Essential Guide to Federal Employment Laws Gender and Women's Leadership Karen O'Connor, 2010-08-18 This work within The SAGE Reference Series on Leadership provides undergraduate students with an authoritative reference resource on leadership issues specific to women and gender. Although covering historical and contemporary barriers to women's leadership and issues of gender bias and discrimination, this two-volume set focuses as well on positive aspects and opportunities for leadership in various domains and is centered on the 101 most important topics, issues, questions, and debates specific to women and gender. Entries provide students with more detailed information and depth of discussion than typically found in an encyclopedia entry but lack the jargon, detail, and density of a journal article. Key Features Includes contributions from a variety of renowned experts. Focuses on women and public leadership in the American context: women's global leadership, women as leaders in the business sector, the nonprofit and social service sector, religion, academia, public policy, advocacy, the media, sports, and the arts. Addresses both the history of leadership within the realm of women and gender, with examples from the lives of pivotal figures and the institutional settings and processes that lead to both opportunities and constraints unique to that realm. Offers an approachable, clear writing style directed at student researchers. Features more depth than encyclopedia entries, with most chapters ranging between 6,000 and 8,000 words while avoiding the jargon and density often found in journal articles or research handbooks. Provides a list of further readings and references after each entry, as well as a detailed index and an online version of the work to maximize accessibility for today's student audience. Essential Texts on European and International Asylum and Migration Law And Policy Gert

Vermeulen, Ellen Desmet, 2017-12-04 This volume comprises the relevant legal instruments and principal policy documents in the area of international and European asylum and migration, including the latest versions of pending legislative proposals. The range of issues covered is comprehensive: human rights, nationality and statelessness, equal treatment, non-discrimination, racism and xenophobia, citizenship, residence and free movement, borders, border management and entry, visa and passenger data, labour migration, family reunification, asylum, subsidiary and temporary protection, irregular migration and trafficking in human beings.
