Theatre, Exhibition, and Curation Georgina Guy, 2016-04-20 Examining the artistic intellectual and social life of performance this book interrogates Theatre and Performance Studies through the lens of display and modern visual art Moving beyond the exhibition of immaterial art and its documents as well as re enactment in gallery contexts Guy s book articulates an emerging field of arts practice distinct from but related to increasing curatorial provision for live performance Drawing on a recent proliferation of object centric events of display that interconnect with theatre the book approaches artworks in terms of their curation together and re theorizes the exhibition as a dynamic context in which established traditions of display and performance interact By examining the current traffic of ideas and aesthetics moving between theatricality and curatorial practice the study reveals how the reception of a specific form is often mediated via the ontological expectations of another It asks how contemporary visual arts and exhibition practices display performance and what it means to generalize the theatrical as the optic or directive of a curatorial concept Proposing a symbiotic relation between theatricality and display Guy presents cases from international arts institutions which are both displayed and performed including the Tate Modern and the Guggenheim and assesses their significance to the enduring relation between theatre and the visual arts The book progresses from the conventional alignment of theatricality and ephemerality within performance research and teases out a new temporality for performance with which contemporary exhibitions implicitly experiment thereby identifying supplementary modes of performance which other discourses exclude This important study joins the fields of Theatre and Performance Studies with exciting new directions in curation aesthetics sociology of the arts visual arts the creative industries the digital humanities cultural heritage and reception and audience theories National Union Catalog ,1978 Includes entries for maps and atlases Design and Develop Text Documents (Publisher 2003) Cheryl Price,2004 The Impressionists at First Hand (Second) (World of Art) Bernard Denvir,2023-11-14 An updated edition of this classic collection of letters critical reviews and reminiscences by impressionist artists and their contemporaries The impressionists Claude Monet douard Manet Edgar Degas Berthe Morisot Camille Pissarro Pierre Auguste Renoir Alfred Sisley and others are probably the most popular of all artistic schools Their struggle to impose a new vision is one of the most absorbing stories in the whole history of art With imagination and insight art historian Bernard Denvir brings impressionism into focus by showing it through the eyes of the artists themselves and their contemporaries against the background of the time Through letters critical reviews statements and reminiscences of the people who were there the story of this groundbreaking art movement comes alive This was the age of innovation political liberalization emergent photography and modern ideas about perception The impressionists had new ways of painting but they also had a new world to paint This revised edition now features full color reproductions of art throughout and an updated bibliography Design and Develop Text Documents (Word 2002) Cheryl Price,Julia Wix,2003 Nineteenth- and Twentieth-century European Drawings Richard R. Brettell,2002 Pierre Auguste Renoir, 1841-1919: Paintings Drawings, Sculpture Auguste Renoir,San Francisco Museum of Art,Los Angeles County Museum,1955 Monet John House,1986-01-01 In this beautifully illustrated book John House discusses the career and painting techniques of one of the greatest Impressionist painters providing the fullest account ever written of Monet s working practices and the ways in which they evolved In so doing House throws much new light on issues central to the understanding of French Impressionist painting as a whole Impressionists and Politics Philip Nord,2014-04-04 Impressionists and Politics is an accessible introduction to the current debates about Impressionism Was the artistic movement really radical and innovative Is the term Impressionism itself an adequate characterization of the movement of painters and critics that took the mid nineteenth century Paris art world by storm By providing an historical background and context the book places the Impressionists roots in wider social and economic transformations and explains its militancy both aesthetic and political Impressionists and Politics is a concise history of the movement from its youthful inception in the 1860s through to its final years of recognition and then crisis

The Beast in the Boudoir Kathleen Kete,2023-11-15 Kathleen Kete s wise and witty examination of petkeeping in nineteenth century Paris provides a unique window through which to view the lives of ordinary French people She demonstrates how that cliché of modern life the family dog reveals the tensions that modernity created for the Parisian bourgeoisie Kete s study draws on a range of literary and archival sources from dog care books to veterinarians s records to Dumas s musings on his cat The fad for aquariums attitudes toward vivisection the dread of rabies the development of dog breeding all are shown to reflect the ways middle class people thought about their lives Petkeeping says Kete was a way to imagine a better more manageable version of the world it relieved the pressures of contemporary life and improvised solutions to the intractable mesh that was post Enlightenment France The faithful affectionate family dog became a counterpoint to the isolation of individualism and lack of community in urban life By century s end however animals no longer represented the human condition with such potency and even the irascible autonomous cat had been rehabilitated into a creature of fidelity and affection Full of fascinating details this innovative book will contribute to the way we understand culture and the creation of class This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1994

On Modern Beauty Richard R. Brettell,2019-06-11 A thought provoking examination of beauty using three works of art by Manet Gauguin and C zanne As the discipline of art history has moved away from connoisseurship the notion of beauty has become increasingly problematic Both culturally and personally subjective the term is difficult to define and nearly universally avoided In this insightful book Richard R Brettell one of the leading authorities on Impressionism and French art of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries dares to confront the concept of modern beauty head on This is not a study of aesthetic philosophy but rather a richly contextualized look at the ambitions of specific artists and artworks at a particular time and place Brettell shapes his manifesto around three masterworks from the collection of the J Paul Getty Museum douard Manet s Jeanne Spring Paul Gauguin s Arii Matamoe The Royal End and Paul C zanne s Young Italian Woman at a Table The provocative discussion reveals how each of these exceptional paintings though depicting very different subjects a fashionable actress a preserved head and a weary working woman enacts a revolutionary yet enduring icon of beauty
