Edward Albee Barbara L. Horn, 2003-12-30 This volume documents the life and works of the acclaimed playwright Edward Albee His first four plays were all produced Off Broadway from 1960-1961 creating buzz that he was an up and coming avant garde playwright But his most notable accomplishment came a year later with his first full length play Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf His plays were linked with the philosophies of the European absurdist Beckett and Ionesco and the

American traditional social criticism of Arthur Miller Tennessee Williams and Eugene O'Neill Intended to serve as a quick reference guide and an exhaustive resource this collection includes play synopses and critical overviews production histories and credits and locator suggestions on unpublished archival material and lists of texts anthologies that have published Albee's material The two secondary bibliographies contained within are fully annotated chronologically and alphabetically with the year of publication presenting a fuller sense of Albee's playwriting career

Conversations with Lorraine Hansberry Mollie Godfrey, 2020-12-28 Honorable Mention Recipient of the Modern Language Association Prize for Collaborative Bibliographical or Archival Scholarship Spanning from the debut of A Raisin in the Sun on Broadway in 1959 to her early death from cancer in January 1965 Lorraine Hansberry's short stint in the public eye changed the landscape of American theater With A Raisin in the Sun Hansberry 1930-1965 became both the first African American woman to have a play produced on Broadway and the first to win the prestigious New York Drama Critics Circle Award Resonating deeply with the aims of the civil rights movement Raisin also ushered in a new era of Black representation on the stage and screen displacing the cartoonish stereotypes that were the remnants of blackface minstrelsy in favor of complex three-dimensional portrayals of Black characters and Black life Hansberry's public discourse in the aftermath of Raisin's success also disrupted mainstream critical tendencies to diminish the work of Black artists helping pave the way for future work by Black playwrights Conversations with Lorraine Hansberry is the first volume to collect all of her substantive interviews in one place including many radio and television interviews that have never before appeared in print The twenty-one pieces collected here ranging from just before the Broadway premiere of A Raisin in the Sun to less than six months before Hansberry's death offer an incredible window into Hansberry's aesthetic and political thought In these conversations Hansberry explores many of the questions most often put to Black writers of the mid-twentieth century including everything from her thinking about the relationship between art and protest universality and particularity and realism and naturalism to her sense of the relationship between Black intellectuals and the Black masses integration and Black Nationalism and African American and Pan African liberation Taken together these interviews reveal the insight intensity and eloquence that made Hansberry such a transformative figure in American letters
