Recharting The Caribbean Land Law And Citizenship In The British Virgin Islands:

Recharting the Caribbean Bill (William) M. Maurer, 2025-10-01 If as many cultural critics have asserted the world is becoming more like the Caribbean then the task of charting what we mean by the Caribbean is an urgent one This careful study of the British Virgin Islands BVI calls attention to the ways in which ideas about nature and choice have come to justify a social order in which half the population is deemed not to belong and is denied legal rights The BVI one of Britain's few remaining colonial possessions has become an important destination point for Caribbean migrants and a center for international financial services Bill Maurer traces how the BVI came to be defined legally and popularly as a territorial entity and how BVI Islanders came to define themselves as a people sharing a culture He argues that law has been central to the construction of ethnic racial and cultural differences that create boundaries between peoples and places and that facilitate the exploitation of labor the exclusion of people from the political process and the globalization of capital Recharting the Caribbean will be important reading for anthropologist legal scholars and historians of colonial discourse Bill Maurer is Assistant Professor of Anthropology University of California at Irvine

Law and Identity in Mandate Palestine Assaf Likhovski, 2006 One of the major questions facing the world today is the role of law in shaping identity and in balancing tradition with modernity In an arid corner of the Mediterranean region in the first decades of the twentieth century Mandate Palestine was confronted

Law, Infrastructure and Human Rights Michael B. Likosky, 2006-10-30 From attacks on oil infrastructure in post war reconstruction Iraq to the laying of gas pipelines in the Amazon Rainforest through indigenous community villages infrastructure projects are sites of intense human rights struggles Many state and non state actors have proposed solutions for handling human rights problems in the context of specific infrastructure projects Solutions have been admired for being lofty in principle however they have been judged wanting in practice This book analyzes how human rights are handled in varied contexts and then assesses the feasibility of a common international institutional solution under the auspices of the United Nations to the alleged problem of the inability to translate human rights into practice

Salvaging Empire James J. A. Blair, 2023-08-15 Salvaging Empire probes the historical roots and current predicaments of a twenty first century settler colony seeking to control an uncertain future through resource management and environmental science Four decades after a violent 1982 war between the United Kingdom and Argentina reestablished British authority over the Falkland Islands Las Malvinas in Spanish a commercial fishing boom and offshore oil discoveries have intensified the sovereignty dispute over the South Atlantic archipelago Scholarly literature on the South Atlantic focuses primarily on military history of the 1982 conflict However contested claims over natural resources have now made this disputed territory a critical site for examining the wider relationship between imperial sovereignty and environmental governance James J A Blair argues that by claiming self determination and consenting to British sovereignty the Falkland Islanders have crafted a settler colonial protectorate to extract resources and extend empire in the South Atlantic Responding to current debates in environmental anthropology critical geography Atlantic history political ecology and science and technology studies Blair describes how settlers have asserted indigeneity in dynamic relation with the environment Salvaging Empire uncovers the South Atlantic s outsized importance for understanding the broader implications of resource management and environmental science for the geopolitics of empire

Ethnography and Law Eve Darian-Smith,2017-11-30 Ethnographies of law are historically associated with anthropology and the study of far away places and people In contrast this volume underscores the importance of ethnographic research in analyzing law in all societies particularly complex developed nations By exploring recent ethnographic research by socio legal scholars across a range of disciplines the volume highlights how an ethnographic approach helps in appreciating the realities of legal pluralism the subtle contradictions in any legal system and how legal meaning is constantly reproduced on the ground through the cultural frames and practices of peoples everyday lives The Vanishing Hectare Katherine Verdery,2018-05-31 In most countries in Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union the fall of communism opened up the possibility for individuals to acquire land Based on Katherine Verdery s extensive fieldwork between 1990 and 2001 The Vanishing Hectare explores the importance of land and land ownership to the people of one Transylvanian community Aurel Vlaicu Verdery traces how collectivized land was transformed into private property how land was valued what the new owners were able to do with it and what it signified to each of the different groups vying for land rights Verdery tells this story about transforming socialist property forms in a global context showing the fruitfulness of conceptualizing property as a political symbol as a complex of social relations among people and things and as a process of assigning value This book is a window on rural life after socialism but it also provides a framework for assessing the neo liberal economic policies that have prevailed elsewhere such as in Latin America Verdery shows how the trajectory of property after socialism was deeply conditioned by the forms property took in socialism itself this is in contrast to the image of a tabula rasa that governed much thinking about post socialist property reform

