of opposites
