Nischik, 2017-04-20 In 2013 the Nobel Prize for Literature was for the first time awarded to a short story writer and to a Canadian Alice Munro The award focused international attention on a genre that had long been thriving in Canada particularly since the 1960s This book traces the development and highlights of the English language Canadian short story from the late 19th century up to the present The history as well as the theoretical approaches to the genre are

Land Deep in Time Weronika Suchacka, Hartmut Lutz, 2023-10-09 This volume brings together a group of most highly acclaimed Canadian writers and distinguished international experts on Canadian literature to discuss what potential Janice Kulyk Keefer's concept of historiographic ethnofiction has for ethnic writing in Canada. The collection builds upon Kulyk Keefer's idea but also moves beyond it by discussing such realms of the concept as its ethics and aesthetics, multiple and multilayered sites, generic intersections and diasporic contexts. Thus focusing on Canadian historiographic ethnofiction, Land Deep in Time is the first study to define and explore a type of writing which maintains a marked presence in Canadian literature but has not yet been recognized as a separately identifiable genre. The Journal of Commonwealth Literature, 2000. One number each year includes Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature.

Being/s in Transit, 2021-11-22 This fifth volume of ASNEL Papers covers a wide range of theoretical and thematic approaches to the topics of travelling, migration and dislocation. All migrants are travellers but not all travellers are migrants. Migration and the figure of the migrant have become key concepts in recent post colonial studies. However migration is not such a new or exceptional phenomenon. From the eighteenth century onward there have been migrations from Europe to what are now called post colonial countries and this prepared the ground for movement back to the old but also to the new centres of Europe and elsewhere. Travel and travel experience on the other hand have been part of the cultural codes not only of the West and not only of imperialism. The essays in this volume look at both kinds of movement at their intersections and at their dislocating effects. They cover a wide range of topics from early seventeenth century travel reports through nineteenth century women's travel writing to such contemporary writers as Michael Ondaatje and Janette Turner Hospital.

Being/s in Transit Liselotte Glage, 2000. This fifth volume of ASNEL Papers covers a range of theoretical and thematic approaches to the topics of travelling, migration and dislocation. The essays in this volume look at both kinds of movement at their intersections and at the dislocating effects.

Double-Voicing the Canadian Short Story Laurie Kruk, 2016-05-27 Double Voicing the Canadian Short Story is the first comparative study of eight internationally and nationally acclaimed writers of short fiction: Sandra Birdsell, Timothy Findley, Jack Hodgins, Thomas King, Alistair MacLeod, Olive Senior, Carol Shields and Guy Vanderhaeghe. With the 2013 Nobel Prize for Literature going to Alice Munro, the master of the contemporary short story, this art form is receiving the recognition that has been its due and as this book demonstrates, Canadian writers have long excelled in it. From theme to choice of narrative perspective, from emphasis on irony, satire and parody to uncovering the multiple layers that make up contemporary Canadian English, the short story provides a powerful vehicle for a distinctively Canadian double voicing. The stories discussed here are compelling reflections on our most intimate roles and relationships and Kruk offers a thoughtful juxtaposition of themes of gender, mothers and sons, family, storytelling, otherness in Canada and the politics of identity to name but a few. As a multi author study, Double Voicing the Canadian Short Story is broad in scope and its readings are valuable to Canadian literature as a whole making the book of interest to students of Canadian literature or the short story and to readers of both Published in English A Comprehensive Bibliography of English-Canadian Short Stories, 1950-1983 ,1988 This bibliography endeavors to record every short story written in English by a Canadian author and first published during the period 1950 1983 and contains 20 000 citations to stories by more than 5 300 authors Organized alphabetically by author s last name it includes references to anthology and story collection appearances by these authors thus providing a complete publishing history of each story cited Hundreds of Canadian periodicals and dozens of anthologies were searched in addition the bibliography cites appearances by Canadian stories in foreign books and periodicals
