Report On The Iban:

Report on the Iban Derek Freedman, 2021-01-07 The Iban or the Sea Dayaks of Sarawak have probably been the best known of the indigenous peoples of Borneo for well over a century Much has been written about them but until the results of Dr Freeman s field research were published by the Government of Sarawak and by Her Majesty s Stationery Office in 1955 there was little information on their methods of agriculture and their social system The book has become a landmark in the studies of shifting cultivation and of cognatic kinship organization and the ideas around which it is written have proved over the years to be a continuing and powerful stimulus in the development of kinship theory The field work on which the account is based was undertaken from 1949 to 1951 Although fundamental changes have taken place in the life of the Iban since the book was first published it has been decided to republish it substantially unaltered Report on the Iban Derek

Meeting, 1909 The Routledge Dictionary of Anthropologists Gerald Gaillard, 2004-06 This detailed and comprehensive guide provides biographical information on the most influential and significant figures in world anthropology from the birth of the discipline in the nineteenth century to the present day Each of the fifteen chapters focuses on a national tradition or school of thought outlining its central features and placing the anthropologists within their intellectual contexts Fully indexed and cross referenced The Routledge Dictionary of Anthropologists will prove indispensable for students of anthropology Submarine Telegraphy and the Hunt for Gutta Percha Helen Godfrey, 2018-03-20 In Submarine Telegraphy and the Hunt for Gutta Percha Helen Godfrey traces the connections between submarine telegraphy and the peoples of Singapore and Sarawak Borneo who supplied gutta percha the latex insulating the world network of undersea telegraph cables The book examines the complex inter relationships linking metropolitan and local environments in a trade once described as a matter of interest to the whole civilized world Using previously untapped corporate and official archives trade data and a rich documentary record the study explores the roles of cable producers scientists administrators and local Chinese and indigenous traders It reveals how a global trade may transcend technological geographic and cross cultural challenges even hostilities Motivations and outcomes are more complex than simple commercial gain

The Ending of Tribal Wars Jürg Helbling,Tobias Schwoerer,2021-03-24 All over the world and throughout millennia states have attempted to subjugate control and dominate non state populations and to end their wars This book compares such processes of pacification leading to the end of tribal warfare in seven societies from all over the world between the 19th and 21st centuries It shows that pacification cannot be understood solely as a unilateral imposition of state control but needs to be approached as the result of specific interactions between state actors and non state local groups Indigenous groups usually had options in deciding between accepting and resisting state control State actors often had to make concessions or form alliances with indigenous groups in order to pursue their goals Incentives given to local groups sometimes played a more important role in ending warfare than repression In this way indigenous groups in interaction with state actors strongly shaped the character of the process of pacification This volume s comparison finds that pacification is more successful and more durable where state actors mainly focus on selective incentives for local groups to renounce warfare offer protection and only as a last resort use moderate repression combined with the quick establishment of effective institutions for peaceful conflict settlement

The Peoples of Southeast Asia Today Robert L. Winzeler,2010-01-16 The Peoples of Southeast Asia Today offers an anthropological treatment of the ethnography and ethnology of Southeast Asia covering both the mainland and the insular regions Based on the proposition that Southeast Asia is a true culture area the book offers background information on geography languages prehistory and history with a particular emphasis on the role of colonialism and the development of ethnic pluralism It then turns to classic anthropological topics of interest including modes of adaptation ways of life and religion all illustrated with relevant case studies and all brought up to date to show what is happening now Students will find well supported discussions of subjects ranging from the development of agriculture and language dispersals to fantasy and reality in hunter gatherer studies to disputed interpretations of Thai Buddhism and Javanese Islam to ongoing government efforts to manage religion create proper citizens resettle and assimilate indigenous populations end shifting cultivation and promote modernization

Borneo Studies in History, Society and Culture Victor T. King,Zawawi Ibrahim,Noor Hasharina Hassan,2016-08-12 This edited book is the first major review of what has been achieved in Borneo Studies to date Chapters in this book situate research on Borneo within the general disciplinary fields of the social sciences with the weight of attention devoted to anthropological research and related fields such as development studies gender studies environmental studies social policy studies and cultural studies Some of the chapters in this book are extended versions of presentations at the Borneo Research Council s international conference hosted by Universiti Brunei Darussalam in June 2012 and a Borneo Studies workshop organised in Brunei in 2012 The volume examines some of the major debates and controversies in Borneo Studies including those which have served to connect post war research on Borneo to wider scholarship It also assesses some of the more recent contributions and interests of locally based researchers in universities and other institutions in Borneo itself The major strength of the book is the inclusion of a substantial amount of research undertaken by scholars working and teaching within the Southeast Asian region In particular there is an examination of research materials published in the vernacular notably the outpouring of work published in Indonesian by the Institut Dayakologi in Pontianak In doing so the book also addresses the urgent matters which have not received the attention they deserve specifically subjects themes and issues that have already been covered but require further contemplation elaboration and research and the scope for disciplinary and multidisciplinary collaboration in Borneo Studies The book is a valuable resource and reference work for students and researchers interested in social science scholarship on Borneo and for those with wider interests in Indonesia and Malaysia and in the Southeast Asian region BLS Report United States. Fox,Clifford Sather,2006-10-01 This collection of papers the third in a series of volumes on the work of the Comparative Austronesian Project explores indigenous Austronesian ideas of origin ancestry and alliance and considers the comparative significance of these ideas in social practice The papers examine social practice in a diverse range of societies

Paige, Karen Ericksen Paige, 2023-04-28 A welcome addition They argue that rituals of reproduction in preindustrial societies are essentially political In these societies they say men need to control the reproductive power of women in order to establish political power where there is no law or central government ritual is used as a way of gaining control The type of ritual will vary they conclude according to the economic base of the society for those who are interested in the subject this book is indispensable Its thesis is challenging and the documentation is excellent Paige and Paige have made an essential contribution to a long debate and their theory is sure to stir new and lively controversy Science Digest This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1981      *Report of the ...
