Lost Property The Crash Of 87 And The Aftershock:

Lost Property Olly Newland,1994 Making Space Andrew MacLaran,2014-04-04 Making Space studies the built environment by examining the private sector forces responsible for its development and the urban planning systems put in place to influence guide and manipulate its outcomes The first part provides a theoretical context for understanding the functions of the property development sector and the state s interventions through the medium of urban planning It analyses the relationship between planning and development and focuses on the increasingly widespread adoption of more pro active entrepreneurial planning agendas as a response to a growing disenchantment with traditional regulatory approaches The second part comprises case studies drawn from Australia New Zealand the USA the United Kingdom and Ireland which investigate the ways in which urban planning in different socio political contexts has influenced the outcomes of the property development process as well as the manner in which such planning systems have changed in order to enhance their influence

Bulls, Bears and Elephants David Malcolm Grant,1997 This book covers the history of the stock exchange from the gold fields to the present day The exchanges beginnings in 1866 their development over the next 130 years including the boom and busts of the 1870s the turn of the century and the 1980s and their role in the New Zealand economy are examined Published in hardback with black and white historical photographs endnotes bibliography index and glossary of terms

Changing Times Jenny Carlyon,Diana Morrow,2014-02-01 From the golden weather of postwar economic growth through the globalization economic challenges and protest of the 1960s and 1970s to the free market revolution and new immigrants of the 1980s and 1990s and beyond this account the most complete and comprehensive history of New Zealand since 1945 illustrates the chronological and social history of the country with the engaging stories of real individuals and their experiences Leading historians Jennifer Carlyon and Diana Morrow discuss in great depth New Zealand s move toward nuclear free status its embrace of a small state free market ideology and the seeming rejection of its citizens of a society known for the worship of averages Stories of pirate radio in Auckland s Hauraki Gulf the first DC8 jets landing at Mangere airport feminists liberating pubs public protests over the closing of post offices and indigenous language nests vividly demonstrate how a postwar society famous around the world for its dull conformity became one of the most ethnically economically and socially diverse countries on earth

New Zealand Brad Patterson,Kathryn Patterson,1998 For many years New Zealand was stereotyped as a sleepy hollow of the South Pacific but more recently it has had an influence in international affairs which belies its size Noted more for its conservatism and stability its green fields and sheep than for its innovation and radicalism this most geographically isolated of English speaking countries took pride in its role as a provider of agricultural produce for Europe

In Stormy Seas B. H. Easton,1997 Presents a detailed look at the New Zealand economy in the 20th century and in particular its course since World War II This is not just a history but a narrative about a problem defining analysing and contributing to an understanding that will aid in its solutions Initial chapters examine the ongoing debate about the New Zealand economy looking at such factors as external impact and internal response the business cycle and growth and problems of financing investment Structural transformation the farm sector industry and energy and the market are all examined in later chapters with a discussion of the aftermath of Rogernomics and the decade of greed Lost Property Olly Newland,2001-10-01 An updated edition of the original text plus four new chapters in which Olly Newland reflects on how little and how much has changed since the 1987 sharemarket crash He discusses strategies for making a respectable living from investing in property and provides up to date advice for those wanting to build wealth and ongoing passive income from property investment Text is supplemented with black and white photographs of various colleagues in the property and sharemarket s sector The Aftershock Investor David Wiedemer,Robert A.
