Mass Mobilization in the Democratic Republic of Vietnam, 1945-1960 Alec Holcombe, 2020-08-31 Immediately after its founding by H Ch Minh in September 1945 the Democratic Republic of Vietnam DRV faced challenges from rival Vietnamese political organizations and from a France determined to rebuild her empire after the humiliations of WWII H with strategic genius courageous maneuver and good fortune was able to delay full scale war with France for sixteen months in the northern half of the country This was enough time for his Communist Party under the cover of its Vietminh front organization to neutralize domestic rivals and install the rough framework of an independent state That fledgling state became a weapon of war when the DRV and France finally came to blows in Hanoi during December of 1946 marking the official beginning of the First Indochina War With few economic resources at their disposal H and his comrades needed to mobilize an enormous and free contribution in manpower and rice from DRV controlled regions Extracting that contribution during the war's early days was primarily a matter of patriotic exhortation By the early 1950s however the infusion of weapons from the United States the Soviet Union and China had turned the Indochina conflict into a total war Hunger exhaustion and violence along with the conflict's growing political complexity challenged the DRV leaders mobilization efforts forcing patriotic appeals to be supplemented with coercion and terror This trend reached its revolutionary climax in late 1952 when H under strong pressure from Stalin and Mao agreed to carry out radical land reform in DRV controlled areas of northern Vietnam The regime's 1954 victory over the French at Dien Bien Phu the return of peace and the division of the country into North and South did not slow this process of socialist transformation Over the next six years 1954-1960 the DRV's Communist leaders raced through land reform and agricultural collectivization with a relentless sense of urgency Mass Mobilization in the Democratic Republic of Vietnam 1945-1960 explores the way the exigencies of war the dreams of Marxist Leninist ideology and the pressures of the Cold War environment combined with pride and patriotism to drive totalitarian state formation in northern Vietnam The French Republic Edward G. Berenson, Vincent Duclert, Christophe Prochasson, 2011-10-15 In this invaluable reference work the world's foremost authorities on France's political social cultural and intellectual history explore the history and meaning of the French Republic and the challenges it has faced Founded in 1792 the French Republic has been defined and redefined by a succession of regimes and institutions a multiplicity of symbols and a plurality of meanings ideas and values Although constantly in flux the Republic has nonetheless produced a set of core ideals and practices fundamental to modern France's political culture and democratic life Based on the influential Dictionnaire critique de la République published in France in 2002 The French Republic provides an encyclopedic survey of French republicanism since the Enlightenment Divided into three sections Time and History Principles and Values and Dilemmas and Debates The French Republic begins by examining each of France's five Republics and its two authoritarian interludes the Second Empire and Vichy It then offers thematic essays on such topics as Liberty Equality and Fraternity laicity citizenship the press immigration decolonization anti-Semitism gender the family cultural policy and the Muslim headscarf debates Each essay includes a brief guide to further reading This volume features updated translations of some of the most important essays from the French edition as well as twenty-two newly commissioned English language essays for a total of forty entries Taken together they provide a state-of-the-art appraisal of French republicanism and its role in shaping contemporary France's public and private life Glimpses of Sociology in Eastern Europe Jiri Thomas Kolaja, Man Singh Das, 1990 A New Republic of Letters Jerome McGann, 2014-03-17 Jerome McGann's manifesto argues that the history of texts and how they are preserved and accessed for interpretation are the overriding subjects of humanist study in the digital age Theory and philosophy no longer suffice as an intellectual framework But philology out of fashion for decades models these concerns with surprising fidelity Literary Series in the Federal Republic of Germany from 1960 to 1980 Mark W.
