

Bounded Rationality

When individuals make decisions, their rationality is limited by the information they have, the cognitive limitations of their minds, and the finite time they have to make a decision.

Rationality and Reality Colin Cheyne, John Worrall, 2006-07-25 Alan Musgrave has consistently defended two positions that he regards as commonsensical critical realism and critical rationalism In defence of critical realism he argues for the objective existence of the external world as opposed to idealism as well as arguing for scientific realism against all anti realist accounts of science His critical rationalism is drawn from the work of Karl Popper and stands opposed to inductivist and irrationalist methodologies In defence of these positions Musgrave's writings have covered a wide range of topics in epistemology metaphysics philosophy of science philosophy of mathematics history of science theories of truth and economic theory In this volume a group of internationally renowned authors discuss themes that are relevant in one way or another to Musgrave's work This is not intended as a standard celebratory festschrift but rather as a new examination of topics of current interest in philosophy The contributory essays are followed by responses from Alan Musgrave himself

On Faith, Rationality, and the Other in the Late Middle Ages: Gergely Tibor Bakos, 2011-01-01 On Faith Rationality and the Other in the Late Middle Ages is an investigation of Nicholas of Cusa that seeks a deeper understanding of this important medieval intellectual and his importance for us today One of Gergely Bakos's primary aims in this study is to understand Nicholas of Cusa's important and underexamined dimensions of his approach to dialogue with Islam. The framework and the methodology that informs this investigation was inspired by the late Professor Jos Decorte 1954-2001, a Flemish philosopher and mediaevalist at the Catholic University of Leuven in Belgium. Bakos carefully exposit his method of approaching medieval thought. Part One and then applies and tests this method in practice. Part Two The most extensive part of this study offers a sketch of the historical background of Nicholas's dialogue with Islam and investigates what possibilities this approach offers. All of this is placed in dialogue with two other mediaeval approaches to Islam: Thomas Aquinas and Ramon Llull. The final chapters discuss Nicholas of Cusa's project from a perspective offered by his mystical theology. The book culminates in an exploration of the possibilities of Nicholas of Cusa's approach by testing the framework of the study. Finally, the author evaluates the application of his own approach. Part Three The study ultimately has two purposes: to contribute to a better understanding of Nicholas of Cusa's thought on the one hand and on the other to test a particular methodology and interpretative framework for the understanding of mediaeval culture.

Rationality and Pluralism Windy Dryden, 2013. Leading psychologist, lecturer and author Windy Dryden has compiled his most valuable writings on Rational Emotive Behaviour Therapy from the last thirty-five years. This collection reveals the thinking, concepts and practical experience that have made Dryden one of the most respected and cited REBT authorities of our time. Dryden has authored or edited over 195 books and established Europe's first Masters in REBT. While his primary allegiance remains with REBT, he has published extensively on CBT and the wider issues of psychotherapy. Dryden's pluralistic perspective on REBT comes through in such seminal pieces as The therapeutic alliance in rational emotive individual therapy, Compromises in rational emotive therapy, Adapting CBT to a broad clientele, Unconditional self-acceptance and self-compassion.

The Australasian Journal of Psychology and Philosophy, 1923 Marx, Durkheim, Weber Ken Morrison, 2006-08-11. This Second Edition is a thoroughly revised, expanded version of the bestselling student text in classical social theory. Author Kenneth Morrison provides an authoritative, accessible undergraduate guide to the three pivotal figures in the classical tradition: Readable and stimulating. The Second Edition of Marx, Durkheim, Weber: Formations of Modern Social Thought explains the key ideas of these thinkers and situates them in their historical and philosophical contexts.

New Dimensions of Confucian and Neo-Confucian Philosophy Chung-ying Cheng, 1991-03-26. This is the first book to thoroughly explore Confucian and Neo-Confucian metaphysics and ethics, building upon the creativity and temporality of human existence and human nature as well as their extension into human culture. Fundamental essays deal cogently with the relationship between Chinese language and Chinese philosophy, offering general categories which shape the matrix of ideas woven in Chinese philosophy from its very beginnings. Along with more general characterizations, there are themes placing Confucian thinkers in touch with modern communication theories perceptions of individuals religious themes and scientific worldviews Conceptual and comparative essays probe the frontiers of Chinese philosophy in its contemporary Confucian revival

A Theory of Communication and Justice Klaus Bruhn Jensen, 2020-12-29 This book outlines a theory of communication and justice for the digital age updating classic positions in political philosophy and ethics and engaging thinkers from Aristotle through Immanuel Kant and the American pragmatists to John Rawls Jürgen Habermas and Amartya Sen In communication seeking to define justice and call out injustice there is such a thing as the last word The chapters in this book trace the historical emergence of communication as a human right specify the technological resources and institutional frameworks necessary for exercising that right and address some of the challenges following from digitalization that currently confront citizens national regulators and international agencies Among the issues covered are public access to information archives past and present local and global networks of communication as sources of personal identities and imagined communities the ongoing reconfiguration of the press as a fourth branch of governance and privacy as a precondition for individuals and collectives to live their lives according to plans and to make their own histories The book will be of interest to students and researchers in media and communication studies cultural studies political philosophy and ethics and interdisciplinary fields examining the ethical and political implications of new information and communication infrastructures

Christopraxis Andrew Root, 2014 Finding practical theology not always able to present frameworks for understanding concrete and lived experience with divine action Andrew Root's Christopraxis seeks to reset the edifice of practical theology on a new foundation While not minimizing its commitment to the lived and concrete Root argues that practical theology has neglected deeper theological underpinnings Root seeks to create a practical theology that is properly and fully theological post postmodern post Aristotelian and that attends to doctrines such as divine action and justification

Cybersemiotics Søren Brier, 2008-05-10 A growing field of inquiry biosemiotics is a theory of cognition and communication that unites the living and the cultural world What is missing from this theory however is the unification of the information and computational realms of the non living natural and technical world Cybersemiotics provides such a framework By integrating cybernetic information theory into the unique semiotic framework of C S Peirce Søren Brier attempts to find a unified conceptual framework that encompasses the complex area of information cognition and communication science This integration is performed through Niklas Luhmann's autopoietic systems theory of social communication The link between cybernetics and semiotics is further an ethological and evolutionary theory of embodiment combined with Lakoff and Johnson's philosophy in the flesh This demands the development of a transdisciplinary philosophy of knowledge as much common sense as it is cultured in the humanities and the sciences Such an epistemological and ontological framework is also developed in this volume Cybersemiotics not only builds a bridge between science and culture it provides a framework that encompasses them both The cybersemiotic framework offers a platform for a new level of global dialogue between knowledge systems including a view of science that does not compete with religion but offers the possibility for mutual and fruitful exchange

How to Do Philosophy with Words Jesús Navarro, 2017-01-26 Nowadays philosophy is characterized by such heterogeneous intellectual practices that its very unity and coherence seem endangered What is especially disconcerting is that most authors manage to largely ignore the very existence of methodological positions radically different from their own Fortunately there have been exceptions and the present volume focuses on one of them the failed debate that took place between John Searle and Jacques Derrida This book thoroughly analyses that exchange contextualizing it within the respective philosophical traditions of the two thinkers with the general aim of turning their dispute into what it was not a respectful sensible and fruitful controversy This episode is thus taken as an opportunity to reflect on the peculiar nature of philosophy as an intellectual practice and to discuss some of its main themes language as an instrument for communication the intentionality of consciousness and difference as a constitutive element of every text
