Watcher James Lang, 2001 Native to the New World the potato was domesticated by Andean farmers probably in the Lake Titicaca basin almost as early as grain crops were cultivated in the Near East Full of essential vitamins and energy giving starch the potato has proved a valuable world resource Curious Spaniards took the potato back to Europe from whence it spread worldwide Today the largest potato producer is China with India not far behind To tell the potato's story Lang has done fieldwork in South America Asia and Africa Jacket Archaeology's Visual Culture Roger Balm, 2015-12-14

Archaeology's Visual Culture explores archaeology through the lens of visual culture theory The insistent visuality of archaeology is a key stimulus for the imaginative and creative interpretation of our encounters with the past Balm investigates the nature of this projection of the visual revealing an embedded subjectivity in the imagery of archaeology and acknowledging the multiplicity of meanings that cohere around artifacts archaeological sites and museum displays Using a wide range of case studies the book highlights how archaeologists can view objects and the consequences that ensue from these ways of seeing Throughout the book Balm considers the potential for documentary images and visual material held in archives to perform cultural work within and between groups of specialists With primary sources ranging from the mid nineteenth to the early twenty first century this volume also maps the intellectual and social connections between archaeologists and their peers Geographical settings include Britain Cyprus Mesoamerica the Middle East and the United States and the sites of visual encounter are no less diverse ranging from excavation reports in salvage archaeology to instrumentally derived data sets and remote sensing imagery By forensically examining selected visual records from published accounts and archival sources enduring tropes of representation become apparent that transcend issues of style and reflect fundamental visual sensibilities within the discipline of archaeology Exploring Lost Civilizations - What Their Innovations Teach Us Ahmed Musa , 2024-12-29 Exploring Lost Civilizations What Their Innovations Teach Us is a fascinating journey into the mysteries of ancient societies unveiling the groundbreaking achievements that defined their existence and continue to shape our world Through vivid storytelling and expert analysis this book explores how the ingenuity of long lost civilizations laid the foundation for modern technology architecture and culture offering lessons that transcend time From the architectural marvels of the Maya to the engineering genius of the Romans Exploring Lost Civilizations dives deep into the innovations that set these societies apart Readers will uncover the secrets of ancient irrigation systems in Mesopotamia the precision of Incan stonework in the Andes and the advanced urban planning of the Indus Valley These achievements not only demonstrate technical mastery but also reflect the values priorities and resilience of these civilizations The book shines a light on the remarkable minds behind these innovations visionaries engineers and artisans whose work continues to astonish modern experts How did the Egyptians align the Great Pyramid so precisely with celestial bodies What drove the development of metallurgy in ancient China or the astronomical accuracy of Stonehenge These mysteries are explored with a keen eye for detail and an appreciation for the creativity of our ancestors Beyond the awe inspiring feats Exploring Lost Civilizations delves into the lessons these ancient societies can teach us today It examines how their achievements were rooted in sustainability cooperation and adaptability qualities essential for addressing modern challenges like climate change resource management and urbanization It also reflects on the causes of their decline offering sobering insights into the fragility of even the most advanced societies Whether you re an archaeology enthusiast history lover or curious reader this book invites you to see the past not as a distant chapter but as a treasure trove of wisdom and inspiration Exploring Lost Civilizations What Their Innovations Teach Us is a powerful reminder that humanity s most enduring legacy is its ability to innovate adapt and create even in the face of inevitable change The Lost Civilization Enigma Philip Coppens,2012-10-22

An examination of archaeological controversies with arguments showing evidence of prehistoric civilizations not recorded as part of human history Are history books giving us the whole story Or is civilization far more complex and older than we have been taught Our school textbooks barely mention the 6 000 year old Sumerian civilization yet the latest archaeological findings at sites such as Jericho and most recently Gobekli Tepe in Turkey have been dated to 10 000 BC Civilization goes back at least another 10 000 years if we are willing to believe what our ancestors themselves claimed The Lost Civilization Enigma reveals the truth about Lost magnitudes to known cultures such as the Bosnian Pyramids and the civilization of Old Europe The fabled lost golden cities of South America and the Amazon which are slowly being rediscovered Fascinating examples of lost technology such as the Antikythera Device Atlantis and the fact that it was a real civilization Analyzing the historical and archaeological record best selling author Philip Coppens demonstrates that there is substantial evidence that civilization is far older far more advanced and far more special than is currently accepted Clearly our history books have left out a great deal Communication and Culture in War and Peace Colleen Roach,1993-02 By exploring the role of both culture and the mass media this volume fills a gap in the literature on war and peace Outstanding scholars provide an overview of critical mass media research and open up entirely new perspectives on the ongoing debate over communications issues in war and peace The contributions bring together common themes including the military industrial communications complex cultural imperialism and transnational control of communications Various perspectives are covered such as gender issues language study and bureaucratization
