Rebirth of a Nation Leaford Clemetson Williams, 1954 Lithuania Alexandra Ashbourne, 1999-01-01 In 1990 the tiny Soviet Republic of Lithuania declared independence and began restoring the mechanisms of independent government and democracy that had been suppressed by its Soviet invaders for half a century Lithuania examines the first years of this rebirth in the face of the legacy of the Soviet occupation In addition to chronicling the lively chain of events leading to and stemming from the declaration of independence Alexandra Ashbourne studies the essential components of rebirth the creation of domestic foreign and security policies and the revitalization of an independent economy Drawing from the personal testimony of Lithuanians closely connected to these events Ashbourne appraises Lithuania's attempts to rejoin the international community and acquire an effective security guarantee She concludes that the damage caused by fifty years of Soviet domination created obstacles to the process of rebirth obstacles that are proving difficult and even impossible to overcome Readers of Lithuania will find its discussions applicable to most former Soviet republics and Eastern Bloc states The book will be invaluable to students and scholars of Lithuania Soviet this ideology so that society cheered as he advanced a set of policies that wounded our nation and intensified Black America's suffering. But Rebirth of a Nation is not merely about accountability. It is also about hope. A reparations process is not a utopian dream. Goza offers a practical path toward closing the racial wealth gap. Rebirth of a Nation shows readers how they can join the reparative process working toward the creation of a more perfect union. 1863 Joseph Edward Stevens, 2000

Drawing from personal letters, official documents, and rare photographs, the author offers a look at the tumultuous 1863 and all the personalities of the year. Atatürk, the Rebirth of a Nation Patrick Balfour Baron Kinross, 1989

Tales of the Nation Lene Bull-Christiansen, 2004

In light of the uses and misuses of history in Zimbabwean politics in recent years, this research report focuses on how versions of the country's liberation war history have become a site of struggle over the definition of Zimbabwean national identity. As identity politics often do, Zimbabwean nationalism draws on a wide field of cultural symbols of identity and political discourses of inclusion and exclusion. Therefore, the report takes a cross-disciplinary approach to the issue of national identity by mapping out the imaginary field of Zimbabwean nationalism. This approach opens up the possibility of cross-reading the political discourses of the President and the ruling party ZANU PF with opposing voices such as those in the works of the author Yvonne Vera. This cross-reading shows how Vera's novels and the political discourses participate in the struggle over Zimbabwean national identity by offering different versions of the nation's history in the form of patriotic history, feminist nationalism, or narratives of difference. In this way, the research report adds to our understanding of power and resistance in Zimbabwean politics of national identity. The Historical Film Marcia Landy, 2001

What is history? How do we represent it? How do our notions of history change over time? The essays in The Historical Film: History and Memory in Media probe the roles that cinema and television play in altering and complicating our understanding of historical events. The book brings together representative examples of how both media critics and historians write about history as it is created and disseminated through film and television. The essays explore what is at stake culturally and politically in media history and how this form of history making is different from traditional historiography. The volume is divided into four parts: Regarding History, History as Trauma, History Fiction, and Postcolonial Memory, and History and Television that progressively deepen our understanding of just how complex the issues are. Essays by top scholars analyze many different kinds of film: historical film, documentary, costume drama, and heritage films. The section on television is equally broad, examining phenomena as diverse as news broadcasts and Ken Burns's documentary The Civil War. Contributors are Mbye Cham, George F. Custen, Mary Ann Doane, Richard Dienst, Taylor Downing, Gary Edgerton, Naomi Greene, Miriam Bratu Hansen, Sue Harper, Sumiko Higashi, Anton Kaes, Marcia Landy, Shawn Rosenheim, Robert A. Rosenstone, Pierre Sorlin, Maria Wyke, and Ismail Xavier.
