Uncommon Arrangements Katie Roiphe, 2008-05-20 Katie Roiphe s stimulating work has made her one of the most talked about cultural critics of her generation Now this bracing young writer delves deeply into one of the most layered of subjects marriage Drawn in part from the private memoirs personal correspondence and long forgotten journals of the British literary community from 1910 to the Second World War here are seven marriages la mode each rising to the challenge of intimate relations in more or less creative ways Jane Wells the wife of H G remained his rock despite his decade long relationship with Rebecca West among others Katherine Mansfield had an irresponsible childlike romance with her husband John Middleton Murry that collapsed under the strain of real life problems Vera Brittain and George Gordon Catlin spent years in a semidetached marriage he in America she in England Vanessa Bell maintained a complicated harmony with the painter Duncan Grant whom she loved and her husband Clive And her sister Virginia Woolf herself no stranger to marital particularities sustained a brilliant running commentary on the most intimate details of those around her Every chapter revolves around a crisis that occurred in each of these marriages as serious as life threatening illness or as seemingly innocuous as a slightly tipsy dinner table conversation and how it was resolved or not resolved In these portraits Roiphe brilliantly evokes what are as she says the fluctuations and shifts in attraction the mysteries of lasting affection the endurance and changes in love and the role of friendship in marriage The deeper mysteries at stake in all relationships G. Evelyn Hutchinson and the Invention of Modern Ecology Nancy G. Slack, 2010-01-01 Slack enjoyed full access to Hutchinson's archives and conducted extensive interviews both with Hutchinson himself and with his students colleagues and friends She evaluates his contributions to theoretical ecology limnology the study of fresh water ecosystems biogeochemistry population ecology and the creation of the new fields of systems ecology and radiation ecology and she discusses his profound influence as a mentor The book also looks into his personal life which included three very different wives a refugee baby under his care during World War II friendships with such contemporaries as Rebecca West Margaret Mead and Gregory Bateson and a host of colleagues and friends on four continents Filled with information available nowhere else this book draws a vibrant portrait of a giant in the discipline of twentieth century ecology who was also a man of remarkable personal appeal Book Jacket diaspora and exile Travel Narrative and the Ends of Modernity Stacy Burton, 2014 Combining theoretical arguments with close reading this text traces how twentieth century writers have reinvented travel narrative for new purposes Women, Periodicals and Print Culture in Britain, 1890s-1920s Binckes Faith Binckes, 2019-04-10 New perspectives on women's contributions to periodical culture in the era of modernism This collection highlights the contributions of women writers, editors and critics to periodical culture in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. It explores women's role in shaping conversations about modernism and modernity across varied aesthetic and ideological registers and foregrounds how such participation was shaped by a wide range of periodical genres. The essays focus on well-known publications and introduce those as yet obscure and understudied, including middlebrow and popular magazines, movement-based radical papers, avant-garde titles and classic Little Magazines. Examining neglected figures and shining new light on familiar ones, the collection enriches our understanding of the role women played in the print culture of this transformative period. Key Features: Helps recover neglected women writers and cast new light on canonical ones; Highlights the geographical diversity of modern British print culture; Emphasises the interdisciplinary nature of modernism, including essays on modernist dance, music, cinema, drama and architecture; Includes a section on social movement periodicals.