Transnational Legal Processes Michael Likosky,2002-04 This work comprises 24 linked essays by leading transatlantic scholars in international law and the social sciences examining the sociolegal aspects of multi jurisdictional legal techniques and trans jurisdictional social phenomena The contributors bring a range of disciplinary expertises including anthropology economics law and sociology to bear on key questions raised by transnational legal processes The pieces explore legal developments in multiple territories including Africa Asia Latin America and the United States The volume is designed as a general reader for courses on law and globalisation and related studies The collection is made up of four parts each addressing a central theme in transnational law and legal action law making and compliance human rights commerce and governance The essays discuss such diverse problems as the role of foreign actors in the ethnic conflicts of Kosovo and Rwanda the power the United States and the UK wield over international capital markets and the adaptability of existing public international law to deal with the challenges wrought by globalisation Sweetness in the Blood James Doucet-Battle, 2021-03-16 A bold new indictment of the racialization of science Decades of data cannot be ignored African American adults are far more likely to develop Type 2 diabetes than white adults But has science gone so far in racializing diabetes as to undermine the search for solutions In a rousing indictment of the idea that notions of biological race should drive scientific inquiry Sweetness in the Blood provides an ethnographic picture of biotechnology's framings of Type 2 diabetes risk and race and importantly offers a critical examination of the assumptions behind the recruitment of African American and African descent populations for Type 2 diabetes research James Doucet Battle begins with a historical overview of how diabetes has been researched and framed racially over the past century chronicling one company's efforts to recruit African Americans to test their new diabetes risk score algorithm with the aim of increasing the clinical and market value of the firm's technology He considers African American reticence about participation in biomedical research and examines race and health disparities in light of advances in genomic sequencing technology Doucet Battle concludes by emphasizing that genomic research into sub-Saharan ancestry in fact underlines the importance of analyzing gender before attempting to understand the notion of race No disease reveals this more than Type 2 diabetes Sweetness in the Blood challenges the notion that the best approach to understanding managing and curing Type 2 diabetes is through the lens of race It also transforms how we think about sugar filling a neglected gap between the sugar and molasses sweetened past of the enslaved African laborer and the high fructose corn syrup and corporate fed body of the contemporary consumer laborer Borders of Visibility Jennifer L. Shoaff, 2017-11-21 An anthropological study of Haitian migrant women's experiences of marginality and violence as they endeavor to make a living and life in the Dominican Republic Book jacket Money Talks Nina Bandelj, Frederick F. Wherry, Viviana A. Zelizer, 2020-06-09 The world of money is being transformed as households and organizations face changing economies and new currencies and payment systems like Bitcoin and Apple Pay gain ground What is money and how do we make sense of it Money Talks is the first book to offer a wide range of alternative and unexpected explanations of how social relations emotions moral concerns and institutions shape how we create mark and use money This collection brings together a stellar group of international experts from multiple disciplines sociology economics history law anthropology political science and philosophy to propose fresh explanations for money's origins uses effects and future Money Talks explores five key questions How do social relationships emotions and morals shape how people account for and use their money How do corporations infuse social meaning into their financing and investment practices What are the historical political and social foundations of currencies When does money become contested and are there things money shouldn't buy What is the impact of the new twenty-first century currencies on our social relations At a time of growing concern over financial inequality Money Talks overturns conventional views about money by revealing its profound social potential

The Top Books of the Year Recharting The Caribbean Land Law And Citizenship In The British Virgin Islands The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Recharting The Caribbean Land Law And Citizenship In The British Virgin Islands : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
