Thought, Existence and Reality as Viewed by F.H. Bradley and Bernard Bosanquet Walter Sylvester Gamertsfelder, 1920

The Expository Times ,1910 Revival: Thought and Reality - Hegelianism and Advaita (1937) Poolla Tirupati Raju, 2018-07-27 This work is a contribution to certain aspects of idealistic philosophy It is a comparative study yet it is not a comparison for the sake of comparison This book examines the supra rational Absolutism of the West developed under the Hegelian influence and in the light of the criticisms shows the peculiar character of the Advaita Vedanta of Sankara It is therefore not a mere exposition but a criticism and construction The discussions are not cosmological but epistemological and metaphysical approached from the side of logic The work may also be viewed as a reorientation of Sankara's system It places Sankara's philosophy in line with the idealistic philosophies of the West so that we can understand the peculiarities of the former in terms of the latter It thus discovers or brings into clearer light the guiding principle of Sankara's thought It brings out the full significance of the principles of non contradiction applied by Sankara as a test of truth and reality and shows its difference from the same principle as understood by Hegel and the Hegelians The aim of this work is to attempt at laying the metaphysical foundation of the logic of supra rational Absolutism the interpretation of Advaita is based mostly on polemical works CUET-PG Philosophy Theory Book 2026 II Guide Book II All 5 Section Covered II In Detail II Point Wise II Easy to Understand Language II 2nd Edition II By Diwakar Education Hub ,2025-08-24 CUET PG Philosophy Theory Book II 2nd Edition By Diwakar Education Hub The CUET PG Philosophy Theory Book II 2nd Edition by Diwakar Education Hub Publication is a complete and exam focused guide covering all 5 sections of the syllabus in a clear simple and point wise manner Complete Coverage All 5 sections of CUET PG Philosophy Book II included in detail Point Wise Presentation Easy to read revise and memorize key concepts Simplified Language Difficult philosophical ideas explained in simple terms Balanced Approach Detailed explanations without unnecessary complexity Exam Oriented Content Fully aligned with the latest CUET PG syllabus and pattern Quick Revision Friendly Structured format for last minute preparation Student Friendly Layout Step by step guidance for self study and confidence building Film, Philosophy, and Reality Nathan Andersen, 2018-12-21 Film Philosophy and Reality Ancient Greece to Godard is an original contribution to film philosophy that shows how thinking about movies can lead us into a richer appreciation and understanding of both reality and the nature of human experience Focused on the question of the relationship between how things seem to us and how they really are it is at once an introduction to philosophy through film and an introduction to film through philosophy The book is divided into three parts The first is an introduction to philosophy and film designed for the reader with little background in one or the other subject The second examines the philosophical importance of the distinction between appearance and reality and shows that reflection upon this distinction is naturally provoked by the experience of watching movies The final part takes a close and careful look at the style and techniques of Jean Luc Godard s groundbreaking film Breathless in order to illustrate how such themes can be explored cinematically The book addresses topics such as Film what it is and how to understand it The methods and concerns of philosophy The nature of cinematic appearances The history of metaphysics The relationship between cinema and life The philosophical relevance of film techniques With a glossary of key thinkers terms and concepts as well as sections on suggested films and further reading this textbook will appeal to lecturers and students in undergraduate philosophy and film courses and in courses focused on Philosophy of Film Philosophy and Film or Film Philosophy

A Theory of Direct Realism and the Relation of Realism to Idealism John Evan Turner,1925 Thinking, Believing, and the Realm of Appearances Lara Trivellizzi,2025-05-12 This book investigates Plato s later theory of knowledge with regard to perceptual cognition and its epistemological status It is argued that in Plato s later dialogues the three main cognitive phenomena related to acquaintance with the realm of perceptibles sense perception appearance and belief undergo a process of reciprocal conceptual disentanglement As a result the notions of sense perception and belief get disambiguated and clearly separated from the notion of appearance In addition those notions are integrated into an innovative epistemological model whose accuracy and reliability is clearly superior to the model previously embraced in the early and middle dialogues In these dialogues indeed sense perception and belief were still conflated with each other and with the problematic sophistic notion of appearance

The Early Philosophy of Daya Krishna Ramesh Chandra Pradhan,2021-05-11 This book deals with the philosophy of Daya Krishna an Indian philosopher of the twentieth century It discusses the central issues in Daya Krishna s early philosophy as a synthesis of the Indian and Western philosophical methods It presents problems of the past and the present in a holistic frame of creative philosophizing It provides a glimpse into the issues human beings face in all vital areas of human civilization It discusses the nature of philosophy and the philosophical method in Daya Krishna s syncretic philosophy Issues such as self and freedom and ethics and religion are explored in the chapters It is of interest to those who are engaged with Indian philosophy and Indian philosophers of the twentieth century and especially to those whose interest lies in understanding the cultural East and its philosophical responses to the cultural West

Appearances Goldsworthy Lowes Dickinson,1915 A Humanist Science Philip Selznick,2008-08-08 Providing a capstone to Philip Selznick s influential body of scholarly work A Humanist Science insightfully brings to light the value centered nature of the social sciences The work clearly challenges the supposed separation of fact and value and argues that human values belong to the world of fact and are the source of the ideals that govern social and political institutions By demonstrating the close connection between the social sciences and the humanities Selznick reveals how the methods of the social sciences highlight and enrich the study of such values as well being prosperity rationality and self government The book moves from the animating principles that make up the humanist tradition to the values that are central to the social sciences analyzing the core teachings of these disciplines with respect to the moral issues at stake Throughout the work Selznick calls attention to the conditions that affect the emergence realization and decline of human values offering a valuable resource for scholars and students of law sociology political science and philosophy

The Sources of Husserl's 'Ideas I' Andrea Staiti,Evan Clarke,2018-05-07 Despite an ever growing scholarly interest in the work of Edmund Husserl and in the history of the phenomenological movement much of the contemporaneous scholarly context surrounding Husserl s work remains shrouded in darkness While much has been written about the critiques of Husserl s work associated with Heidegger Levinas and Sartre comparatively little is known of the debates that Husserl was directly involved in The present volume addresses this gap in scholarship by presenting a comprehensive selection of contemporaneous responses to Husserl s work Ranging in date from 1906 to 1917 these texts bookend Husserl s landmark Ideas for a Pure Phenomenology and Phenomenological Philosophy 1913 The selection encompasses essays that Husserl responded to directly in the Ideas I as well as a number of the critical and sympathetic essays that appeared in the wake of its publication Significantly the present volume also includes Husserl s subsequent responses to his critics All of the texts included have been translated into English for the first time introducing the reader to a wide range of long neglected material that is highly relevant to contemporary debates regarding the meaning and possibility of phenomenology The Non-Existence of the Real World Jan Westerhoff, 2020-04-23 Does the real world defined as a world of objects that exist independent of human interests concerns and cognitive activities really exist Jan Westerhoff argues that we have good reason to believe it does not His discussion considers four main facets of the idea of the real world ranging from the existence of a separate external and internal world comprising various mental states congregated around a self to the existence of an ontological foundation that grounds the existence of all the entities in the world and the existence of an ultimately true theory that provides a final account of all there is As Westerhoff discusses the reasons for rejecting the postulation of an external world behind our representations he asserts that the internal world is not as epistemically transparent as is usually assumed and that there are good reasons for adopting an anti foundational account of ontological dependence Drawing on conclusions from the ancient Indian philosophical system of Madhyamaka Buddhism Westerhoff defends his stance in a purely Western philosophical framework and affirms that ontology and philosophy more generally need not be conceived as providing an ultimately true theory of the world
