Rebuilding Effective Government Locallevel Initiatives In Transition:

Rebuilding Effective Government ,2002 This publication seeks to contribute to the policy debate on decentralisation and the role of local governments in promoting human development by considering the situation in the countries of central and eastern Europe CEE and the Commonwealth of Independent States CIS It considers the key elements required to achieve responsible local government conduct based on the dynamic and often contradictory combination of strong central policies high quality local leadership and the mobilisation of civil and non governmental organisations at the local level Public

Sector Reform in Developing and Transitional Countries Christopher Rees,Farhad Hossain,2013-09-13 Over recent decades decentralization has emerged as a key Public Sector Reform strategy in a wide variety of international contexts Yet despite its emergence as a ubiquitous activity that cuts across disciplinary lines in international development decentralization is understood and applied in many different ways by parties acting from contrary perspectives This book offers a fascinating insight into theory and practice surrounding decentralization activities in the Public Sectors of developing and transitional countries In drawing on the expertise of established scholars the book explores the contexts achievements progress and challenges of decentralization and local governance Notably the contributions contained in this book are genuinely international in nature the chapters explore aspects of decentralization and local governance in contexts as diverse as Ghana Hong Kong India Indonesia Kazakhstan Morocco Tanzania Uganda and Viet Nam In summary by examining the subject of decentralization with reference to specific developing and transitional Public Sector contexts in which it has been practiced this book offers an excellent contribution towards a better understanding of the theory and practice of decentralization and local governance in international settings This book was published as a special double issue of the International Journal of Public Administration Post-conflict Reconstruction and Local Government Paul

Jackson,Gareth Wall,2020-06-09 The subject of local government and post conflict reconstruction sits at the intersection of several interrelated research areas notably conflict peacebuilding governance and political economy This volume addresses a gap in the academic literature whilst decentralisation is frequently included in peace agreements the actual scope and role of local government is far less frequently discussed This gap remains despite a considerable literature on local government in developing countries more generally particularly with regard to decentralisation but also despite a considerable and growing literature on post conflict reconstruction This volume provides a mixture of case study cross case studies practitioner reflection and conceptual material on the function of local government in the context of decentralisation in post conflict countries from both academics and policy makers This collection of in depth single and multi country case study analysis is complemented by practitioner reflections and framed within the 2030 Agenda building on the New Urban Agenda and particularly the Sustainable Development Goal 16 to promote peaceful and inclusive societies for sustainable development provide access to justice for all and build effective accountable and inclusive institutions at all levels The chapters in this book were originally published in the online journal Third World Thematics
