Each section contains insights for pastors, new theologians, professionals, and ordinary people, including summaries of the section, contextual considerations, and other visually informative features that reinforce the main points of Barth's thought. In addition, each volume features the voices of authors from different academic disciplines who contribute brief reflections on the value of Church Dogmatics for creative discovery in their disciplines. Volume 3 reflections include Samuel Adams (Biblical Studies), Gary Deddo (Systematic Theology), Cherith Fee Nordling (Embodied Theology), Will Willimon (Pastors), Jeff McSwain (Ordinary People), Daniel J. Price (Mental Health), Geordie Ziegler (Spiritual Formation), Ross Lockhart (Missions), and David McNutt (The Arts). Jonathan Lett (Science). Whether you are just discovering Barth or want a fresh look at his magnum opus, this series invites you to an enjoyable and insightful journey into the Church Dogmatics.

A Synopsis of Chronology from the Era of Creation, according to the Septuagint, to the year 1837; with a discourse on the astronomical principles of the scriptural times, etc. William CUNINGHAME (of Lainshaw.), 1837

Waters of Creation: A Biblical Theological Study of Baptism Douglas Van Dorn, 2012-08-01 This is the one book on baptism that you must read. It was seven years in the making. The author believes that until a new approach is taken, separations over the meaning, mode, and recipients of baptism will never be bridged. This new approach traces the roots of baptism deep into the OT Scriptures. When understood properly, we discover that baptism is always the sign that God has used to initiate his people into a new creation. Baptism in the NT is not new. Rather, it derives its origin from OT predecessors. When we understand that baptism comes from baptism, especially in its sacramental expression in the priestly covenant, reasons for the NT practice begin to make perfect sense. Now Baptists have an argument that infant Baptists can finally understand because we are beginning our argument in the same place. Yet we continue to have very baptistic conclusions as to the mode and recipients of baptism because we root baptism in baptism rather than circumcision.
