Slaves, Masters, and the Art of Authority in Plautine Comedy Kathleen McCarthy, 2009-01-10 What pleasures did Plautus heroic tricksters provide their original audience How should we understand the compelling mix of rebellion and social conservatism that Plautus offers Through a close reading of four plays representing the full range of his work Menaechmi Casina Persa and Captivi Kathleen McCarthy develops an innovative model of Plautine comedy and its social effects She concentrates on how the plays are shaped by the interaction of two comic modes the socially conservative mode of naturalism and the potentially subversive mode of farce It is precisely this balance of the naturalistic and the farcical that allows everyone in the audience especially those well placed in the social hierarchy to identify both with and against the rebel to feel both the thrill of being a clever underdog and the complacency of being a securely ensconced authority figure Basing her interpretation on the workings of farce and naturalism in Plautine comedy McCarthy finds a way to understand the plays patchwork literary style as well as their protean social effects Beyond this she raises important questions about popular literature and performance not only on ancient Roman stages but in cultures far from Plautus Rome How and why do people identify with the fictional figures of social subordinates How do stock characters happy endings and other conventions operate How does comedy simultaneously upset and uphold social hierarchies Scholars interested in Plautine theater will be rewarded by the detailed analyses of the plays while those more broadly interested in social and cultural history will find much that is useful in McCarthy's new way of grasping the elusive ideological effects of comedy

Myth and Authority Alexander U. Bertland,2022-10-01 Living in a province dominated by powerful oligarchs Giambattista Vico 1668 1744 concluded that political philosophy should work to undermine aristocratic authority and prevent political devolution into feudalism Rejecting the possibility that the free market could successfully instill civil behavior he advocated for a strong central judicial system to work closely with citizens to promote stability and justice This study puts Vico in conversation with other Enlightenment thinkers such as Locke Rousseau and Mandeville to show how his alternative warrants serious consideration In contrast to scholars who read Vico s New Science as a defense of the imagination this study casts his account of poetic wisdom politically as an epistemological critique of the aristocratic mentality Myth and Authority argues that Vico s depiction of pagan religion is a refined attempt to explain how oligarchy maintains its stranglehold on power While Western civilization did not follow the path Vico suggested it may now be more relevant as concerns grow about the increasing influence of the wealthy on civil institutions A/AS Level History for AQA Royal

Parliament. House of Commons,1927 The Ministry, Vol. 11, No. 01 Various Authors,2007-01-01 This issue of The Ministry contains a complete record of the twelve messages given during the 2006 winter training on the Crystallization study of Mark held December 25 30 in Anaheim California The crucial truth and the burden embodied in these twelve messages may be summarized in four statements 1

When we live in the mingled spirit we are learning Christ according to the reality in Jesus by the Spirit of reality so that His biography becomes our history to be the reality of the Body of Christ 2 The kingdom of God is the Lord Jesus sown as a seed into the believers and developing into a realm over which God can rule in the divine life 3 Christ s person with His all inclusive death and His wonderful resurrection is our all inclusive replacement for the producing of the one new man so we must hear Him and see Jesus only 4 Let us go forth and preach Christ to all the creation proclaiming the gospel presenting the truth and ministering life for the growth development and manifestation of the kingdom of God These messages are being published immediately following the training in order that they may benefit the saints participating in the many video trainings that are held throughout the earth The Announcements section includes a presentation of the present burden in the recovery concerning the Lord s move to Europe and the latest fellowship regarding the plan to build a ministry conference center in Anaheim California In the Announcements section we also include the 2007 calendar giving the dates and locations of the seven Living Stream Ministry conferences and trainings the seven annual feasts One cannot measure the benefits derived from the Lord s rich speaking in His ministry and the mutual blending and building up of the saints and the churches in the Lord s recovery from every continent during these feasts
