presents James Ward's Gifford Lectures delivered at the University of St Andrews between 1907 and 1910 Ward a prominent philosopher and psychologist explores the intricate relationship between pluralism and theism offering a profound examination of metaphysics and religious philosophy In this intellectually stimulating work Ward delves into the concept of the Realm of Ends investigating the nature of reality the existence of God and the interaction of individual entities within a unified whole Through rigorous analysis and insightful arguments he navigates complex philosophical terrain challenging traditional views and proposing innovative perspectives This book remains a valuable resource for scholars and anyone
